"(Compensation shall be payable under this section to or on account of any child brother or sister only if and while such child brother and sister is under the age of sixteen) No compensation shall be payable under this section to a widow unless she was living with her deceased husband at the time of his death or was then actually dependent upon him for support No compensation shall be payable under this section to a widower unless he be incapable of self-support at the time of his wife's death and be at such time dependent upon her for support The terms 'child' and 'children' shall include step-children and adopted children and children to whom he stood in loco parentis if members of decedent's household at the time of his death and shall include posthumous children Should any dependent of a deceased employe die or should the widow or widower remarry or should the widower become capable of self-support the right of such dependent or such widow or widower to compensation under this section shall cease

If the compensation payable under this section to any person shall for any cause cease the compensation to the remaining persons entitled thereunder shall thereafter be the same as would have been payable to them had they been the only persons entitled to compensation at the time of the death of the deceased

"The wages upon which death compensation shall be based shall not in any case be taken to exceed twenty dollars per week nor be less than ten dollars per week

"(This compensation shall be paid during three hundred weeks and in the case of children entitled to compensation under this section the compensation of each child shall continue after said period of three hundred weeks until such child reach the age of sixteen at the rate of fifteen per centum of wages if there be but one child with ten per centum additional for each additional child with a maximum of fifty per centum)" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 307 In case of death compensation shall be computed on the following basis and distributed to the following persons

1 To the child or children if there be no widow or widower entitled to compensation twenty-five per centum of wages of deceased with ten per centum additional for each child in excess of two with a maximum of sixty per centum to be paid to their guardian

2 To the widow or widower if there be no children forty per centum of wages

3 To the widow or widower if there be one child forty-five per centum of wages

4 To the widow or widower if there be two children fifty per centum of wages

5 To the widow or widower if there be three children fifty-five per centum of wages

6 To the widow or widower if there be four or more children sixty per centum of wages

7 If there be neither widow widower nor children then to the father and mother or the survivor of them twenty per centum of wages Provided however That if the father or mother was dependent upon the deceased employe at the time of his death the compensation payable to such father or mother shall be forty per centum

8 If there be neither widow widower children nor dependent parent then to the brothers and sisters grandparent or grandparents grandchild or grandchildren if actually dependent to any extent upon the decedent for support at the time of his death fifteen per centum of wages for one brother or sister and five per centum additional for each additional brother or sister with a maximum of twenty-five per centum such compensation to be paid to their guardian Provided however That if any brother or sister grandparent or grandchild be totally dependent upon the deceased employee at the date of his death compensation payable to such dependent shall be twenty-five per centum of wages and five per centum additional for each such additional dependent with a maximum of thirty-five per centum such compensation to be paid to the guardian of any such dependent who shall be under the age of twenty-one years

9 Whether or not there be dependents as aforesaid the reasonable expenses of burial not exceeding one hundred dollars without deductions of any amounts theretofore paid for compensation or for medical expenses

Such sum shall be paid to the dependents or to the personal representatives of the deceased if they or he shall have actually paid the said expenses but if such expenses have not actually been paid they shall be payable directly to such person or persons as shall have furnished the burial under circumstances entitling them to recover the cost thereof from the estate of the decedent and in all such cases compensation agreements or awards of compensation shall so provide Provided however That if such reasonable expenses of burial shall exceed one hundred dollars the said sum shall be divided pro rata among the persons entitled thereto

If there be a widow or widower and a child or children by a former marriage the amount payable on account of such child or children shall be paid to the guardian or guardians of such child or children

If there be no guardian of any child or brother or sister on whose account compensation is payable the amount payable on account of such child or brother or sister may be paid to any surviving parent or to such other person as the board may by special order direct and the board may require any person other than a guardian to whom it has directed compensation for a child or brother or sister to be paid to render as and when it shall so order accounts of the receipts and disbursements of such person and to file with it a satisfactory bond in a sum sufficient to secure the proper application of the monies received by such person

No compensation shall be payable under this section to a widow unless she was living with her deceased husband at the time of his death or was then actually dependent upon him for support No compensation shall be payable under this section to a widower unless he be incapable of self-support at the time of his wife's death and be at such time dependent upon her for support The terms "Child" and "Children" shall include stepchildren and adopted children and children to whom he stood in loco parentis of members of the decendant's household at the time of his death and shall include posthumous children The term mother or father shall include a stepmother or stepfather and an adopted father or mother and any person who stood in loco parentis to the deceased employe and of whose household the deceased employe was a member at the time of his death A father or mother shall be presumed to be dependent upon child who at the time of the accident was a member of the household of such father or mother and who had contributed any substantial part of his or her wages to the maintenance thereof during any part of the six months immediately preceding the accident Should any dependent of a deceased employe die or should the widow or widower remarry or should the widower become capable of self-support the right of such dependent or such widow or widower to compensation under this section shall cease if the compensation payable under this section to any person shall for any cause cease the compensation to the remaining persons entitled thereunder shall thereafter be the same as would have been payable to them had they been the only persons entitled to compensation at the time of the death of the deceased

The wages upon which death compensation shall be based shall not in any case be taken to exceed twenty dollars per week nor be less than ten dollars per week

The compensation provided in this section shall be paid to or on account of any child until such child attains the age of sixteen unless such child is physically or mentally incapable of self-support in which case the compensation shall be paid so long as such incapacity continues

The compensation to a dependent widow or widower shall be paid until such widow or widower shall die or remarry or such widower becomes capable of self-support Provided however That the compensation to an alien widow shall cease at the expiration of three hundred weeks

Compensation to a dependent parent or grandparent shall be paid until such parent or grandparent shall die

On the question,

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer an amendment to this bill by adding a new section.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk then read the amendments as follows:

On page 28, between lines 10 and 11, insert a new section as follows:

Section 7½ That section three hundred and nine of said act which reads as follows:

"Section 309 Wherever in this article the term, 'wages' is used, it shall be construed to mean the money rate at which the service rendered is recompensed under the contract of hiring in force at the time of the accident, and shall not include gratuities received from the employer or others; nor shall it include board, lodging or similar advantages received from the employer, unless the money value of such advantages shall have been fixed by the parties at the time of hiring; nor shall it include amounts deducted by the employer, under the contract of hiring, for labor, material, supplies, tools, or other things furnished or paid for by the employer, and necessary for the performance of such contract by the employe. In occupations involving seasonal employment or employment dependent upon the weather, the employe's weekly wages shall be taken to be one-fiftieth of the total wages which he has earned from all occupations during the year immediately preceding the accident, unless it be shown that during such year, by reason of exceptional causes, such method of computation does not ascertain fairly the earnings of the employe; in which case the period for calculation shall be extended so far as to give a basis for the fair ascertainment of his average weekly earnings. In continuous employments, if immediately prior to the accident the rate of wages was fixed by the day or hour, or by the output of the employe, his weekly wages shall be taken to be five and one-half times his average earnings at such rate for a working day of ordinary length, excluding earnings for overtime, and using as a basis of calculation his earnings during so much of the preceding six months as he worked for the same employer. Where the employe is working under concurrent contracts with two or more employers, his wages from all employers shall be considered as if earned from the employer liable for compensation," be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 309 Wherever in this article the term "wages" is used, it shall be construed to mean the money rate at which the service rendered is recompensed under the contract of hiring in force at the time of the accident, and shall not include gratuities received from the employer or others; nor shall it include board, lodging or similar advantages received from the employer, unless the money value of such advantages shall have been fixed by the parties at the time of hiring; nor shall it include amounts deducted by the employer, under the contract of hiring, for labor, paid for by the employer, and necessary for the performance of such contract by the employe. In the contract of employment, if immediately prior to the accident the rate of wages was fixed by the day or hour, or by the output of the employe, his weekly wages shall be taken to be six times his average earnings at such rate for a working day of ordinary length, using as a basis of calculation his earnings during so much of the preceding six months as he worked for the same employer. To ascertain a working day of ordinary length and the average earnings per day as used in this article, divide the total earnings of the employe for so much of the preceding six months as he worked for the same employer under the contract of employment in force at the time of the accident by the number of days the employe was actually engaged in earning the money, excluding the time worked on Sunday.

If the employe is paid by the week, his weekly wage shall be taken as a basis for computing compensation.

If the employe is paid by the month, multiply his monthly salary or income by twelve and divide by fifty-two to ascertain his weekly wage.

If the employe is paid by the year, divide his yearly salary or income by fifty-two to ascertain his weekly wage.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

The eighth section was read as follows:

Section 8 That so much of section three hundred and ten of said act which reads as follows

"Section 310 Compensation under this article to alien dependent widows and children (not residents of the United States) shall be two-thirds of the amount provided in each case for resident and the employer may at any time commute all future installments of compensation payable to alien dependents not residents of the United States by paying such alien dependents the then value thereof calculated in accordance with the provisions of section three hundred and sixteen of this article Alien widowers parents brothers and sisters not residents of the United States shall not be entitled to any compensation" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 310 Compensation under this article to alien dependent widows and children during such time as they are not residents of the United States shall be two-thirds of the amount provided in each case for residents and the employer may at any time commute all future installments of compensation payable to alien dependents not residents of the United States by paying such alien dependents the then value thereof calculated in accordance with the provisions of section three hundred and sixteen of this article Alien widows parents brothers and sisters not residents of the United States shall not be entitled to any compensation

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Section 315 In case of personal injury all claims for compensation shall be forever barred unless within one year after the accident the parties shall have agreed upon the compensation payable under this article or unless within one year after the accident one of the parties shall have filed a petition as provided in article four hereof In case of death all claims for compensation shall be forever barred unless within one year after the death the parties shall have agreed upon the compensation under this article or unless within one year after the death one of the parties shall have filed a petition as provided in article four hereof Provided however That the consular representative of the nation of which deceased employe was a citizen or subject may file with the board a petition setting forth there are dependents whose identity are not known to him and setting forth his reasons for so believing in which case the board may extend the time in which such agreement may be executed or such petition may be filed for such period as may in its opinion be necessary to enable such consular representative to ascertain the identity of such dependent or dependents Where however payments of compensation have been made to any employe or his dependents said limitations shall not take effect until the expiration of one year from the time of the making of the last payment

Section 10 That section three hundred and sixteen of said act which reads as follows

"Section 316 The compensation contemplated by this article may at any time be commuted by the board at its then value when discounted at (five) per centum interest with annual rests disregarding the probability of the beneficiarys' death upon application of either party with due notice to the other if it appear that such commutation will be for the best interest of the employe or the dependents of the deceased employe and that it will avoid undue expense or undue hardship to either party or that such (employe or) dependent has removed or is about to remove from the United States or that the employer has sold or otherwise disposed of the whole or the greater part of his business (or) assets Except as provided in section three hundred and ten hereof and in this section no commutation of compensation shall be made" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 316 The compensation contemplated by this article or any part thereof may at any time be commuted by the board at its then value when discounted at four per centum interest with annual rests disregarding the probability of the beneficiary's death upon application of either party with due notice to the other for the purpose of providing for the payment of any sum due for legal and other services under a claim or agreement therefor approved by the board under the provisions of section five hundred and one of this act or if it appear that such commutation will be for the best interest of the employe or the dependents of the deecased employ and that it will avoid undue expense or undue hardship to either party or that such dependent has removed or is about to remove from the United States or that the employer has sold or otherwise disposed of the whole or the greater part of his business as assets Except as provided in section three hundred and ten hereof and in this section no commutation of compensation shall be made

"Section 317 At any time after the approval of an agreement or after the entry of the award a sum equal to all future installments of compensation may (where death or the nature of the injury renders the amount of future payments) (certain) with the approval of the Bureau be paid by the employer to any savings bank trust company or life insurance company in good standing and authorized to do business in this State and such sum (together with all interest thereon) shall thereafter be held in trust for the employe or the dependants of the employe who shall have no further recourse against the employer The payment of such sum by the employer evidenced by the receipt of the trustee noted upon the prothonotary's docket shall operate as a satisfaction of said award as to the employer Payments from said fund shall be made by the trustee in the same amounts and at the same periods as are herein required of the employer until said fund and interest shall be exhausted In the appointment of the trustee preference shall be given in the discretion of the court to the choice of the employ or the dependents of the deceased employe Should however there remain any unexpended balance of any fund after the payment of all sums due under this act such balance shall be repaid to the employer who made the original payment or to his legal representatives" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 317 At any time after the approval of an agreement or after the entry of the award a sum equal to all future installments of compensation may (where death or the nature of the injury renders the amount of future payments (uncertain) with the approval of the Bureau be paid by the employer to any savings bank trust company or like insurance companies in good standing and authorized to do business in this State and such sum shall thereafter be held in trust for the employe or the dependents of the employe who shall have no further recourse against the employer The payment of such sum by the employer evidenced by the receipt of the trustee noted upon the prothonotary's docket shall operate as a satisfaction of said award as to the employer Payments from said fund shall be made by the trustee in the same amounts and at the same periods as are herein required of the employer until said fund and interest shall be exhausted In the appointment of the trustee preference shall be given in the discretion of the board to the choice of the employe or the dependents of the deceased employe Should however there remain any unexpended balance of any fund after the payment of all sums due under this act such balance shall be repaid to the employer who made the original payment or to his legal representatives

Section 12 That section three hundred and nineteen of said act which reads as follows

"Section 319 (Where a third person is liable to the employe or the dependents for the injury or death the employer shall be subrogated to the right of the employe or the dependents against such third person but only to the extent of the compensation payable under this article by the employer Any recovery against such third person in excess of the compensation theretofore paid by the employer shall be paid forthwith to the employee or to the dependents and shall be treated as an advance payment by the employer on account of any future installments of compensation)" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 319 If an employe while in the course of his employment be injured or killed by an act or omission of a third person the right to the compensation provided in this article and the right of action against such third person to recover damages for the injury or death shall be concurrent and cumulative The filing of a claim petition or the payment of compensation under an award thereon or under a compensation agreement to the employe or other person entitled to compensation under the provisions of this article shall not destroy or affect the right of such employe or other person to bring an action at law against such third person to recover damages for the injury or death of such employe nor shall the bringing of such an action nor the recovery of damages therein nor the receipt of any sum in settlement of any claim against such third person in respect to the injury or death destroy or affect the right of the employe or other person entitled to compensation to enforce their right thereto except as hereinafter expressly provided

If a third person is liable to an employe or his dependents for the injury or death of such employe the employer or his insurer shall be subrogated to the rights of the employe or his dependents against such third person but only to the extent of the total compensation including the cost of medical surgical or hospital expenses medicines and supplies or funeral expenses or both payable under a compensation agreement approved by the Board or an award rendered by a referee together with the costs of enforcing the right of subrogation as hereinafter provided

If the employe or his dependents shall bring an action against such third person for damages for the injury or death the employer or his insurer shall be allowed to intervene and become a party plaintiff in the said suit upon petition by such employer or insurer to the court in which action has been brought as of the term and number of such action which petition shall have attached thereto a certified copy of the agreement and the Board's approval thereof or the award of the referee which shall be conclusive evidence of the total amount payable by the employer or his insurer to the employe or his dependents on account of the injuries or death

If the employe or his dependents shall not have brought an action against such third person for the recovery of damages for such injury or death and shall within five days after notice in writing by the employer or his insurer refuse or neglect so to do the employer or his insurer may bring an action in the name of the employe or his dependents In any such suit the employer or his insurer shall file a certified copy of the agreement and the Board's approval thereof or the award of the referee which when so filed shall be conclusive evidence of the total amount payable by the employer or his insuer to the employe or his dependents on account of the injuries or death

Whenever the employer or his insurer shall institute suit in the name of the employe or his dependents such employe or his dependents shall be a party or parties to such suit to the same extent and with the same effect as though the action has been brought by the employe or dependents and the employer had intervened as hereinbefore provided

If a verdict be rendered in favor of the employer or his dependents in any suit which the employer or his insurer shall have instituted or in which the employer or his insurer shall have intervened as hereinbefore provided judgment shall be marked to the use of the employer or his insurer to the extent of the total amount payable to such employe or his dependents Provided however That the employer or his insurer shall receive from the defendant in payment of such judgment or from the sheriff in distribution of the proceeds of any sale in execution thereof only such amount as shall be required to reimburse the employer or his insurer for the compensation actually paid to the employe or his dependents prior to the date of payment of the judgment or of the distribution of the proceeds of the sale as evidenced by the certificates of the board issued under section four hundred and thirty of this act together with any costs which have been incurred in the prosecution of the suit by the employer or his insurer and that the balance of the amonut paid on the judgment or of the proceeds of such sale shall be paid directly to the employe or his dependents Any sum received by an employe or his dependents upon a judgment received against a third party for the injury or death of such employe after deducting any counsel's fees allowed by the court under provisions of section five hundred and one of the act shall be treated as an advance payment of the compensation payable under the provisions of this article by the employer of such employe on account of such injury or death and shall operate pro tanto as a discharge of the liability of such employer under any compensation agreement or award and as a defense to any claim made by such employe or his dependents for compensation for such injury or death

No compromise or settlement before or after action brought by an employe or his dependents with a third person who caused the injury or death shall unless the employer or his insurer be a party thereto diminish or otherwise affect the right of such employer or insurer to recover from such third person to the extent to which the employer or his insurer would have been entitled to recover had the compromise or settlement not been made Nor shall any compromise or settlement affect the right of such employe or dependents to the payment by the employer of the full amount of compensation provided in this article nor shall any sum received by the employe or his dependents under such compromise or settlement be treated as an advance payment of the compensation payable by such employer or his insurer under any compensation agreement or award unless such compromise or settlement shall otherwise expressly and clearly provide in writing

Section 13 That section four hundred and ten of said act which reads as follows

"Section 410 On or after the (fourteenth) day after any accident shall have occurred the employer and the employe or his (dependents) may agree upon the compensation payable to the employe or his (dependent) under this act but any agreement made prior to the fourteenth day after the accident shall have occurred or permitting a commutation of payments contrary to the provisions of this act or varying the amount to be paid or the period during which compensation shall be payable as provided in this act shall be wholly null and void

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up from page 27 of to-day's calendar, bills on final passage postponed, House Bill No. 1499, File Folio 5975, for the purpose of amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1499, entitled

An Act granting power in certain cases to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or to any department thereof and to any municipal subdivision of the Commonwealth to purchase or condemn lands having thereon located road building material and to enter upon and cross private property and to locate and erect necessary machinery thereon and providing a method for the assesment of damages.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. WHITAKER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring.

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments to this bill at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk then read the amendments as follows:

Amend Title, lines 2 and 3, by striking out the following: "and to any municipal subdivision of the Commonwealth."

Amend Section 1, page 1, by striking out lines 4, 5, 6 and 7.

Amend Section 1, page 2, by striking out lines 1, 2, 3 4 and 5.

Amend page 2, by inserting between lines 26 and 27 the following section:

"Section 2 Before the right conferred by this act shall be exercised, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, or any department thereof, shall present its petition to the court of common pleas of the county wherein the lands or materials, or both, to be taken are situate, setting forth the name of the owner thereof, the location of the same, together with a map or plan showing the quantity of the same and the reasons which make the taking necessary. Ten days' notice of the time of presentation of said petition shall be given to the owner of the lands or materials. In case the owner cannot be found within the county, notice shall be given to the person in possession of such lands or materials, and if the lands are unoccupied, the written or printed notice shall be posted on the premises. When the petition shall have been presented, the court shall take such evidence as may be offered by the Commonwealth or the land-owner, and is satisfied that the proposed exercise of the right is reasonably necessary, it may so decree and the Commonwealth may thereupon exercise the privilege conferred by this act."

Amend Section 3, page 3, line 4, by striking out the words "or any municipal subdivision of the Commonwealth."

Amend Section 7, page 4, lines 14 and 15, by striking out the following: "or by the municipal subdivision of the Commonwealth as the case may be."

Amend Section 11, page 5, line 21, by striking out the words "or the municipal division thereof."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Legislative Journal.

Session 1917 — 122nd of the General Assembly

VOL. 4. HARRISBURG, PA., MONDAY, MAY 28, 1917. No. 62.

SENATE.

MONDAY, May 28, 1917.

The Senate met at 9 o'clock P. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Frank B. McClain) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Thomas W. Davis, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we thank Thee for the splendid spirit manifested by our American people, in these testing times. We thank Thee that there is crystallizing in this great land of ours a patriotism that stands out far and above anything else that the world has ever known, and we ask Thee to so guide all those who are the leaders in our nation that they may continue to remain cool in head but warm in patriotism. May the valor of American patriots who have preceded us be an inspiration to our nation in the crisis before us. These blessings we ask in our Saviour's name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. ENDSLEY, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

Albert B. Adams, West Newton.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

CORONER.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 23, 1917.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen. In conformity with law, I have the honor hereby to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate, W. E. Horner, to be Coroner in and for the County of Clarion, to serve until the first Monday in January, 1918, vice Fred E. Hartle, deceased.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

EXECUTIVE SESSION.

By unanimous consent,

A motion was made by Mr. CROW,

That Rule 38, which requires nominations made by the Governor to be referred to proper committees, be dispensed with, and the Senate do now resolve itself into Executive Session, for the purpose of acting on the foregoing nominations,

Which was agreed to.

Whereupon,

A motion was made by Mr. CROW,

That the Senate do advise and consent to said nominations.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—43.

Crow,	Jenkins,	Schantz,	Weaver,
Daix,	Leiby,	Semmens,	Whitten,
DeWitt,	Lynch,	Smith, R. E.,

NAYS—0.

Two-thirds of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Governor be informed accordingly.

Mr. CROW. Mr. President, I move that the Executive Session do now rise.

Mr. BEIDLEMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR.

FAVORING THE GRANTING OF SUFFRAGE TO WOMEN IN PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS IN THIS COMMONWEALTH.

He also presented communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows and referred to the Committee on Judiciary General:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 28, 1917.

To the Honorable, the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen. I beg to call your attention to the pending legislation before your honorable bodies relative to the granting of suffrage to women in Presidential elections in this Commonwealth.

I am convinced that the right of suffrage should be accorded to women, and inasmuch as this is a limited application of the general principle, with which I am in accord. I earnestly recommend to you the importance and respectfully suggest to you the advisability of favorably considering the legislation bearing upon this important subject which has so much to do with the future welfare of this Commonwealth and country.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

APPROVAL OF SENATE BILL NO. 249.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 24, 1917.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed Senate Bill No. 249, entitled "An Act amending section one of an act entitled 'An Act to amend section one of an act ceding jurisdiction over real estate in the County of Philadelphia to be acquired by the United States' approved April fifteenth Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and three increasing the limitation as to area of land the jurisdiction of which is ceded from twenty thousand square feet to forty thousand square feet approved the twenty-fifth day of May Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and seven by increasing the limitation as to area of land the jurisdiction of which is ceded from forty thousand square feet to eighty thousand square feet."

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

APPROVAL OF SENATE BILL NO. 282.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 24, 1917.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed Senate Bill No. 282, entitled "An Act making an appropriation for the Dixmont Hospital for the Insane to make good the deficit in operation of said hospital to January first one thousand nine hundred and seventeen."

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

APPROVAL OF SENATE BILL NO. 792.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 24, 1917.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed Senate Bill No. 792, entitled "An Act authorizing and empowering the several counties of this Commonwealth to locate lay out open construct and maintain public bridges whether wholly or partly within any city borough or township therein across any river or stream dividing or separating any part of said county from any other part thereof together with the necessary bridge approaches viaduct or other approaches to conveniently connect the same with existing streets or public roads in such cities boroughs or townships authorizing the cities and boroughs wherein such bridges are located to share in the cost thereof and to provide approaches therefore authorizing the taking and appropriation of property and rights of property public or private for such purposes providing a method for making compensation for property taken injured or destroyed thereby authorizing the several counties to enter upon and over public streets or roads in cities boroughs or townships for said purposes authorizing the several counties to appropriate money levy taxes and incur indebtedness therefor and authorizing the several counties to charge and collect tolls and rentals for the concurrent use of such bridges and approaches by street railway telegraph telephone or other corporations or persons making use thereof other than for ordinary foot or vehicle traffic and to enter into contracts for such use."

In approving Senate Bill No. 792 I have in mind that the inclusion of telegraph companies in the bill was perhaps unwise and its provisions may not stand the test of judicial decree. However, the other provisions are so entirely wise that it did not seem wise to veto the bill.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

APPROVAL OF SENATE BILL NO. 468.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 24, 1917.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

APPROVAL OF SENATE BILL NO. 692.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 24, 1917.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed Senate Bill No. 692, entitled "An Act authorizing tenants in common and copartners of land to pay their proportionate share of the taxes assessed against the land and providing that the sale thereof for unpaid taxes shall not impair or divest the title of those who have paid their respective shares of such taxes."

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

APPROVAL OF SENATE BILL NO. 817.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 24, 1917.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed Senate Bill No. 817, entitled "An Act to amend the second section of an act approved the thirteenth day of June Anno Domini nineteen hundred and eleven, entitled "An Act establishing in counties containing a population of from eight hundred thousand to one million four hundred thousand a board for the assessment and revision of taxes for State and county purposes prescribing the method of their appointment their powers and duties fixing their salary to be paid by the proper county and abolishing the office of ward borough and township assessors in so far as respects the assessment of State and county taxes' by changing the pay of subordinate assessors from four to five dollars per day."

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

VETO OF SENATE BILL NO. 797.

He also presented communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 24, 1917.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen. I return herewith, without my approval Senate Bill No. 797, entitled "An Act to ascertain and fix the fees to be received by the several clerks of the courts of oyer and terminer general jail delivery and quarter sessions of the peace of this Commonwealth in counties having a population of over one million five hundred thousand."

This bill increases in many cases, decreases in none, the fees paid to the clerks of the several courts of oyer and terminer, etc., in counties of over 1,500,000 population. It also adds items for the charging of fees not now provided by law. The effect would be to increase in a very substantial way the cost to those acknowledgments. Since the salaries of these clerks is fixed by the court and cannot exceed the amount received in fees it is manifest that the purpose is to increase these salaries. But there is no reason given for such increase. No one has asked for such increase. Nor does it appear that these salaries may not, by the nominal increase of business before the courts, be adequate to the service rendered.

To avoid the increased cost of such services as by law these officials perform seems to me to be in the interest of the people. Legal business must be sought by all people. Its cost should not be a burden, nor should it be increased without good reason.

For these reasons this bill is not approved.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President. I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

VETO OF SENATE BILL NO. 789.

He also presented communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 24, 1917.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith without my approval Senate Bill No. 789, entitled "An Act validating divorces granted on the ground of hopeless insanity of the respondent under the provisions of an act approved the eighteenth day of April nineteen hundred and five entitled 'An Act to amend section eight of the act approved the thirteenth day of April eighteen hundred and forty-three entitled 'An Act to convey certain real estate and for other purposes' so as to extend its provisions to the husband or wife of a lunatic or non compus mentis and to further regulate the procedure in action for divorce.' "

This bill attempts to validate divorces granted on the ground of hopeless insanity under the act of April 18, 1905, (P. L. 211). The act of 1905 does not make "hopeless insanity" a ground for divorce. It merely provides for service of a libel of divorce on a hopelessly insane respondent, who has given cause for divorce on existing grounds.

A divorce granted on the ground of hopeless insanity is a nullity and this bill if approved could not help such divorce.

A marriage relation is a contract and also a property right. This bill violates Art. I Sec. 9, and Art. 1, Sec. 17 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania and also Art. XIV, Sec. 1 of the Constitution of the United States.

For these reasons this bill is not approved.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. ENDSLEY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

VETO OF SENATE BILL NO. 480.

He also presented communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 24, 1917.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen. I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 480, entitled "An Act to amend section five of an act approved the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and fifteen entitled 'An Act to amend revise and consolidate the law providing for the burial of certain honorably discharged soldiers sailors and marines at the expense of the counties in which they shall die or have a legal residence at the time of their death to provide a system for effecting the burial of such soldiers sailors and marines to provide headstones and markers for the graves of such soldiers sailors and marines and to authorize the county commissioners of the several counties to purchase plots of ground for the burial of such soldiers sailors and marines.' "

This bill increases the amount which county commissioners may pay for headstones over the graves of honorably discharged soldiers from $15 to $25.

It further requires the county commissioners to pay to the relatives or friends of any deceased soldiers $25 for each headstone or monument erected by such relatives or friends. This latter provision carries the law affecting such cases far beyond the original intent.

The grave of every horonably discharged soldier should be decently and suitably marked and when necessary the county commissioners should pay for the same. The increase in such cases is not in any way objected to. But when the law compels the county commimssioners to pay $25 to the relatives or friends of every deceased soldier for each monument or headstone they may erect it is placing a stigma of poverty upon the worthy dead that they do not merit and it is reimbursing people who ought not to ask the county to pay for a memorial which they set up. It may well be that a soldier dying possessed a vast wealth would have a great memorial erected to his memory. Why should the county pay $25 or any like sum to the family to reimbuse them in part for a service which is sacred memory they should be willing wholly to perform? The bill carries relief too far.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. BEALES. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

VETO OF SENATE BILL NO. 203.

He also presented communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 24, 1917.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval Senate Bill No. 203, entitled "An Act defining and regulating boxing and wrestling contests."

This bill creates a State Athletic Commission of three members, each at a salary of $1,200 and they shall elect a Secretary at $1,800, all of these to have in addition to salary expenses incurred in the performance of the duties designated in the bill. The bill is intended to place all boxing bouts and prize fights under the direction and sanction of this Commission. That is to say, the State thus becomes sponsor for contests of this kind. No commission of this sort could preserve the State from the evils and scandal which have attended similar laws in other states. New York has at the insistance of its Executive repealed the act known as the Frawley Bill on the ground that under this act sparring exhibitions or prize fights have become a public disgrace. The Executive further states that "public decency requires its repeal and I shall be satisfied with nothing else."

Red-blooded men in these days of national need can readily find in patriotic channels full opportunity to prove their prowess and to serve their country.

Decent boxing contests can now be carried on without violating the law. There is no defined reason why this sport should be singled out, taken up and encouraged and sponsored by the Commonwealth. Other sports need no such sanction and I believe it would not be a wise procedure for this great Commonwealth to give official sanction to the purposes indicated in this bill. Public sentiment and the experience of other states alike call for disavowal of this bill.

For these reasons this bill is not approved.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. CATLIN. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. McCONNELL. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

VETO OF SENATE BILL NO. 171.

He also presented communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 24, 1917.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval Senate Bill No. 171, entitled "A Supplement to the Act of April twenty-eighth eighteen hundred ninety-nine entitled 'An Act to provide for the classification of the townships of the Commonwealth with respect to their population into two classes and to prescribe the form of government for townships of each class' providing for the election of a township solicitor in townships of the first class fixing his term of office prescribing his duties and qualifications and authorizing the board of township commissioners to fix his compensation."

This bill provides for the election of an attorney for a township of the first class for a period of four (4) years. The terms of the commissioners electing this attorney are for six (6) years but one-third of the commissioners is elected every two years and reorganization naturally follows election. This Bill would entrench an attorney in power for double the period for which the Board electing could sit intact. It is bad policy to lengthen the term of officers beyond the term of the creating group and is contrary to good government. A good attorney needs no such legislative intrenchment and a poor one ought not to be allowed to serve at all.

For these reasons this bill is not approved.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. McCONNELL. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. SEMMENS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION RECALLING FROM THE GOVERNOR SENATE BILL NO. 243.

He also presented communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 23, 1917.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed a resolution of the Senate and House of Representatives providing for the recall of Senate Bill No. 243.

MARTIN G. BRUMAUGH.

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 243.

Mr. LYNCH. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 243, entitled

An Act to repeal an act approved the twenty-fourth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, entitled "An Act to regulate nominations and elections for all elective offices of cities of the second class and all offices of judge of a court of record; providing for non-partisan nominations and elections for said offices; abolishing certain existing method of nomination in such cases and the use of party or political names or appellations at elections with respect to said offices; imposing certain duties upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth, county commissioners and election officers and clerks; and providing penalties for the violation of the provisions hereof, and the punishment of certain offences," insofar as it relates to nominations and elections for elective offices in cities of the second class.

passed finally.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. LYNCH. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

Mr. McKEE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. McKEE. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LYNCH. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed third reading.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. LYNCH. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

Mr. McKEE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. McKEE. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. LYNCH. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend the title in line 15, by striking out the word "election" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "elective".

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

HOUSE MESSAGE.

RESOLUTION EMPOWERING, AUTHORIZING AND DIRECTING THE GOVERNOR TO DESIGNATE JUNE 5, 1917, AS A HOLIDAY.

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented for concurrence the following resolution:

In the House of Representatives, May 28, 1917.

Whereas, the President of the United States of America has designated June 5, 1917 as the day upon which all male persons between the ages of twenty-one and thirty inclusive shall register in their respective districts pursuant to an Act of Congress of the United States of America, and

Whereas, It is fitting and proper that there be a patriotic observance of that day,

Therefore be it resolved by the House of Representatives (if the Senate concur), That the Governor of the Commonwealth be and is hereby empowered, authorized and directed to designate June fifth, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen as a holiday.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39 be dispensed with, in order that the resolution may be considered at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. LEIBY. Mr. President, I move that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. WARNER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

HOUSE APPOINTS COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE.

He also informed the Senate that the House insists on its non-concurrence in the amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 1063, entitled and has appointed Messrs. Graeff, Bouton and Swartz as a committee of conference to confer with a similar committee of the Senate (if the Senate shall appoint such committee) to consider the differences existing between the two houses in relation to said bill.

An Act to amend section five of an act approved the fifth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, entitled "An Act to fix the salaries of the judges of the Supreme Court, the judges of the Superior Court, the judges of the courts of common pleas and the judges of the orphans' court."

RESOLUTION RECALLING FROM THE GOVERNOR HOUSE BILL NO. 820.

He also presented for concurrence the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to.

In the House of Representatives, May 28, 1917.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 820, entitled "An Act requiring the erection of detour signs by the authorities by whose direction any public highway may be closed and providing penalties for failure to comply with the provisions of this act," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

HOUSE CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1008.

He also presented communication from the House of Representatives, informing the Senate that the House has concurred in amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 1008, entitled

An Act to amend an act approved the eighth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and nine, entitled "An Act to prevent the manufacture and sale of adulterated or misbranded drugs; defining the word 'drug'; prescribing penalties for violation of this act and the method of its enforcement."

HOUSE CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1261.

He also presented communication from the House of Representatives, informing the Senate that the House has concurred in amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 1261, entitled

An Act to amend section one of an act entitled "An Act to provide for the removal of judges of the Supreme Superior common pleas and orphans' courts permanently disqualified by reason of physical or mental disability to perform their judicial functions and duties with half pay for their unexpired terms and the filling of vacancies caused by such removal" approved eleventh day of May one thousand nine hundred and one as amended by an act entitled "An Act to amend section one of an act entitled 'An Act to provide for the removal of judges of the Supreme Superior common pleas and orphans' courts permanently disqualified by reason of physical or mental disability to perform their judicial functions and duties with half pay for their unexpired terms and the filling of vacancies caused by such removal" approved May eleventh one thousand nine hundred and one so as to allow them full pay during the balance of their terms of office and under certain conditions half pay during the remainder of their lives" approved twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven so as to provide that any judge of the Supreme or Superior court who has served in judicial office for twenty or more years shall be entitled to receive the benefits of said act immediately after his honorable retirement from office by expiration of term resignation or otherwise whether said service be continuous or not.

HOUSE CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1269.

He also presented communication from the House of Representatives, informing the Senate that the House has concurred in amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 1269, entitled

An Act relating to the jurisdiction, powers and procedure of the several orphans' courts in proceedings for the partition and valuation of real estate and for the sale of real estate for the purposes of distribution and the fees, costs and expenses therein.

HOUSE CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1270.

He also presented communication from the House of Representatives, informing the Senate that the House has concurred in amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 1270, entitled

An Act relating to the organization, jurisdiction and procedure of the orphans' courts the powers and duties of the judges thereof and appeals therefrom.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. President, I move to amend Section 1 page 2 line 23 by striking out the word "of" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "or"; also page 3 line 1 by striking out the word "block" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "blocks"; also page 6 line 22 by striking out the word "payment" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "payments".

Mr. CROW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The title of the bill was read as follows and agreed to:

An Act to amend section twelve of Article five of an act known as The Public Service Company Law approved the twenty-sixth day of July Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws one thousand three hundred and seventy-four) so as to authorize the Public Service Commission of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to establish lay out and open public highways in boroughs or townships in order to provide access to crossings which may be established re-located or constructed in accordance with the orders of said commission and to authorize said commission to abandon and vacate public highways which may become unnecessary and to assess and apportion the cost and damages connected therewith

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in committee of the whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1149 (House Bill No. 685), entitled

An Act to amend and revise an act entitled "An Act providing for the incorporation regulation and government of cities of the third class regulating nomination and election of municipal officers therein and repealing consolidating and extending existing laws in relation thereto" approved the twenty-seventh day of June Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and thirteen enlarging changing modifying and defining certain of the powers of the cities of the third class

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1149 (House Bill No. 685), entitled:

An Act to amend and revise an act entitled "An act providing for the incorporation regulation and government of cities of the third class regulating nomination and election of municipal officers therein and repealing consolidating and extending existing laws in relation thereto" approved the twenty-seventh day of June Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred thirteen enlarging changing modifying and defining certain of the powers of cities of the third class be recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Affairs.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. President, May I interrogate the Senator from Beaver, Mr. Craig?

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Beaver, Mr. Craig, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. President, May I ask the Senator what his object is in recommitting the bill.

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, I have a letter from the Chairman of the Law Committee of the League of Third Class Cities, asking that they be given an opportunity to have a hearing on this bill.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. President, would the Senator object to deferring that motion until to-morrow, I want to amend that bill to-night on second reading, and it can then be recommitted if so desired.

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, I think the purpose of this hearing is to take up the question of amendments. If the bill is passed on second reading tonight I do not want to lose the opportunity of offering amendments.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair desires to inform the Senator that the Committee has a right to amend.

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, But if the committee fails to amend what position am I to offer amendments on third reading?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair also desires to inform the Senator that he can move to go into the committee of the whole for the purpose of general amendment on third reading.

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, I have no objection then. I simply want to be in position to reserve my right to amend the bill.

The first, second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth sections of the bill were read as follows and agreed to:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative, and the amendments made by the Senate were concurred in,

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, last Tuesday night on the last bill, House Bill No. 1345, I voted "no" and I voted so with a clear and loud voice and I notice in the Legislative Journal and also in the Transcribing Room that I am not recorded as voting at all. Now I gave my vote with a clear voice and while I have no blame to put on the Clerks, I feel that this correction should be made and I ask that the correction be made in the Journal.

Mr. SPEAKER. The gentleman's statement will be noted in the Journal of the House and appear in the Legislative Journal.

MOTION TO PLACE BILL ON CALENDAR.

Mr. URICH offered a resolution which was twice read as follows:

Moved by Mr. Urich, seconded by Mr. Sprowls, that Senate Bill No. 325 (House Bill No. 1867), File Folio 847, entitled

An Act providing for the sale distribution and use for the promotion of biological science and for the discovery of new methods of treatment in medicine and surgery of unclaimed animals in the public pounds and providing penalties for neglect or refusal to comply with the provisions of this act which was reported from the Committee on Health and Sanitation with a negative recommendation be placed upon the Calendar notwithstanding said recommendation.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the "noes" appeared to have it.

Whereupon a division was called for, and less than a majority of a quorum voting in the affirmative, the motion falls.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege and also for information. I desire to ask the Speaker why he made the decision that he has made in reference to the bill that just passed, Senate Bill No. 325. I desire to read Rule 37: "The recommendation by a committee that a bill be negatived shall not affect its consideration by the House but the words 'negative recommendation' shall be printed conspicuously on the line above the title of the bill but such bill shall not be placed upon the calendar except by a majority of the members voting upon such motion," Mr. Speaker, did not that mean a majority of the members voting on such motion?

The SPEAKER. If you desire to raise a point of order I will take it up.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, no I don't want to press it. It is only for information that I was after.

The SPEAKER. Less than a majority of the quorum having voted in the affirmative the bill must have fallen.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I thank you for the information.

MOTION TO PLACE BILL ON CALENDAR.

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 1721, File Folio 7833, entitled

An Act granting female citizens the right to vote for Presidential electors prescribing the qualifications of female voters providing for their assessments and registration and for supplying special ballots and for canvassing the ballots cast by female voters and directing county commissioners assessors registration and election officers to carry out the provisions of this act be placed on the calendar notwithstanding the negative recommendation of the Committee on Judiciary Special.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. Speaker and gentleman of the House, House Bill No. 1721, is an act granting the women of Pennsylvania the right to vote on presidential electors, and this motion is for the purpose of placing the bill on the calendar notwithstanding the report of the committee. This motion, gentlemen of the House, is not made out of desire to criticise the committee on Judiciary Special, but in the belief that the Committee has erred in not reporting the bill out as committed. The right of women to vote is a big question and it is an interesting question, and one commanding the attention of the best women and the best men of the state of Pennsylvania and the Union.

Eleven states of the Union have granted their women their right of full suffrage, and thirty-six states partial suffrage. Prior to 1907, there was just one state that had given to the women the right to vote on presidential electors, but in 1917 alone, the states of Arkansas, Michigan, North Dakota, Rhode Island, Indiana, Nebraska and Ohio have been added to this list and today there are one hundred and seventy-one electoral votes in states where women vote on presidential electors. Pennsylvania is one of the few states of the Union denying the right to vote to children, aliens, idiots and lunatics, and Pennsylvania is one of the states which classes its women with children, aliens, idiots and lunatics when it comes to the question of voting.

Pennsylvania is the one state north of the Mason and Dixon Line, excepting Maine, that has not some form of women suffrage, and if Pennsylvania would enter the list of women suffrage states, even as to presidential electors, there would be a string of states from the Atlantic to the Pacific which have some form or other of women suffrage. The women of this state are asking you gentlemen of the House to take them out of the classification which I have mentioned by giving them the right to vote on presidential electors alone, and not on any other subject whatever. They have demanded this as a right, and not as a favor a right to which they are undoubtedly entitled. The same reasons exist for women voting that exist for men, and if the right to vote is inherent in men, it is inherent in women. We believe that the interest in woman suffrage in general, and in this particular measure is such as to warrant us in asking you to place it upon the calendar notwithstanding the report of the Committee. It will be a gracious thing for us to do even though some vote against the bill upon final passage. Gentlemen of the House, I hope this motion will prevail.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. GANS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this motion be laid upon the table.

Mr. EDGAR R. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Vickerman and Mr. Mitchell.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. Speaker, I ask that the roll be verified.

The roll was verified as follows:

So the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

REASONS FOR VOTE.

Voting against the motion to lay upon the table the motion to place upon the calendar House Bill No. 1721, I file the following reasons therefor:

I believe it is the right of my constituents to determine whether or not this right of suffrage should be extended as provided in the above bill, and I desire to enter a protest against the uncalled-for publicity campaign directed against the chairman and members of the committee having this bill in charge, and against the House of Representatives as a body, and the officers thereof. These letters were unnecessary, insulting, vindictive, unladylike and presumptuous, and are not, I feel, an expression of the thought and feeling of the great majority of the people favoring this cause, and such tactics cannot be too quickly discouraged and discontinued.

BENJ. M. GOLDER.

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented the extract from the Journal of the Senate:

In the Senate, May 23, 1917.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That when the Senate adjourns this week it reconvene on Wednesday, June sixth, 1917, at 1 o'clock P. M., and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week it reconvene on Wednesday, June sixth, 1917, at one o'clock P. M.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, so far as I am personally concerned, it matters very little whether we take a recess or whether we do not. I am not addressing you at this time for the purpose of arguing for or against a recess. I want to call your attention to the fact that we members who live in the western part of the state, from three hundred to three hundred and fifty-five miles away, if it is the purpose to take a recess over conscription day, it will be necessary for us to leave on conscription day in order for us to get here for the session on Wednesday. Further than that it seems to me that there will not be enough members coming here at that time for a quorum on Wednesday, and I feel personally, that if we are going to take a recess over conscription day, we ought to recess until the following Monday. And therefore, Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments:

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk then read the amendments as follows:

After the first word "June" strike out "Wednesday June sixth" and insert "Monday June eleventh;" after the words "1917, at" strike " 1 o'clock" and insert "9 o'clock;" after the word "on" in the last line strike out "Wednesday June sixth" and insert "Monday June eleventh;" after "1917" strike out "1 o'clock" and insert "9 o'clock."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I am very much surprised that this resolution was offered and still more surprised at the amendment. A number of the members of this House have been coming here very faithfully and staying throughout the week with only one though in mind, and that was to get through some time. Now we are all patriotic and want to stand by our flag, but if any man can give a good and legitmate reason why we should adjourn and stay at home on conscription day, I would like to hear it. There are no politics to attend to, and if there were, we politicians would want to be home looking after our fences. But this is conscription day for the purpose of registering those liable for military service. We in this House who may be of proper age to be liable for conscription can very easily attend to that duty from our places here at Harrisburg. There isn't any reason, gentlemen, under the sun why the members of this House should be at home in order to register. We have already passed a resolution fixing the fourteenth day of June as the time for adjournment. Some of the men of this House who know more perhaps about the work that is yet to be done than the majority of us, say that there is no reason why this House and the Senate too cannot adjourn on the fourteenth day of June. Now if we recess until the sixth day of June we all know, or at least ought to know, that we cannot adjourn on the fourteenth. What is the use in going home when we are needed here to attend to our business and when there isn't anything for us to do at home? The public officials in Pennsylvania who are going to look after this patriotic duty are not sitting members of this House or Senate. They are selected from other walks of life. They are not the members of the House nor the employes of this House. I do not see any good reason why we should prolong this thing any longer. We are now having difficulty in getting a quorum here to attend to our business. We are not having a full turnout here, and if we continue this thing very much longer it is going to get worse along that line. Let us get down to business and finish our work here. We are here this week, notwithstanding the fact that Decoration comes day after to-morrow. There was ten times more reason why we should have adjournment over this week than over next week. Let us come back here and attend to our business and get through and get this job finished up. It is really becoming embarrassing for the members of this House, traveling up and down the state, having the people ask us what we are doing here and when we are going to quit. We would like to answer those questions if we knew, but we do not know. Nobody is going to quit here until we get through; we are all sufficiently faithful to our duty to stay here and attend to this business until we get it done, but, gentlemen, we cannot finish it unless we stay here and do the work. There isn't any reason for this recess. Let us stay on the job and finish it up and get through with it, and then we can go home with a sense of having done our duty and having done it well. Gentlemen, I ask you to vote down not only this amendment, but also this resolution. Let us stick to the job and get through with it, and then we can go home with a sense of having done at least a part of our duty.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I said a few moments ago that I was not asking for the recess or was not against a recess; so that when the gentleman from Lawrence arose in such great surprise he surely could not have been frightened at the amendment. The only thing that I am asking is that if we are going to adjourn to Wednesday we will have no session on Wednesday, Thursday or Friday. They wont come back. They have not come back. The Legislative Record will show that.

Now the gentleman from Lawrence has called your attention to the fact that those who are to take charge of the conscription on June 5th are neither members of this body nor members of the body across the hall. I would like to call the attention of the gentleman from Lawrence to the fact that the same arguments might be used in not observing Decoration Day. I doubt whether there has ever been a time in the history of this country or any other country when the nation faced a situation as it will face on the 5th day of June. I venture to say that the gentleman from Lawrence County would not take this matter so lightly if he knew that on the 5th day of June one or two or three of his sons would go out and make themselves eligible to enlistment and to draft in a few weeks; and I say to you that while I have the greatest respect, and I always take the opportunity of going out into the cemetery and decorating the graves of those who fought in '61 to '65, I believe that we owe it to the mothers—and we have heard so much in this session from the gentleman from Lawrence with regard to how we should hold sacred our mothers' name—and when we see that old mother say good-bye to her boy on the 5th day of June and say to him "My son, be a man; go out and register;" I believe that she will not want to know that any member of this Legislature would want to put anything in the way of adjourning out of respect and in concurrence with the resolution which we have so recently passed directing the Governor of this Commonwealth to declare June 5 a public holiday.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, it is not my purpose to take up the valuable time of this House to discuss this question. I hope, however, that the members of the House will defeat the amendment. At the same time I hope the members will concur in the resolution from the Senate.

I want to say this in answer to the gentleman from Lawrence as to whether or not the members of the House will report here on Wednesday to do business, that I believe that they will report here in order that we will be able to conduct business on Wednesday night, Thursday and Friday. It was said last week that if we attempted to hold a session this week the members of this General Assembly would not be here and yet we have just shown a roll call of one hundred and fifty members, enough members to do the work of this legislative session; and I feel sure that when we have shown our patriotism to the effect that we lend the holiday idea of the Legislature to the greatest day in the history of this State, June 5th, that the same patriotism will prompt the members of this General Assembly to report here at one o clock on Wednesday afternoon prepared to go into the work of the session. Remember, gentlemen, there is a lot of work to do and while we can easily show our patriotism, I feel we are just as loyal and will report here on Wednesday at one o'clock.

I hope the amendment will be defeated and at the same time I hope that the resolution of the Senate will pass.

Mr. FOWLER. I hope, Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, that both the resolution and the amendment will be defeated. I want to state, gentlemen of the House that there is some very important legislation to be considered before adjournment. We have a situation in the anthracite field that demands the members of the House to stay in session. Every day, my friends, our homes are being tumbled into the mines, our little boys and girls are being tumbled into the mines. Only last week a little fellow was caved in fifteen feet into the ground. The people of that section have been crying for legislation and have been crying from the first of the year for this House to take action. I want to say that we should stay here and demand the legislation to go through. Thousands of our children are sent to school every day and we do not know the minute or the hour that these little children are to be caved into the mines. If we are going to recess up to that time there is but very little hope, my friends, of this legislation going through; and I want to say that we should meet and see that those important bills be placed upon the calendar. Not only that, but we have other important measures to be considered such as the Compensation Laws and different things, and so I hope and trust that the members of this House will defeat the amendment and the resolution.

Mr, COOK. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the sponser of the amendment a question.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Milliron, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, yes sir.

Mr. COOK. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman, does he know whether or not the Congress of the United States will adjourn on the same day we intend adjourning, according to this resolution?

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I can only answer that second hand. I was talking to a Congressman a few days ago and he said that they were busy every minute looking for something they had not already taxed. I suppose that they will be busy both on Decoration Day and Registration Day looking for something to tax.

Mr. COOK. Mr. Speaker, they evidently, down at Washington, are in the same position that they were in in New England some years ago when a certain assembly met in the same capacity as we are meeting here tonight. A certain darkness came over the land during an afternoon and quite a few of the members went home and some of them took to praying; others to some other things, thinking that the world was coming to an end, but the Speaker of that assembly, Abraham Davenport, said, "Gentlemen, light the candles and let us be about our State's business. It the world comes to an end let it find us at our post of duty." Now, Mr. Speaker, let us, as members of this House, attend to our State's business. I hope that this resolution and this amendment will both be defeated.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from York.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York Mr. Cook, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. COOK. Mr. Speaker, yes sir.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman has spoken of the world coming to an end; I would like to know in which place the gentleman would rather be when it does come to an end—at home or in Harrisburg?

Mr. COOK. Mr. Speaker, right at my post of duty and that is here.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from York.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York, Mr. Cook, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. COOK. Mr. Speaker, yes sir.

Mr. PALMER. How are you going to stay at your post of duty if you have to register? You never thought of that because you are not in that.

Mr. COOK. I would do it from here.

Mr. PALMER. You would not do it on the ground floor; you would send it by mail.

Mr. COOK. I certainly would.

Mr. PALMER. You would not go home?

Mr. COOK. I think that this is my place of duty.

Mr. PALMER. More so than to serve on your registration board?

Mr. COOK. I am exempt from serving and I am exempt from registering at my home.

Mr. PALMER. You are not exempt from serving on the registration board.

Mr. COOK. I am.

Mr. PALMER. Are you exempt from registration because of age.

Mr. COOK. Yes sir.

Mr. PALMER. What would you do if not exempt because of age—how would you register?

Mr. COOK. I would register by letter.

Mr. DAWSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order. I would like to know if the gentleman from York is interrogating the gentleman from Schuylkill or if the gentleman from Schuylkill is interrogating the gentleman from York?

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to inform you that on June 5th, I will be in Pottsville to register if you have a session of this House or not.

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, I am again surprised that the gentleman would take my remarks as having been made in levity, because I wish to inform him that I was entirely serious in what I said. It really is levity and more than that to ring in on every occasion of this kind the sacred word of patriotism. In this time, and there never was such a time before as there is now for men to render service to their nation and to their state, and it resolves itself, if you please, Sir, into the question, how can we render our best service to the public and to our government at this time? Mr. Speaker, you have not heard this evening the slightest reason given why any member of this House or of this Senate should be at the registration places on next Tuesday. We all know that there are a very small number engaged in public service about this State Capitol that are required to register. Perhaps not more than two or three members of this House and Senate that are requied to register. No man though the mere term of patriotism can say to me that my place is at home at the registration polls on next Tuesday, because I say to you, Sir, and to the men of this House, that I have no business there, as I could not register if I went for that purpose and so desired. No man has business there unless he is of the age that is required to be registered. Mr. Speaker, we are engaged in a service for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and that ought to be treated as a serious and as a sacred public duty. Mr. Speaker, we can render the best service here at the State Capitol by attending to the business that we have been elected for and that we are sworn to perform. I wish to call your attention to the fact that there are some soldiers who are members of this House and Senate and their government and their country is waiting for their service at the front and if we continue this session and drag it out we will interfere with these men going to the front, because they will not have completed their service here. This is my patriotic duty: To be in the place where I should be and where I am required to be; and that is not at home at the registration polls. It is absolutely true that the men who are required to register can go home next Friday and Saturday and procure the necessary blank and turn it into the proper place. Gentlemen, I again say that patriotism requires that we attend to our duties and our duties are here.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment offered by the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Milliron?

The SPEAKER. The noes seem to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for, 38 gentlemen having voted in the affirmative, less than a majority of a quorum, the amendment falls.

On the question, recurring,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

The Speaker declared the "ayes" appear to have it.

Whereupon a division was called for and 88 gentlemen voting in the affirmative and 54 in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative, and

The resolution was concurred in.

RESOLUTION CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives, as follows, viz:

Resolved, (if Senate concur) That House Bill No. 820, entitled

An Act authorizing manufacturing corporations now or hereafter organized under the laws of this State to engage in the production of necessary raw materials for such manufacturing purposes.

be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

AMENDED SENATE BILL FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented for concurrence bill numbered and entitled as follows:

Line 2, strike out "fifteen" and insert in lieu thereof the word "seven"

Line 4, strike out the words "over eight" and insert in lieu thereof "a population from three"

Line 4, strike out the words "and" and all of lines 5 and 6, and insert the words "to one million"

Section one, line 4, after the word "April" strike out the word "twenty-ninth" and insert in lieu thereof the word "fourth"

Line 5, after the word "and" strike out the word "fifteen" and insert in lieu thereof "seven"

Line 6, strike the words "two hundred" and insert in lieu thereof the words "fifty-eight"

Line 7, after the word "having" strike out the words "over eight" and insert in lieu thereof "a population of over three"

Strike out lines 8 and 9 as follows: "and less than one million five hundred thousand inhabitants according to the last preceding United States Census," and insert in lieu thereof "to one million"

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Private Secretary of the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1001.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 24, 1917.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval House Bill No. 1001, entitled "An Act to amend section two of an act approved the fifth day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-one entitled 'An Act to enable the Governor to appoint notaries public and for other purposes therein mentioned."

The purpose of this Bill is to amend Sec. 2 of act of March 5, 1791 (3 Purdon's 3323) in this respect—it reduces the residence period prior to appointment of a Notary Public from two years to one year and residence in the United States for five years. It is not necessary to let down the bars in this way. The two years residence in this Commonwealth is not unreasonable. There seems to be no good purpose to be accomplished and the discretion of the Governor is now quite evident. He could if so minded refuse to commission any one not a resident for two or more years.

For these reasons this bill is not approved.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill, together with the veto, be laid upon the table.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Private Secretary of the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 820.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 24, 1917.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval House Bill No. 820, entitled "An Act requiring the erection of detour signs by the authorities by whose direction any public highway may be closed and providing penalties for failure to comply with the provisions of this act."

This Bill provides that the authorities by whose order any public highway is closed for construction and repairs to post conspicuously signs plainly indicating the detour roads to be followed in order to reach the same highway beyond the closed portion thereof. This is proper and is usually done. The State Highway Department is definitely directed so to do. Local road authorities should likewise do so and usually do. The Bill on this score is commendable but it adds that failure so to do shall on conviction before a magistrate result in a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $25 and costs or in case of non-payment imprisonment. If it were a state highway what authority would be subject to fine? The foremen? The district engineer? The chief engineer, or the Commissioner? All are parties in interest. The Bill is drastic beyond the necessities of the case and indefinite as to responsibility.

For these reasons this bill is not approved.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill, together with the veto, be laid upon the table.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Private Secretary of the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 40.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 24, 1917.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen I return: herewith, without my approvel House Bill No. 40, entitled "An Act amending an act approved the twelfth day of July Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and thirteen entitled 'An Act establishing a court for the County of Philadelphia prescribing its jurisdiction and powers providing for the service of its writs process or warrants by the proper officers of the County or City of Philadelphia regulating the procedure therein and appeals therefrom and providing for the expenses thereof' by increasing the amount of salary to be paid to the judges of the municipal court of Philadelphia."

This bill provides for an increase in the salaries of the judges of the municipal court of Philadelphia from $6,000 to $8,000 and of the president judge from $6,500 to $9,000.

This court is substantially in scope the same as the county court in Allegheny County whose judges are not included in the proposed increase. This bill if approved would give the judges of this court a larger salary than that paid to the judges of the courts of common pleas in all counties save Philadelphia, Allegheny and Dauphin. Having in mind the financial condition of the State, whose treasury pays these salaries, and the fact that the salaries of one group must be adjusted to the salaries of other groups equally important in service it is my conviction that this bill should not be approved.

For these reasons this bill is not approved.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill, together with the veto, be laid upon the table.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Private Secretary of the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 418.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 24, 1917.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 418, entitled "An Act fixing the fees of the recorder of deeds in counties containing a population of not less than two hundred thousand nor more than five hundred thousand inhabitants."

This bill increases the fees of recorders of deeds in counties containing a population of not less than 200,000, nor more than 500,000. The principal change is the raising of the cost of copying from eight words for one cent to six words for one cent. In the aggregate this is a very considerable increased tax upon the people of these counties. It does not appear by any line of reason known to me why in counties of the above defined population the recorder should be paid more to perform a legal service than is paid in counties of less or more population.

There is not one reason assigned for this increase. There are many protests against it on the ground that the present price is adequate if competent clerks and not merely persons with political claims are given this work to do. The people have a right to pay a fair price but not an excessive or discriminating one for a public service.

For these reasons this bill is not approved.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill, together with the veto, be laid upon the table.

Mr. DAWSON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Private Secretary of the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 912.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 17, 1917.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval House Bill No. 912, entitled "An Act validating certain foreclosure proceedings instituted by foreign executors administrators and guardians sheriff's sales had thereon and the title acquired thereby."

The purpose of this bill is to validate cetrain foreclosure proceedings and the title thereby acquired. The bill is carelessly drawn. On page 2, line 7, there is an omission of a character that makes the bill meaningless in the law—to wit, that "the title acquired by such sale shall be the same as would have been acquired by an executor, etc."—a situation that cannot happen. There is an omission of some words preceding the word "executor, etc.," such as "at a sale." Such words would be meaningless. As the bill comes to me it is useless. Moreover, under existing law a foreign executor, etc., has no standing or authority in this State. Ancilliary letters must be issued here empowering him to act in this Commonwealth. If some one acted here in this capacity under the authority of the courts of another state such action was contrary to law and it is doubtful whether we should or could in this matter quiet title and validate an invalid act.

For these reasons this bill is not approved.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill, together with the veto, be laid upon the table.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Private Secretary of the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 991.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 18, 1917.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval House Bill 991, entitled "An Act authorizing and empowering the State Highway Commissioner to take over abandoned rights of way or any part or parts thereof owned or controlled by railroad or railway companies for the use of the State Highway Department for the purpose of locating or relocating and constructing State Highways and providing a method of acquiring the same."

The purpose of this Bill is to authorize the State Highway Department to take over abandoned rights of way of railroad companies and use the same as State highways. It also provides for the payment of damages to the corporation or individual in interest.

The Bill is almost identical with the Act of July 7, 1913 (P. L. 687). It opens the way to pay damages to other than the railroad company and it decicates the specific fund of the Department from which payment is to be made. The present law is adequate and the added provisions of this bill are not elements of strength but weakness.

For these reasons this bill is not approved.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

Mr. DAWSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill, together with the veto, be laid upon the table.

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Private Secretary of the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 119.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 17, 1917.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval House Bill No. 119, entitled "An Act authorizing a State Association of Township Supervisors and providing for the payment of the expenses thereof by the respective counties."

This bill creates a State Association of Township Supervisors. In the title there is no limitation. In the body of the act it is limited to supervisors of townships of the second class. It thus excludes from membership any representatives from cities, boroughs, and from the forty-five townships of the second class. The association would thus be not a state body in its scope.

It is further provided that each county association of township supervisors and commissioners shall send one supervisor for each ten townships of the second class or fraction thereof to each annual meeting of said association. Philadelphia county would have no representative since it has no townships. Forest, Montour and Sullivan would if at all be given one representative since each of these counties contains less than ten townships. Adams county, with 21 townships would send three delegates. Allegheny with ten townships of the first class would send five delegates for the 43 townships of the second class. Likewise Berks county would send five delegates. And Fulton with 11 townships would send two.

Each delegate is allowed not over nine dollars and mileage—the rate per mile being unnamed. In addition the several counties would be obliged to pay not in excess of ten dollars for expenses of Committees, etc.

The County Associations are now organized and are in close touch with the State Department of Highways. In fact the Commonwealth now extends its services freely to the township supervisors and there seems no good reason for the establishment by law of this additional expense, which would build and repair many roads now sadly in need of such attention. The Association would not include in its membership the many boroughs and other municipal units whose roads are quite as much in need of attention as those of the second class townships.

The bill will not renlder the service it visions. It is impractical inequitable and unnecessary.

For these reasons this bill is not approved.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

Mr. HOLLINGSWORTH. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill, together with the veto, be laid upon the table.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Private Secretary of the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 28, 1917.

To the Honorable, the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I beg to call your attention to the pending legislation before your honorble bodies relative to the granting of suffrage to women in Presidential elections in this Commonwealth.

I am convinced that the right of suffrage should be accorded to women, and inasmuch as this is a limited application of the general principle, with which I am in accord. I earnestly recommend to you the importance and respectfully suggest to you the advisability of favorably considering the legislation bearing upon this important subject which has so much to do with the future welfare of this Commonwealth and Country.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

Legislative Journal.

Session 1917 — 122nd of the General Assembly

VOL. 4. HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, MAY 29, 1917. No. 63.

SENATE.

TUESDAY, May 29, 1917.

The Senate met at 11 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. E. E. Beidleman) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Thomas W. Davis, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we are here this morning to readdress ourselves to the sacred duties involved in solving the legislative problems of this great Commonwealth. That the laws enacted may be healthy and progressive we ask that His spirit may be our guide, who taught us when we pray to say: "Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory forever. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. HOMSHER, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

Material of House Drains

"Section 8 The main drainage system of every house or building shall be separately and independently connected with the street sewer where such sewer exists except where two houses are built together on a lot with a frontage of thirty feet or less when one connection with main sewer will be allowed but there shall be a separate house drain for each house connected by a 'Y' connection in the front of such houses at the property line with main house sewer or where one building exists or is erected in the rear of another on an interior lot of single ownership and no private sewer is available or can be made for the rear building through an adjoining alley courtyard or driveway the house drain from the front building may be extended to the rear building and the whole will be considered as one house drain Where it is neecssary to construct a private sewer to connect with sewer on adjacent street such plans may be used as may be approved by the department or board or bureau of health but in no case shall joint drains be laid in cellars parallel with the street or alley

House drains or soil-pipes laid beneath floor must be extra heavy cast-iron pipe (as per table in section sixteen) with leaded and caulked joints and carried five feet outside cellar wall All drains or soil-pipes connected with main drain where it is above the cellar floor shall be of extra heavy cast-iron pipe with leaded and caulked joints or of heavy wrought-iron pipe with screw joints properly secured and carried five feet outside cellar wall and all arrangements of soil or waste pipes shall be as direct as possible Wrought-iron pipes shall be galvanized Changes of direction on pipes shall be made with "Y" branches both above and below the ground and where such pipes pass through a new foundation-wall a relieving arch shall be built over it with two-inch space on either side of main pipe

The size of the main house drain shall be determined by the total area of the buildings and paved surfaces to be drained according to the following table if iron pipe is used If the pipe is terra cotta the diameter shall be one size larger for the same amount of area drainage

Diameter	Fall ¼ Inch per Foot	Fall ½ Inch per Foot
4 ins.,	1,800 sq. ft. drainage area,	2,500 sq. ft. drainage area
5 ins.,	3,000 sq. ft. drainage area,	4,500 sq. ft. drainage area
6 ins.,	5,000 sq. ft. drainage area,	7,500 sq. ft. drainage area
8 ins.,	9,100 sq. ft. drainage area,	13,600 sq. ft. drainage area
10 ins.,	14,000 sq. ft. drainage area,	20,000 sq. ft. drainage area

The main house drains may be decreased in diameter beyond a rain-water conductor or surface inlet by permission of the department or board or bureau of health when the plans show that conditions are such as to warrant such decrease but in no case shall the main house drain be less than four (4) inches in diameter" is hereby amended to read as follows

Material of House Drains

Section 8 The main drainage system of every house or building shall be separately and independently connected with the street sewer where such sewer exists except where two houses are built together in a lot with a frontage of thirty feet or less when one connection with main sewer will be allowed but there shall be a separate house drain for each house connected by a "Y" connection in the front of such houses at the property line with main house sewer or where one building exists or is erected in the rear of another on an interior lot of single ownership and no private sewer is available or can be made for the rear building through an adjoining alley courtyard or driveway the house drain from the front building may be extended to the rear building and the whole will be considered as one house drain or where a private automobile garage exists or is erected in the rear of a dwelling and there are no living quarters in the garage the sewer from garage may be connected to the house sewer with extra heavy cast-iron pipe carried to garage and the whole will be considered as one house drain

Where it is necessary to construct a private sewer to connect with sewer on adjacent street such plans may be used as may be approved by the department or board or bureau of health but in no case shall joint drains be laid in cellars parallel with the street or alley

House drains or soil-pipes laid beneath floor must be extra heavy cast-iron pipe (as per table in section sixteen) with locked and caulked joints and carried five feet outside of all exterior walls All drains or soil-pipes connected with main drain where it is above the cellar floor shall be of extra heavy cast-iron pipe with locked and caulked joints or of heavy galvanized wrought-iron pipe with screw joints properly secured and carried five feet outside exterior walls and all arrangements of soil or waste-pipes shall be as direct as possible All wrought-iron pipes shall be galvanized Changes of direction on pipes shall be made with "Y" branches and cleanout plugs installed at all abrupt turns Where sewer and waste-pipes are under floor cleanout plugs must be brought on a forty-five degree angle and flush with floor level and where such pipes pass through a new foundation-wall a relieving arch shall be built over it with two-inch space on either side of main pipe

The size of the main house drain shall be determined by the total area of the buildings and paved surfaces to be drained according to the following table if iron pipe is used If the pipe is terra cotta the diameter shall be one size larger for the same amount of area drainage

8 ins.,	9,100 sq. ft. drainage area,	13,600 sq. ft. drainage area
10 ins.,	14,000 sq. ft. drainage area,	20,000 sq. ft. drainage area

The main house drains may be decreased in diameter beyond a rain water conductor or surface inlet by permission of the department or board or bureau of health when the plans show that conditions are such as to warrant such decrease but in no case shall the main house trap or house drain when installed be less than four (4) inches in diameter

Gasoline and Oil Separators

The sewers of all factories refiners cleaning establishments garages or other buildings that use or store gasoline or volatile oils shall be equipped with approved gasoline and oil separating catch basins These catch basins or traps shall be arranged according to the latest approved methods and include all traps baffel plates and vents necessary to prevent the gasoline and oil from entering the main sewers The health department is hereby vested with the power to order and insist upon the installation of a device that will prevent gasoline from entering the main sewers and they shall notify and compel the owners or occupants of any building or buildings who allow or permit gasoline or oil entering the sewers to equip all buildings with such devices as they deem necessary to protect the main sewers

Chemical Laboratories

Chemical laboratories factories newspaper offices lithograph offices or any building in which large quantities of acids are used shall make separate arrangements with the plumbing inspector regarding the waste-pipe and vents from such sinks and plumbing fixtures

Section 5 That section nine of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Location of Main Trap

Section 9 "The house drain must be provided with a horizontal trap placed immediately inside the cellar wall The trap must be provided with a hand-hole for convenience in cleaning the cover of which must be properly fitted and made gas and air-tight with heavy brass screw-cap ferrule caulked in This class of traps shall be subject to the approval of the board or bureau of health" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Location of Main Trap

Section 9 The house trap should if possible be placed immediately inside the cellar wall The trap must be provided with a hand-pole for convenience in cleaning the cover of which must be properly fitted and made gas and air-tight with heavy brass screw-cap ferrule caulked in The installation of this trap shall be subject to the approval of the board or bureau of health

Section 6 That section twelve of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Location of House Sewer

"Section 12 "When main sewer is not located on street house sewers must be constructed on outside of buildings and branch into each house separately and in no case will the sewer from one house to another be permitted to run through cellars" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Location of House Sewer

Section 12 When main sewer is not located on street house sewers must be constructed on outside of buildings and lot line and branch into each house separately and in no case will the sewer from one house to another be permitted to run through cellars

Section 7 That section fourteen of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Material of Sewers between Buildings

"Section 14 Where a sewer is laid between buildings in a passageway alley or courtyard at a less distance than five feet from the buildings it must be constructed of extra heavy cast-iron pipe for a distance corresponding to the length of the foundation of said building" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Material of Sewers Between Buildings

Section 14 Where a sewer is laid between buildings in a passageway alley or courtyard at a less distance than five feet from the buildings and adjoining property line it must be constructed of extra heavy cast-iron pipe for a distance corresponding to the length of the foundations of said buildings or adjoining property line

Section 8 That section twenty of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Leader Pipes

"Section 20 All buildings shall be kept provided with proper metallic leaders for conducting water from the roofs in such manner as shall protect the walls and foundations of said building from injury In no case shall the water from said leaders be allowed to flow upon the sidewalk but the same shall be conducted by a pipe or pipes to the sewer If there be no sewer in the street upon which such buildings front then the water from said leaders shall be conducted by proper pipe or pipes below the surface of the sidewalk to the street gutter" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Leader Pipes

Section 20 All buildings shall be kept provided with proper metallic leaders for conducting water from the roofs in such manner as shall protect the walls and foundations of said building or buildings from injury In no case shall the water from said leaders be allowed to flow upon the sidewalk but the same shall be conducted by a pipe or pipes to the storm sewer accessible either from the front or rear of the buildings If there be no storm sewer in the street upon which the building fronts or no such storm sewer otherwise accessible then the water from said leaders shall be conducted by proper pipe or pipes below the surface of the sidewalk to the street gutter In no event shall the waters from said leaders be allowed to flow into sanitary sewers and in case where storm sewers shall now or hereafter be constructed or provided either in font of the buildings or otherwise accessible the owners shall upon twenty days' notice in writing from the Department of Health so to do disconnect such leaders from the sanitary sewers and connect them with the storm sewers

Section 9 That section twenty-one of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which as amended by said act of May fourteenth nineteen hundred and nine reads as follows

Material for Inside and Outside Leaders

"Section 21 Inside leaders must be constructed of cast-iron wrought iron or steel with roof connections made gas and water-tight by means of heavy copper-drawn tubing slipped into the pipe The tubing must extend at least seven (7) inches into iron leader pipes Outside leaders may be sheet metal but they must connect with house drain by means of a cast-iron pipe extending vertically five (5) feet above grade level where the building is located along public driveways or sidewalks Where the building is located off building line and not liable to be damaged the connection shall be made with iron pipe extending at least one foot above grade level" be and the same is hereby further amended to read as follows

Material for Inside and Outside Leaders

Section 21 Inside leaders must be constructed of cast-iron galvanized wrought-iron or steel with approved roof connections made gas and water-tight Outside leaders may be sheet metal but they must connect with house drain by means of cast-iron pipe extending vertically five (5) feet above grade level where the building is located along public driveways or sidewaks Where the building is located off building line and not liable to be damaged the connection shall be made with iron-pipe extending at least one foot above grade level

Section 10 That section twenty-two of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Trapping of Leaders

"Section 22 All leaders must be trapped with cast-iron running traps so placed as to prevent freezing" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Trapping of Leaders

Section 22 All leaders must be trapped with cast-iron traps so placed as to prevent freezing One or more leaders may be connected by one trap where leader traps are placed inside of buildings they must be provided with cleanout plugs caulked in as provided for in section forty-one.

Section 11 That section twenty-five of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which as amended by said act of May fourteenth nineteen hundred and nine reads as follows

Diameter of Soil-Pipes

Section 25 The smallest diameter of any soil-pipe permitted to be used shall be four-inch The size of soil pipes must be not less than those set forth in the following tables

Maximum Number of Fixtures connected to

Size of Pipe	Soil and Waste Combined		Soil-Pipe Alone
	Branch	Main	Branch	Main
4 in.,	48 fixtures	96 fixtures	8 water-closets	16 water-closets
5 in.,	96 fixtures	192 fixtures	16 water-closets	32 water-closets
6 in.,	268 fixtures	336 fixtures	34 water-closets	68 water-closets

If the building is six (6) and less than twelve stories in height the diameter shall be not less than five (5) inches if more than twelve (12) stories it shall be six (6) inches in diameter A building six or more stories in height with fixtures located below the sixth floor soil-pipe four (4) inches in diameter will be allowed to extend through the roof provided the number of fixtures does not exceed the number given in the table

All soil-pipes must extend at least two feet above the highest window and must not be reduced in size Traps will not be permitted on main vertical soil or waste lines Each house must have a separate line of soil and vent-pipes No soil or waste line shall be constructed on the outside of a building

Fixtures with
One and one-quarter inch traps count as one fixture
One and one-half inch traps count as one fixture
Two inch traps count as two fixtures
Two and one-half inch traps count as three fixtures
Three inch traps (water-closets) count as four fixtures
Four inch traps count as five fixtures" be and the same is hereby further amended to read as follows

Diameter of Soil-Pipes

Section 25 The smallest diameter of any soil-pipe permitted to be used shall be three-inch The size of soil-pipes must not be less than those set forth in the following tables

Maximum Number of Fixtures Connected to—

Size of Pipe	Soil and Waste Combined		Soil-Pipe Alone
	Branch	Main	Branch	Main
3 in.,	6 fixtures	10 fixtures	1 water-closet	1 water-closet
4 in.,	48 fixtures	96 fixtures	8 water-closets	16 water-closets
5 in.,	96 fixtures	192 fixtures	16 water-closets	32 water-closets
6 in.,	268 fixtures	336 fixtures	34 water-closets	68 water-closets

If the building is six (6) and less than twelve (12) stories in height the diameter shall be not less than five (5) inches if more than twelve (12) stories it shall be six (6) inches in diameter A building six or more stories in height with fixtures located below the sixth floor soil-pipe four (4) inches in diameter will be allowed to extend through the roof provided the number of fixtures does not exceed the number given in the table

All soil-pipes must extend at least two feet above the roof and must not be reduced in size Traps will not be permitted on main vertical soil or waste lines Each house must have a separate line of soil and vent-pipes No soil or waste line shall be constructed on the outside of a building

One and one-quarter inch traps count as one fixture
One and one-half inch traps count as one fixture
Two-inch traps count as two fixtures
Two and one-half inch traps count as three fixtures
Three inch traps (water-closets) count as four fixtures
Four-inch traps count as five fixtures

Section 12 That section twenty-six of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Changes in Direction

"Section 26 All sewer soil and waste pipes must be as direct as possible Changes in direction must be made with 'Y' or half 'Y' branches or one-eight bends Offsets in soil or waste pipes will not be permitted when they can be avoided nor in any case unless suitable provision is made to prevent accumulation of rust or other obstruction Offsets shall be made with forty-five degree bends or similar fittings The use of T 'Y's' (Sanitary T's) will be permitted on upright lines only" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Change in Direction

Section 26 All sewer soil or waste pipes must be as direct as possible Changes in direction must be made with "Y" or half "Y" branches or one-eight bends Offsets in soil or waste pipes will not be permitted when they can be avoided nor in any case unless suitable provision is made to prevent accumulation of rust or other obstruction Offsets shall be made with forty-five degree bends or similar fittings The use of T "Y's" (Sanitary "T's") will

Section 13 That section twenty-seven of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Joints for Soil and Waste Pipes

"Section 27 Joints in cast-iron pipes and soil and waste-pipes must be so filled with oakum and lead and hand-caulked as to make them gas-tight Connections of lead and cast-iron pipes must be made with brass sleeve or ferrule of the same size as the lead pipe inserted in the hub of the iron pipe and caulked with lead The lead pipe must be attached to the ferrule by wiped joint Joints between lead and wrought iron pipes must be made with brass nipple of same size as lead pipe The lead pipe must be attached to the nipple by wiped joint All connections of lead waste pipe must be made by means of wiped joints" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Joints and Connections

Section 27 All joints and connections prescribed under this title shall be made gas and water tight Joints in galvanized iron mild steel or brass pipe shall be standard screw joints and all burs or cuttings shall be removed

Connections between the sewer side of all plumbing fixtures traps and the drainage system shall be made by means of plumbers' wiped joint caulked joint or screw threaded joint or ground metal to metal joints and such joints shall be of as permanent a nature as any portion of the drainage system No putty cement slip joints or composition joints shall be permitted on the sewer side of any trap All joints shall be made up with an approved sealing material Connections between wrought iron mild steel or brass to cast iron shall be either a caulked joint or screwed joint

All unions used on the sewer side of traps shall be ground faced and shall not be concealed or enclosed No slip joint connection will be allowed on the sewer side of the trap

Lead pipe joints in lead pipe or between lead pipes and pipes of brass or copper shall have an exposed surface of the solder to each side of the joint of at least three-quarters (¾) of an inch Joints between lead and iron pipes shall be made by extra heavy cast or drawn screw nipple with either a caulked joint or a soldered nipple with a threaded joint or approved concaved brass bushings

Where cup or similar ferrules are used they shall extend not less than one-quarter (¼) inch above the hub

Where different sizes of pipe or pipes and fittings are to be connected proper size increasers or reducers pitched to an angle of forty-five degrees between the two sizes shall be used

Connections or joints on all sewer soil waste vent and conductor pipes in any and all buildings shall be locked together with material that has a strength equalling the strength of the material used in the wall of the pipe The joints or connections shall be locked together by members which engage oblique surfaces between the hub and pipe all such locking members being independent of the material with which the joints are sealed Joints shall show no signs of failure and shall not develop leaks under a stress that will rupture the wall of the pipe or fittings The sealing and packing material used in making connections or joints on all drainage soil waste vent and conductor pipes shall be composed of material that will not deteriorate and cannot be affected by contact with acids or alkalies The packing and sealing material used in joining the pipes shall be so placed that it cannot work out of the enlarged portion of the connections and all joints shall be so shaped that any end movement of the pipes in the joint would compress the sealing material

Any fitting or connection which has an enlargement chamber or recess with a ledge shoulder or reduction of the pipe area in the direction of the flow on the outlet or drain side of any trap is prohibited

Connections or hangers pipe supports or fixture settings with masonry or stone backing shall be made with expansion bolts without the use of wood plugs

Section 14 That section twenty-eight of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Traps for Bath-tubs Water-closets et Cetera

"Section 28 Every sink bath-tub basin water-closet slop hopper or fixture having a waste pipe must be furnished with a trap which shall be placed as close as practicable to the fixture that it serves and in no case shall they be more than one foot from said fixture The waste-pipe from the bath-tub or other fixtures must not be connected with a water-closet traps" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Traps for Bath-tubs Water-closets et cetera

"Section 28 Every sink bath-tub basin water-closet slop hopper or fixture having a waste-pipe must be furnished with a trap which shall be placed as close as practicable to the fixture that it serves and in no case shall they be more than one foot from said fixture and the horizontal waste from P-trap must not be longer than eighteen inches from vertical vent pipe unless P-trap is crown vented The waste-pipe from the bath-tub or other fixtures must not be connected with a water-closet trap"

Section 15 That section twenty-nine of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which as amended by said act of May fourteenth nineteen hundred and nine reads as follows

Section 16 That section thirty-three of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Safe and Refrigerator Waste-Pipes

"Section 33 Safe waste-pipes must not connect directly with any part of the plumbing system Safe waste-pipes must discharge over an open water supplied publicly placed ordinarily used sink placed not more than three and one-half feet above the cellar floor The safe waste from a refrigerator must be trapped at the bottom of the line only and must not discharge upon the ground floor but over an ordinary portable pan or some properly trapped water supplied sink as above In no case shall the refrigerator waste-pipe discharge over a sink located in a room used for living purposes

The branches on vertical lines must be made by "Y" fittings and be carried to the safe with as much pitch as possible Where there is an offset on a refrigerator waste-pipe in cellar there must be cleanouts to control the horizontal part of the pipe

In tenement and lodging houses the refrigerator waste-pipes must extend above the roof and not be larger than one and one-half inches nor the branches less than one and one-quarter inches Refrigerator waste-pipes except in tenement houses and all safe waste-pipes must have brass flap-valves at their lower ends Lead safes must be graded and neatly turned over beveled strips at their edges" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Safe and Refrigerator Waste-Pipes

Section 33 A waste-pipe from refrigerators ice-boxes drinking fountains soda water fountains or bar wastes shall not be connected directly with any soil rain waste-pipe or drain sewer or discharge on the open ground They shall discharge into a movable pan or any open sink water supplied or over a floor drain in basement and shall be as short as possible and disconnected from the refrigerator or ice box by at least four (4) inches and where drinking fountains refrigerators or ice boxes are placed in buildings on two (2) or more floors the waste and vent pipes thereof shall be continuous and shall run through the roof and in no case shall it open within six (6) feet of an open soil or waste pipe The size of waste-pipes for refrigerators or drinking fountains for two floors or less shall be at least one and one-half inches and two inches for three floors and over Each refrigerator drinking fountain or ice box shall be provided with a separate trap traps for refrigerators or ice boxes shall be known as a drum trap with an accessible trap screw or cleanout Such traps shall be placed in the one and one-fourth (1) inch waste-pipe branch and shall be as near as possible to the refrigerator or ice box Such traps need not be separately vented Galvanized wrought iron screw pipe may be used for such waste pipes

Section 17 That section thirty-four of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Material for Vent-Pipes

"Section 34 All vent-pipes must either be of lead brass loricated porcelain enameled iron or galvanized iron pipe" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Material for Vent-Pipes

Section 34 All vent pipes must either be of lead brass extra heavy cast iron or galvanized iron pipe

Section 18 That section thirty-five of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which as amended by said act of May fourteenth nineteen hundred and nine reads as follows

Ventilation of Traps and Soil Lines

"Section 35 Traps shall be protected from siphonage or air pressure by special vent-pipes of a size not less than the following tables

Size of Pipe	Maximum Developed Length in Feet Mains	Number of Traps Vented Branch	Main Verical
1¼ inch vent	20	1
1½ inch vent	40	2 or less..
2 inch vent	65	10 or less..	20 or less
2½ inch vent	100	20 or less..	40 or less
3 inch vent	10 or more stories	60 or less..	100 or less

The branch vent-pipes shall be not less than the following sizes

One and one-fourth inches in diameter for one and one-fourth inch traps

One and one-half inches in diameter for one and one-half inch to two and one-half inch traps

Two inches in diameter for three inch to four inch traps

One-half their diameter for traps five inches and over

Where two (2) or more waster-closets are placed side by side on a horizontal branch the branch line shall have a relief extended as a loop vent A pipe two (2) inches in diameter will be sufficient as a loop vent for two (2) closets A pipe three (3) inches in diameter shall be used as a relief for three (3) or four (4) closets and where more than four (4) closets are located on the same branch the relief shall not be less than four (4) inches in diameter All house drains and soil lines on which water-closet is located must have a four-inch main vent line Where an additional closet is located in the cellar or basement and within ten feet of main soil or vent line no relief vent will be required for said closet but where it is more than ten feet a two-inch vent line will be required Relief vent pipes for water-closets must not be less than two inches in diameter for a length of forty feet and not less than three inches in diameter for more than forty feet

No revent from traps under bell-traps will be required

Any building having a sewer connection with a public or private sewer used for bell-trap connection or floor drainage only a two-inch relief line must be extended to the roof of building from rear end of main drain House drains constructed for roof drainage only will not require a relief vent

A floor-trap for a shower shall be vented unless located in cellar or ground floor the paving of which renders the trap inaccessible If the number of these fixtures on a branch is two (2) or more the waste line shall be extended as a loop vent instead of back venting the separate traps and when located in basement floor they shall be provided with a removable strainer or cleanout

Back vent pipes from traps above the floor must either be connected with crown of trap with ground-in brass coupling or if connected solidly to trap must have a ground-in brass coupling at wall" be and the same is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 35 Traps shall be protected from siphonage or air pressure by special vent-pipes of a size not less than the following tables and where it is a greater distance than that given in the table it shall be one size larger its entire length

Size of Pipe	Maximum Developed Length in Feet Mains	Number of Traps Vented Branch	Main Verical
1¼ inch vent	20	1
1½ inch vent	40	2 or less..
2 inch vent	65	10 or less..	20 or less
2½ inch vent	100	20 or less..	40 or less
3 inch vent	10 or more stories	60 or less..	100 or less

The branch vent-pipes shall not be less than the following sizes

One and one-fourth inches in diameter for one and one-fourth inch traps

One and one-half inches in diameter for one or two one and one-half traps or one two (2) inch trap

Two inches in diameter for three inch to four inch traps

One-half their diameter for traps five inches and over

Where two (2) or more water-closets are placed side by side on a horizontal branch the branch line shall have a relief as a loop vent A pipe two (2) inches in diameter will be sufficient as a loop vent for two (2) closets A pipe three inches in diameter shall be used as a relief for three (3) or four (4) closets and where more than four (4) closets are located on the same branch the relief shall, not be less than four (4) inches in diameter All house drains and soil lines on which a water-closet is located must have a main vent line not less than three (3) inches in diameter Where an additional closet is located in the cellar or basement and within ten feet of main soil or vent line no relief vent will be required for said closet but where it is more than ten feet a two-inch vent line will be required Relief vent pipes for water-closets must not be less than two inches in diameter for a length of sixty-five feet and not less than three inches in diameter for more than sixty-five feet In any house that has a three-inch vent through the roof a closet set on the first floor may be vented with a two-inch pipe

No revent from traps under bell-trap will be required

Any building having a sewer connection with a public or private sewer used for bell-trap connections or floor drainage only a two-inch relief line must be extended to the roof of building from rear end of main drain House drains constructed for roof drainage only will not require a relief vent All bell-traps floor drains or yard cesspools shall be connected to the sewer by means of a joint or connection that is as secure as the joints on the main drainage system Slip joints putty joints or open joints will not be permitted on any part of the drainage system

In the event that a building if higher than an adjoining one the owner of the higher building shall not locate windows within twelve (12) feet of any existing vent stack on the lower building unless the owner of such building shall defray the expense of or shall himself make such alteration necessary to extend the vent pipe above all windows on the higher building

It shall be the duty of the owner of the lower or existing building to make such alteration therein upon the receipt in advance of money or security therefor sufficient for the purpose from the owner of the higher building or he shall permit at the election of the owner of the higher building the right to make such alteration by the owner of said higher building

If the number of those fixtures on a branch is two (2) or more the waste line shall be extended as a loop vent instead of back venting the separate traps and when located in basement floor they shall be provided with a removable strainer or cleanout

Back vent pipes from traps above the floor must either be connected with crown of trap with ground-in brass coupling or if connected solidly to trap must have a ground-in brass coupling at wall

Section 19 That section thirty-eight of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Connection for Closet Vents

"Section 38 Rubber connections for back vents will not be permitted without double coupling and thimble inside" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Connection for Closet Vents

Section 38 All wrought iron or mild steel pipe used for soil waste or vent pipes shall be galvanized and not lighter than the commercial grade known as "Full weight" The fittings for wrought iron or mild steel waste soil and refrigerator waste shall be cast or malleable iron or brass recessed drainage fittings with smooth interior waterway and threads tapped out of solid metal so as to give a uniform grade to branches of not less than one-fourth of an inch per foot Threaded fittings for soil waste and vent pipes shall be brass galvanized malleable iron or cast iron All lead pipe used for branch soil waste vent or flush pipes shall be of best quality of drawn pipe of not less weight per lineal foot than shown in the following table

Internal Diameter	Weight per Ft.
1 inch	1 lb. 8 oz.
1¼ inch	2 lb. 8 oz.
1½ inch	3 lb. 8 oz.
2 inch	4 lb. 0 oz.
3 inch	6 lb. 0 oz.
4 inch	8 lb. 0 oz.

Brass pipe for soil waste and vent pipe shall be thoroughly annealed seamless drawn tubing having weight and outside diameter of not less than the following table and shall be of a heft known as iron pipe size pipe

Size	Approximate weight foot brass	Per outside diameter inches	Inside diameter inches
⅛	.25	.405	.281
¼	.43	.540	.375
⅜	.62	.675	.494

5	15.40	5.563	5.062
6	18.44	6.625	6.125

Brass fittings shall be good quality cast brass having a thickness in their walls not less than the tubular thickness given above for the corresponding brass pipe The thickness of the tapped ends to be one and one-half (1½) times the thickness of the corresponding pipe

Kind of Traps Every trap shall be self-cleaning No form which depends upon the action of movable parts for its seal shall be used No trap which depends upon concealed interior partitions for its seal or which has an interior partition that in case of defect would allow the passage of sewer air shall be used

Traps for bath tubs basins sinks or other similar fixtures shall be made of lead brass galvanized iron or of iron porcelain enameled inside Galvanized or porcelain enameled iron traps shall be extra heavy full bore and have a smooth interior waterway and threads tapped out of solid metal

Iron drum traps shall be made of extra heavy cast or malleable iron galvanized or porcelain enameled on the inside and the drum shall not exceed four (4) inches in diameter

Drum traps shall have a water seal of not more than seven (7) inches nor less than two and one-half (2½) inches

Water seal Each trap placed on any portion of the drainage system shall have a water seal of not less than two and one-half (2½) inches

Each trap except those in combination with fixtures where the trap seal is plainly visible and accessible shall be provided with a brass trap screw Traps placed between the floor shall have a brass trap screw for cleaning in plain view or flush with the floor or readily accessible from or under the floor

Trap levels and protection All traps shall be rigidly supported and set true with respect to their water level and shall be so located as to protect their seals

Traps prohibited on drains There shall be no trap at the foot of soil or waste pipe stacks

Section 20 That section forty-five of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Water-Closet Connections with Soil-Pipe

"Section 45 All earthenware traps must have heavy brass floor plates soldered to the lead bends and bolted to the trap flange and the joint made permanently secure and gas-tight" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Water-Closet Connection with Soil-Pipe

Section 45 Water-closets slop sinks clinic slop sinks pedestal urinals and all fixtures having integral traps shall be attached to the drainage system by means of a screw joint fitting or metal to metal joint or by means of a metal to metal or water sealed joint that is attached to the bowl trap in a permanent manner and so designed that any leakage between the bowl and the fixture will register upon the floor over which the bowl is placed this floor or wall connection shall be water sealed in such a manner that the seal will be replenished at each operation of the fixture

Section 21 That section forty-six of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Water-Closets where Located

"Section 46 Water-closets must not be located in sleeping apartments nor in any room or compartment which has not direct communication with external air either by window or airshaft of at least four square feet" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Water-Closets where Located

Section 46 Water-closet apartments must not have direct communication with any dining room or kitchen nor shall any water-closet be placed in any dining room or kitchen Water-closet apartments must not be placed in a dining room kitchen or sleeping apartments nor have direct communication with a public dining room restaurant or kitchen nor be placed in any room or compartment which has not direct communication with external air either by window or air shaft of at least four square feet And when any window ventilating any water-closet compartment or bath-room opens directly into a vent shaft no window of any room other than water-closets bath-room or hall shall open into such vent shaft

Section 22 That section forty-seven of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Water-closets how Supplied

"Section 47 No water-closets except those placed in yards and flush meters volumeter or similar devices shall be supplied directly from the supply pipes" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Water-closets how Supplied

Section 47 All valves of flushing tanks shall be so fitted and adjusted as to prevent the waste of water

The water from flushing tanks shall be used for no other purposes nor will any stop be permitted in flush pipe

All water flushed plumbing fixtures shall be provided with pipes of ample size to furnish a sufficient quantity of water to thoroughly cleanse the bowl at each operation When filing plans the plumber shall furnish the plumbing inspector with a sketch or plan showing the size of the water pipe from the main to each water flushed plumbing fixture He shall furnish the plumbing inspector with all information regarding the size of the water main pressure in the water main or other source of supply The manner of tapping the water main and conducting the water into the building the height of the building the distance the fixtures are located above the water main the distance of the building from the source of supply together with any other information necessary to determine the size of pipe necessary to properly flush each fixture

He shall also furnish the plumbing inspector with a description of each and every fixture together with the information regarding the quantity of water necessary for each operation of such fixture and a description of a device by which the fixtures are being flushed From this information the chief plumbing inspector shall advise the size pipe to be used for supplying water to all fixtures in the building

It shall be the duty of the plumbing inspector to be positive that all plumbing fixtures are supplied with a sufficient quantity and volume of water to thoroughly cleanse the system and each fixture seperately and if for any reason the plumber does not follow the advise of the plumbing inspector in regard to the size of the water pipe the plumber shall before a final certificate is issued change or alter the water piping system in such a manner that all fixtures can be effectually and satisfactorily flushed

Any and all water flushed plumbing fixtures that receive putrescible waste matter shall be so constructed and assembled that it will be impossible for any portion of the contents of the bowl to syphon or flow into the water supply pipes The plumbing inspector shall demand a sample of all water flushed fixtures installed under his jurisdiction including the bowl and flushing device and he shall make a vacuum test on the water supply of the assembled fixtures and be positive the contents of the bowl cannot syphon and be drawn into the water supply pipes

Section 23 That section forty-eight of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Water-closets

"Section 48 All water-closets must have flushing rim-bowls" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Water-closets

Section 48 A Materials All receptacles used for water-closets urinals or otherwise for the disposal of human excreta shall be either vitrified earthenware hard natural stone or cast iron white porcelain enameled or painted on the outside with at least three (3) coats of non-absorbent and non-corrosive paint

B Bowls The bowls and traps for all fixtures supplied with flushing rims shall be made in one piece and of such shape and form as to hold a sufficient quantity of water when filled up to the trap overflow so as to completely submerge any matter deposited in them and properly flush and scour the soil pipe when the contents of the bowl are discharged except that nothing in this section shall apply to latrine closets

C Open Plumbing All plumbing fixtures shall be installed or set free and open from all enclosing work and where possible all waste and discharge pipes from fixtures shall be run to the wall and the fixture supported independently from the floor

D Low Down Closets Water closets with low down tanks shall be of syphon pattern

E All water flushed fixtures of the flushing rim type must be provided with integral traps and be flushed by some method that will afford a sufficient quantity of water to thoroughly cleanse the bowl at each operation Such flushing device to be arranged in a manner that will provide a sufficient after-fill to completely seal the trap to the overflow line

F Visible Trap Seal All water-closets pedestal urinals hospital clinic slop sinks and flushing rim slop sinks shall be made in one piece with trap and bowl combined and arranged in such a manner that the water in the trap will be visible from the top of the fixture

G Flushing Rims All water-closets pedestal urinals flat back urinals clinic slop sinks and flushing slop sinks shall have flushing rims provided at the extereme top of the bowl The flushing rim shall be made without perceptible interior overhang The flushing outlets through which water is supplied for cleansing the interior of the bowl shall be the only openings above the water seal of the trap and these holes shall be so arranged that the entire inner surface of the bowl to its extreme top can be effiectively scoured at each operation of the flushing device

H Concealed or Exposed Openings No concealed or exposed vent opening will be permitted on the house side of the water seal of any trap No opening shall be placed on the house side of any fixture having an integral flushing rim other than the openings necessary to flush and cleanse the bowl

Closets Prohibited No range closet-either wet or dry nor any evaporating system of closets shall be constructed or allowed inside of any building

Section 24 That section fifty-three of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Construction of Urinals

"Section 53 All urinals must be constructed of materials impervious to moisture and that will not corrode under the action of urine The floor and walls or urinal apartments must be lined with similar non-absorbent and non-corrosive material" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Construction of Urinals

Section 53 All urinals must be constructed of materials impervious to moisture and that will not corrode under the action of urine and must be flushing rim or perforated pipe so as to cleanse all interior parts all urinals must be supplied by automatic tanks or flush valves The floor and walls of urinal apartments must be lined with similar non-absorbent and non-corrosive material

Section 25 That section fifty-four of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Urinal Platforms

"Section 54 The platforms or treads of urinal stalls must not be connected independently to the plumbing system nor can they be connected to any safe waste pipe" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Urinal Platforms

Section 54 The platforms or treads of urinal stalls must not be connected to the plumbing or drainage system nor can they be connected to any safe-waste-pipe

Section 26 That section fifty-seven of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Flush Pipes

"Section 57 Water-closet flush pipes must not be less than one and one-quarter inches and urinal flush pipes one-half inch in diameter" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Flush Pipes

Section 57 All flushing rim water supplied fixtures such as water-closets clinic slop sinks pedestal and flat back urinals and slop sinks shall be provided with a trap that has a two and one-half depth of water seal The depth of this seal shall be determined by sealing the waste outlet and attaching a guage provided with a "U" shapes glass tube and a registering device

Each and every bowl of this nature installed in any building shall show a depth of water seal equalling a column of two and one-half (2½) inches of water displaced on one side of the "U" shaped tube above the normal level of the water it shall be the duty of the department of health to supply such testing apparatus and any person wishing to install a fixture of this kind shall when requested furnish a sample bowl or bowls for inspection and approval by the plumbing inspector and no such bowl shall be installed which does not show a two and one-half inch water seal The seal of all traps other than those combined with the fixture may be measured with an ordinary rule but if for any reason the plumbing inspector doubts the depth of seal in any trap he can demand the same to be tested in the same manner as provided for closets

Section 27 That section fifty-eight of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Lining for Closet and Urinal Cisterns

"Section 58 The copper lining of water-closet and urinal cisterns must not be lighter than twelve-ounce copper and must be stamped on lining with maker's name Where lead is used for lining it must not weigh less than four pounds to the square foot All other materials are prohibited" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Lining for Closet and Urinal Closets

Section 58 The wainscoting of all toilet rooms shall be set directly against the building partitions and in no case shall a utility corridor or pipe space having an opening at the top communicate with any other room The partitions of all utility corridors or pipe spaces which occur back of any water closets or urinals shall extend from the floor to the ceiling and have separate door opening from the corridor or toilet room into the utility chamber

All such pipe spaces shall be at least thirty (30) inches wide throughout their length and shall be provided with a window twenty-four by sixty (24 x 60) inches said window to connect with the open air and so placed that it will admit daylight into the utility corridor

To avoid maintaining a nuisance the owner of any building containing a utility corridor or pipe space shall have same thoroughly washed and cleaned at least once every ten (10) days and failure to comply with this section shall be considered a misdemeanor

Provision shall be made to avoid damage to drainage system caused by expansion or contraction of the pipes in buildings of extreme height Such devices or methods shall be subject to the approval of the health department

Section 28 That section sixty of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which as amended by said act of May fourteenth nineteen hundred and nine reads as follows

Yard Water-Closets

"Section 60 Water-closets when located in yard must be so arranged as to be conveniently and adequately flushed and the water-supply pipes and traps protected from freezing by being placed in a hopper-pit at least four feet below the surface of the ground the walls of which pit shall be constructed of hard burned brick or stone laid in cement mortar or of concrete The walls for pit where one (1) closet is installed may be four (4) inches in thickness or salt-glazed sewer-pipe thirty-six (36) inches in diameter may be used

Where pit is for more than one (1) closet the walls shall be nine (9) inches in thickness The soil-pipes and traps used inside pit must be extra heavy cast-iron and the trap to have hand-hole for cleanout purposes with cleanout caulked in If the closet is located in the rear of a soil or vent-pipe the drain on which it is located shall be vented with a four-inch pipe carried above roof of closet away from any opening or window All outside closets shall be of the tank pattern The water to be supplied to tank through an automatic seat-action valve The waste from valve may be permitted to discharge on cement floor of pit which shall be provided with four-inch trap and strainer The enclosure of yard water-closets shall be ventilated by slatted openings and there shall be a trap door of sufficient size to permit of convenient access to the hopper-pit" be and the same is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 60 Water-closets when located in yard must be so arranged as to be conveniently and adequately flushed and the water-supply pipes and traps protected from freezing by being placed in a hopper-pit at least four feet below the surface of the ground the walls of which pit shall be constructed of hard burned brick or stone laid in cement mortar or of concrete The walls for pit where one (1) closet is installed may be four (4) inches in thickness or salt-glazed sewer-pipe thirty-six (36) inches in diameter may be used

Where pit is for more than one (1) closet the walls shall be nine (9) inches in thickness The soil-pipes and traps used inside pit must be extra heavy cast-iron and the trap to have hand-hole for cleanout purposes with cleanout caulked in If the closet is located in the rear of a soil or vent-pipe the drain on which it is located shall be vented with a four-inch pipe carried above roof of closet away from any opening or window All outside closets shall be of the tank pattern The water to be supplied to tank through an automatic seat-action valve The waste from valve may be permitted to discharge on cement floor of pit which shall be provided with four-inch trap and strainer The enclosure of yard water-closets shall be ventilated by slatted openings and there shall be a trap door of sufficient size to permit of convenient access to the hopper-pit

In case where pits are not used the traps and supply pipes for water-closets must be protected from freezing by clean earth filled around them and accessible cleanout plugs from traps must be brought to surface of closet floor closet floors must be cemented and graded to floor The floors must be at least (5) inches above grade of yard or yards

Section 29 That section sixty-five of said act of June seventh nineteen hundred and one which reads as follows

Terms Used

"Section 65 The term 'private sewer' is applied to main sewers that are not constructed by and under the supervision of the Department of Public Works

The term 'house-sewer' is applied to that part of the main drain or sewer extending from a point five feet outside of the outer wall of a building vault or area to its connection with public sewer private sewer or cesspool

The term 'house drain' is applied to that part of the main horizontal drain and its branches inside the walls of the building vault or area and extending to and connecting with the house sewer

The term 'soil-pipe' is applied to any vertical line of pipe extending through the roof receiving the discharge of one or more water-closets with or without other fixtures

The term 'waste-pipe' is applied to any pipe extending through roof receiving the discharge from any fixture except water-closets

The term 'vent-pipe' is applied to any special pipe provided to ventilate the system of piping and to prevent trap siphonage and back pressure" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Terms Used

Section 65 A vent-pipe is any pipe provided to ventilate a drainage and plumbing system of piping and to prevent siphonage and back pressure

A back vent-pipe is that part of a vent pipe line which connects directly with an individual trap underneath or back of the fixture and extends either to the branch main soil or waste vent

Soil or waste-vent is that part of the main soil or waste-pipe above the highest installed branch or fixture connection extending through the roof

Subsoil-drain is that part of a drainage system which conveys the subsoil or ground or seep water from the foot of wall or below the cellar bottom under buildings to the house sewer but independent of the house drain

Conductors or roof leaders are conveyors which carry the storm or rain water from the roofs of building to the house or yard drain The term down-spout is usually applied to the vertical portion

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 504, entitled

An Act providing for the joint acquisition and maintenance by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey of certain toll-bridges over the Delaware River and making an appropriation therefor

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the word "bridge" wherever used in this act shall mean any bridge wherever toll is charged over the Delaware River between the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey except such bridges as are used exclusively for railroad or railway purposes and shall include the actual bridge the approaches thereto and all real and personal property including the franchise belonging to the owner or owners of such bridge used in the operation and maintenance of same

Section 2 The Board of Commissioners of Public Grounds and Buildings of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is hereby constituted a commission to act in conjunction with a similar commission of the State of New Jersey as a joint commission for the acquisition of the various toll-bridges over the Delaware River between the Commonwealth and the State of New Jersey

Section 3 The acquisition of said toll-bridges may be either by purchase or by condemnation proceedings as said joint commission may deem more expedient The one-half of the cost of acquiring said bridges shall be paid by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Section 4 The said joint commission as soon as conveniently may be after the passage of this act shall ascertain or estimate the value of each of such bridges and shall in writing give notice of such valuation to the respective owner or owners thereof Such notice shall contain an offer to purchase such bridge at the respective valuation

Section 5 In the event that the owner or owners of any such bridge refuse or neglect to accept such offer it shall be the duty of said joint commission to determine in which State the said condemnation proceedings may be instituted

Section 6 In the event that said joint commission determine to institute any such condemnation proceedings in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania application shall be made by the Attorney General or by the owner or owners of any such bridge to the common pleas court of the county in which the head of such bridge it situated for the appointment of viewers Whereupon said court or any law judge thereof shall appoint three discreet and disinterested freeholders to view such bridge and estimate the value thereof None of said freeholders shall be a resident of the county wherein such application shall be made The said court shall fix a time not less than twenty nor more than thirty days thereafter when said viewers shall meet upon the property and view the same The said viewers shall cause at least ten days personal notice of the time and place of such first meeting to be given to the Auditor General and to the owner or owners of such bridge if resident within said county If said owner is a corporation such notice shall be given to the president secretary or treasurer thereof if such officer resides within said county If neither said owner or any of said officers resides within said county or cannot be found therein notice of such first meeting shall be given as said court may direct

Section 7 The said viewers having been duly sworn or affirmed faithfully and impartially to perform the duties required of them under the provisions of this act shall at the time fixed for said first meeting proceed to ascertain as accurately as may be the value of such bridge and to that end may require the attendance of any person whose testimony may be pertinent thereto and the production of any such books and papers as said viewers may deem necessary If any person shall refuse to appear and testify before said viewers or refuse to produce such books and papers when thereto required the said court or any judge thereof shall upon application of said viewers or a quorum thereof make such order therein as may be necessary

Section 8 Whenever said viewers shall have ascertained the value of said bridge they shall prepare a full report of their labors Said report shall include a plan showing the location of said bridge Upon the completion of said report the viewers shall fix a time when they shall meet and exhibit same Ten days' written notice of the time and place of such meeting shall be given to said Board of Commissioners of Public Grounds and Buildings to the Attorney General and to the owner or owners of said bridge At the time and place mentioned in such notice the said viewers shall meet and shall publicly exhibit said report and hear all exceptions thereto After making any changes in such report as they may deem necessary the same shall be filed in said court

Section 9 Within thirty days after the filing of said report in said court the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or any person interested may file exceptions thereto whereupon said court may confirm said report absolutely or modify if or refer it back to the same or to new viewers with like powers and duties as the former viewers

Section 10 Within thirty days after final action on said report by the court the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or any person interested may demand a trial by jury or may appeal to the Supreme Court

Section 11 The cost of said condemnation proceedings including the court costs compensation of viewers and the advertising herein required shall be paid by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Each of said viewers shall receive a sum not exceeding five dollars ($5.00) for each day actually and necessarily employed in the performance of the duties herein prescribed

Section 12 The one-half part of the purchase of said bridges or of the damages awarded under said condemnation proceedings shall be paid by the Treasurer of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania upon warrants drawn by the Auditor General under such conditions as may be prescribed by said Auditor General

Section 13 As soon as said joint commission and said owners shall have agreed upon the price of any such bridge or as soon as said joint commission shall have determined to acquire any such bridge by condemnation proceedings the said joint commission if funds sufficient for the purchase of the bridge are available shall at once take possession of such bridge in the joint names of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey Toll charges on such bridge shall thereupon cease and such bridge shall thereafter be free to the traveling public under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by such joint commission or their lawful successors Any railroad or railway now having the use of any such bridge by lease or agreement shall continue to pay to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey in equal proportions the same rental charges and in the same manner as such charges are now paid to the owner or owners of such bridge

Until the amount of such purchase price is paid to the owner or owners of such bridge interest shall be paid thereon at the rate of six per centum Interest at the same rate shall be paid on any award or verdict under condemnation proceedings from the time of taking such bridge until the termination of such proceedings by final decree of said court or of final decree on an appeal to the Supreme Court if any be taken

Section 14 Upon the acquisition of any such bridge by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey the same shall remain in the charge and control of said joint commission or their successors Such bridge shall thereafter be maintained jointly by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey shall be kept in constant repair and shall be rebuilt when destroyed The one-half of any and all expense connected with such maintenance repair or rebuilding shall be paid by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Section 15 To carry out the provisions of this act the unexpended balance appropriated under the provisions of

Section 15 To carry out the provisions of this act the unexpended balance appropriated under the provisions of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws twelve hundred seventy-seven entitled "An Act providing for the joint acquisition and maintenance by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey of certain toll bridges over the Delaware River and making an appropriation therefor" is hereby specifically re-appropriated and in addition thereto the sum of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) is hereby specifically appropriated The amounts herein appropriated shall be available until the purposes of this act may be accomplished and shall not be held or construed to have lapsed for the reason that the same was not used within a specified time after the passage of this act

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1033, as follows

A Supplement to an act entitled "An Act to promote the safety of travellers and employes upon railroads by compelling common carriers by railroad to properly man their trains" approved the nineteenth day of June Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and eleven and providing that the provisions of said act shall not be in force during the time the government of the United States is engaged in war with a foreign government or power and for a period of one month after the close of such war

Whereas By act of Congress war now exists between the Imperial German Government and the United States of America and

Whereas The State and Nation are suffering from a shortage of labor owing to the extraordinary demands made upon industry by virtue of the state of war now existing and by the enlistment of large numbers of our citizents in the Army and Navy of the United States and

Whereas It is believed that the industrial situation may be relieved to a large extent by the suspension for a specified period of labor laws and

Whereas It is provided by Article one section twelve of the Constitution of the Commonwealth that no power of suspending laws shall be exercised unless by the legislature or by its authority Now therefore

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the provisions of the act approved the nineteenth day of June Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and eleven entitled "An Act to promote the safety of travelers and employes upon railroads by compelling common carriers by railroad to properly man their trains" shall not be in force during the time that the Government of the United States is engaged in war with a foreign government or power and for a period of one month after the close of such war

Section 2 That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith or supplied hereby are hereby repealed

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BURKE. Mr. President, the intent of this substitute for the repeal of the Full Crew Law is apparent to all who are not blinded by the false glare of sophistry.

Two years ago the combined corporate wealth of this State left no stone unturned to remove from the Statute Books this same law; the law that was enacted in the interest of humanity—the law that helped safeguard human life. Truth was handled recklessly—malicious misrepresentations made by the railroads in an effort to deceive the people as to the real issue at stake, namely that the railroads were willing to roll up dollars at the expense of human life. That the Full Crew Law remained on our books despite the power and influence of corporate wealth, is due to the fearless courage and the high sense of duty of the man who occupies the Chief Executive's chair, Governor Brumbaugh.

On the face of it the bill is nothing more or less than a subterfuge. It wants the Full Crew Law suspended during the war period and then for one month afterwards. Why if the necessary number of men to properly protect a train are needed in times of peace, they are trebly needed in times of war.

President Wilson in his proclamation of April 15th says:

"To the men who run the railways of the country, whether they be managers or operative employes, let me say that the railways are the arteries of the Nation's life, and that upon them rests the immense responsibility of seeing to it that those arteries suffer no obstruction of any kind, no inefficiency, no slackened power."

The railroads in attempting to set aside this law are not guided by the advice of the President of our country; they are not seeking the welfare of their patrons or train employes; they are willing to shirk but not assume the immense responsibility of seeing to it that the arteries of the Nation's life suffer no obstruction of any kind, no inefficiency or slackened power.

Washington, May 17th, 1917, President Wilson addressed the Labor and Capital reprsentatives in the following felicitous terms:

"This is a most welcome visit, because it makes a most welcome thing. The spontaneous co-operation of men from all walks of life, interested to see that we do not forget any of the principles of our lives in meeting the great emergencies that have come upon us." Mr. Gompers has expressed already one of the things that have been very much in my mind of late. I have been very much alarmed at one or two things that have happened. At the apparent inclination of the legislatures of one or two of our States to set aside even temporarily the law which has safeguarded the standards of labor and of life.

I think nothing could be more deplorable than that. We are trying to fight in a cause which means the lifting of the standards of life, and we can fight in that cause best by voluntary co-operation."

I want to call the Senate's attention.

It is no time now to stir up strife, unrest or bitterness of feeling in the ranks of the trausportation employes; the memory of the hard fight and the influences they were forced to combat two years ago have not yet faded from their minds; there is nothing to be gained by breeding a feeling of injustice in the hearts and minds of these men, and let me say too to the honor and credit of the trainmen, that when they are called by their country, they'll answer the call they'll go into the treuches and on the firing line, brave men and unafraid. They face danger and death daily in the service of the railroads and they'll face it for their country, because on the railroads of America you will only find men with pure red American blood in their veins, and the guise under which this substitute for the Repeal is here is an insult to their American manhood.

You will remember that when the railroads tried to take this man off two years ago, they claimed then he was an extra man an unnecessary man, at this time they want him taken off, not because he is extra or unnecessary, but because of war. The men that man the trains, experienced railroad men know there is no unnecessary man upon the trains, but that the full crew, or sufficient number of men to properly man a train are absolutely essential and necessary if human life is to be safeguarded.

During this troublesome time of our Nation, women and children will be passengers daily on our trains, whose fathers, husbands and brothers are enrolled in their country's service. Their anxiety will be great enough for the absent ones without increasing it with the fear of riding on an unsafe train. This Full Crew Law during the war period is needed more than ever as a Defense for the Defenceless, a protection to the Helpless.

The attempt of the railroads to remove this law from the Statute Books is deceiving no one, they do not want men released on account of war times; they want them taken off for the same reason that they wanted them taken off when they appealed to the Courts of our State; for the same reason that they wanted them off two years ago when they spent enormous sums of money in their efforts to have the law repealed.

The Selective Conscription Act will take care of the situation as to the men who will be called to the front and those who will be left in the Industrial Field. Each serving their country at their rightful post of duty and defending the principals for which this great Republic stands. The railroads shamming in this respect is therefore easily recognized.

The only object the railroads have is to take from the Statute Books by fair means or foul a law placed there by Labor in the interests of Humanity. Their God is the "Almighty Dollar" human life a nonentity in comparison.

From a sense of decency and fairness, in the interest of Justice and Humanity, the Substitute for the Repeal of the Full Crew Law should be voted down.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I am not going to enter into any lengthy discussion of this measure, because I think it is thoroughly understood by every member of this Senate. I sat through a hearing of over four hours and a half last week with an honest, earnest, desire to be enlightened on the subject in order that I might vote intelligently, and it seems to me that there are but two questions involved in this measure: First, has the Full Crew Law been beneficial in the saving of life and property? By the statistics brought in by the trainmen themselves from the reports of the Public Service Commission, they showed that accidents had increased in the year 1916 over the year 1915. They likewise showed that there had been an increase in the death rate in the year 1916 over the year 1915. Therefore, it would seem to me that they have not shown that there has been any saving of life or property by the enactment of this full crew legislation. Therefore, the next question that presents itself to my mind is as to whether or not in this emergency the men so employed could not be more advantageously employed in other lines of work on the railroads, as the railroads all claim to be very short of labor. It would seem to me, therefore, that if they cannot show that there has been a saving of life and property that the question of humanity does not enter into this subject. If I believed it did I should earnestly agree with my distinguished friend, Senator Burke, from Allegheny, but as the statistics prove the contrary, I cannot see that we could serve a better purpose than, at least during these times, when there is such an increased demand for labor in every direction, by giving the relief, at least temporarily, during the duration of the war.

And the question recurring,

House Bill No. 1141, entitled

An Act authorizing Almeda G. Pickering of the borough of Towanda Bradford County Pennsylvania to bring suit against the Commonwealth

Whereupon,

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. E. E. Beidleman) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

Mr. BURKE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to read a bill in place at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. BURKE (by request) read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1601, entitled

An Act enlarging the powers of corporations incorporated under section two, clause nine, of an act entitled "An Act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations," approved the 29th day of April, A. D., 1874, its amendments and supplements, by conferring upon such corporations the right to take and appropriate, under the power of eminent domain, lands and waters for the erection of dams and reservoirs within certain restricted areas for the supply, storage and transportation of water for irrigating farm lands, and conferring certain powers upon the Public Service Commission of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Which was committed to the Committee on Corporations.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to read a bill in place at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. SPROUL read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1602, entitled

An Act making an appropriation to the Commission for the Compilation and Publication of the laws of Pennsylvania, prior to 1815.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

RESOLUTION EXTENDING THE THANKS OF THE LEGISLATURE TO THE HON. JOHN MARSHALL GEST, HON. GEORGE E. ALTER AND HON. THOMAS J. BALDRIGE FOR THEIR SERVICES IN CODIFYING AND REVISING THE LAWS OF DECEDENTS' ESTATES.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. BUCKMAN offered the following resolution, which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

Whereas, under and in accordance with provisions of the Act of Assembly entitled:

"An Act providing for the appointment and expenses of a Commission of three persons, learned in the law, to codify and revise the laws of decedents' estates, and making an appropriation" approved April 23d, 1915, P. L. 177, the Governor appointed Hon. John Marshall Gest, Hon. George E. Alter, and Hon. Thomas J. Baldrige as Commissioners.

And Whereas, Said commissioners with great ability, and at the expense of much time and labor on their part, but without any compensation, have fulfilled the duties of their appointment, and have presented to this Legislature for passage seven bills covering the whole field of decedents' estates, fiduciaries, partition and practice in the Orphans' Court and before the Register of Wills, which Bills, if adopted, will greatly simplify and improve the proceedings in the matters dealt with, and more justly provide for the descent of the estates of intestates.

Therefore Be It Resolved, That the thanks of this Legislature are hereby extended to the said Hon. John Marshall Gest, Hon. George E. Alter and Hon. Thomas J. Baldrige for the service to the State and its people in the matter aforesaid, and for their unselfish and untiring services in regard thereto.

And Be It Further Resolved, That an engrossed copy of these Preambles and Resolutions, signed by the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives and approved by the Governor, be sent to each of said Commissioners.

The SPEAKER (Richard J. Baldwin) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. S. G. Zerfass, offered the following prayer:

O Lord, Thou mighty Consellor, what shall we render to Thee for Thy great love and infinite sacrifice in our behalf. Surely Thy mercy is boundless; Thy grace is beyond comprehension!

Keep our hearts pure that we may see God with uninterrupted vision. Keep our lips clean to speak Thy name with true reverence. Keep our hands unstained that their touch may leave only benedictions. Keep our lives unspotted so that Thy holiness may shine upon us.

Cause us to know the true import of Memorial Day as never before, ennobling our patriotic instincts, making us ever more loyal to God, our country and its flag, and to be loftier, nobler, sweeter, better in all living.

Grant all and save us, Amen.

BILLS SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER.

The Speaker announced that the Chief Clerk having reported that the following bills had passed both houses of the General Assembly and the same being correct, the titles were publicly read as follows:

House Bill No. 775

An Act to fix and determine the salary of the several clerks of the courts of common pleas of the County of Philadelphia in accordance with article five section seven of the Constitution of this Commonwealth.

House Bill No. 1117

An Act providing that appointive officers and employes employed by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in its civil service or by any department, bureau, commission or office thereof or by any county, municipality, township or school district shall not be deemed or held to have resigned or abandoned their offices or employments by reason of enlistment enrollment or draft in the military or navel service of the United States or any branch or unit thereof in time of war or contemplated war; prohibiting the removal from their offices or employments of such officers and employes during the period of their service in the army or navy; directing that one-half of their salaries or wages of such officers or employes as have dependent wives, children or parents and not exceeding two thousand dollars per annum be paid during the term of their service in the army or navy to such dependents; authorizing the employment during said term of substitutes to perform the duties theretofore performed by such officers or employes respectively and providing for the compensation of such substitutes.

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

NAYS—1.

Siggins,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determained in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. STRAUSS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time from page 40 of to-day's calendar, bills on third reading postponed, Senate Bill No. 615 (House Bill No. 1432), File Folio 1819.

Agreeably to order,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1432 (Senate Bill No. 615), entitled

An Act to amend sections four and five of an act approved the second day of April one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight entitled "An Act to ascertain and appoint the fees to be received by the several officers of this Commonwealth"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, since this bill was before the House last week I have taken the trouble to ascertain the increases of the several fees from the fee bill of 1868, under which the clerks of the court of quarter sessions have worked for a long time. The first change is insignificant; it increases the fees for swearing the Grand Jury from ninety cents to one dollar. The next increase is one of ten cents in the fees. In cases of surety of the peace except subpoenas or attachments or for taking recognizances sixty cents. On page 5 of the bill the fees which are now sixty cents are increased to two dollars. On the same page for filing petitions from twenty cents to seventy-five cents. The next item in filing petitions and docketing petitions for the appointment of viewers filing reports and confirmation five dollars. The former fee of the clerk was ninety cents. For recording return of viewers from twelve and a half cents to twenty-five cents. Order to open road under seal two dollars. Filing constable's bond from twenty-five cents to one dollar. Receiving and entering constable's return to be paid by the county increased from fifteen to twenty-five cents. Filing and recording returns of borough and township elections each district to be paid by the county three dollars. Issuing attachment, entering motion therefor and return, from forty cents to one dollar. Copy of record of any paper filed for every hundred words, twelve and a half cents to twenty-five cents per hundred words. Certificates and seal fifty cents; formerly thirty cents. Every search where no other service is performed from fifteen to twenty-five cents. Then there are several new items and several old ones which are increases of forty cents to one dollar. The largest single increase which the bill carries is the certificate for paying of jurors, each juror to be paid by the county fifty cents for each certificate. The present fee for a panel is seventy-five cents for the whole panel. The increase is twenty-four dollars for every panel of forty-eight jurors. There is one reduction in the bill of fifty cents to twenty-five cents. The certificate for the pay of the constables. These are all increases and they range from forty to five hundred per cent. As far as anyone has been able to inform me there is no particular demand for this bill except in the County of Berks, and it would seem to me that this is rather a peculiar thing to come from a rock-ribbed Democratic County like Berks, from the party that is always ringing in on economy in the administration of the government, and for these gentlemen to come to this House and ask for the enormous increase called for in this bill, for the benefit of this county, and if it is the desire of the House to pass this bill I say it would be unnecessary in some counties and if it is passed it will be passed for the benefit of the gentleman from Berks.

Mr. STRAUSS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Franklin.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Walter, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, yes sir.

Mr. STRAUSS. Is it not a fact that the clerk of quarter sessions in your county is attached to another office?

Mr. WALTER. That is true.

Mr. STRAUSS. What office?

Mr. WALTER. Clerk of Orphans' Court and Secretary and is paid two thousand a year.

Mr. STRAUSS. If he was clerk alone he could not pay his house rent.

Mr. WALTER. I assume he would be making about twelve hundred a year.

Mr. STRAUSS. I think that is violent assumption by the gentleman from Franklin County. The fact is that in three-quarters of the counties of the State the office of Clerk of Quarter Sessions is an attachment to another office in the county. In Lebanon County it is attached to the Recorder's Office; in the County of Franklin it is attached to another office; in the County of Cumberland it is also, and even in Centre County three offices are held by one man in order to make a living out of it. In a county where the office of Quarter Sessions is held alone, which is the case in Berks County, the fees don't pay enough salary to the clerk of quarter sessions to enable him to live on it and it is also necessary to pay for clerk hire. In the one item, in desertion and surety of the peace cases, it is necessary for the Clerk of Quarter Sessions to have one clerk for that for which he must pay out money and he receives not more than eight hundred to twelve hundred a year; in other words he usually pays out about $50,000 a year, and that takes one clerk to handle that. At the present time there is no fixed fee for doing it, and the sum of $2.00 is not too much for handling that money for one person for a whole year. The other increases that he speaks of are just like this. The gentleman says there are new fees under this act. This clause is practically the same as the old clause in the act of 1868, where it says fees for services not herein specially provided shall be the same as for similar services. This clause provides for fees for services that did not have any fees fixed, and in Berks County where they really don't want to take any money unless it honestly belongs to them they will charge too little. That is the reason why I am asking that the fees be fixed by law so that they can take their money honestly. This is simply to pay them what they are justly entitled to for this class of service. I hope all the members will vote in favor of this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. SHOWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I ask a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified in the affirmative as follows:

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, I understood the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Snowden, to vote no.

The SPEAKER. The nays have not been called yet.

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, he is recorded as having voted aye.

The SPEAKER. Is that correct? The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Snowden, did I understand the gentleman to say?

Mr. SNOWDEN. Mr. Speaker, I voted aye.

Mr. ERDMAN. Mr. Speaker, I voted aye, and I did not hear my named called.

Mr. WHITAKER. Mr. Speaker, I did not hear my name called. I voted aye.

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, in justice to myself, I desire to state that I understood the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Snowden, to vote nay—

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia can rise to a point of order, otherwise he is out of order.

Mr. WALTER. This is more in the nature of a question of personal privilege, and I did hear the gentleman—

The SPEAKER. There is noting in order but the verification of the role, after the roll has been verified and announced, of course, if any gentleman of the House wants to rise to a question of personal privilege or a point or order, the Chair will be glad to recognize him, and the gentleman from Franklin can then rise to a point of order if he so desires.

Mr. SHOWALTER. Did I understand you to say that you have announced the role as read in the affirmative, did the Speaker so announce?

The SPEAKER. Not with the Chair's knowledge, he did not.

Mr. SHOWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I challenge the vote of Mr. Scott of Centre County.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will have to reduce his challenge to writing and pass it up to the Chair, and unless it effects the result, the Chair will withhold its decision.

The SPEAKER. The role stands in the affirmative as verified. The role was verified in the negative as follows:

NAYS—5.

Glass,	Ramsey,	Wickman,	Baldwin,
Heyburn,			Speaker.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Mr. MEARKLE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up from page 37 of to-day's calendar, House Bill No. 1365, File Folio 3847, bills on third reading postponed, for the purpose of amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1365, entitled

An Act requiring public adjusters engaged in the adjustment of claims for loss or damage by fire under a policy or policies of insurance upon property in this Commonwealth to be licensed by the Insurance Commissioner defining such public adjuster providing for the payment of a fee for the issuance of a license and prescribing penalties for any violation of the act

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. MEARKLE. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk then read the amendment as follows:

Amend section 1, page 2, line 20, by striking out after the word "adjuster" the words "Provided that the services of the agent or broker in the adjustment are without compensation but no such public adjuster shall act or be licensed as an insurance agent or broker or be identified with or have offices in conjunction with any insurance company or insurance agency

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendment will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The amendment consists of striking out certain matter and under the rules of the House the bill can go on final passage.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LEWIS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the sponsor of this bill explain it.

Mr. MEARKLE. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, this bill licenses public fire adjusters. It was discussed some two weeks ago in this House, and was objected to by some gentlemen because it did not permit writing agents to make adjustments of fire losses. This amendment has been made for the purpose of meeting the objection of those who objected to the bill by striking out that paragraph relating thereto.

Mr. LEWIS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Pittsburgh.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Pittsburgh, Mr. Mearkle, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MEARKLE. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. LEWIS. Mr. Speaker, what is the provision of this bill in regard to mutual companies?

Mr. MEARKLE. Mr. Speaker, it does not relate to any insurance companies whatever, that is, not any separate company. Anybody who holds himself out to be a public fire adjuster and does nothing else than adjust fire losses, shall be issued a license for that purpose by the Insurance Department.

Mr. LEWIS. Mr. Speaker, what effect would it have on the mutual companies where they have to adjust losses for stock instantly, where they do not have a regular adjuster?

Mr. MEARKLE. Mr. Speaker, it does not apply to them at all.

Mr. LEWIS. Mr. Speaker, it does not apply to them?

Mr. MEARKLE. It does not apply to them at all.

Mr. LEWIS. Mr. Speaker, what license does this call for?

Mr. MEARKLE. Mr. Speaker, it does not require a license to make adjustments of that kind under this bill. It is simply public adjusters, men who hold themselves out to adjust fire losses exclusively and do nothing else, just the same as doctors must be licensed, or attorneys-at-law or men of that calibre, he must get a license from the Insurance Department. This is their suggestion, and is there bill.

Mr. SONES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Mearkle, allow himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MEARKLE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SONES. Under this bill as amended can an insurance agent act as an adjuster?

Mr. MEARKLE. Yes, that was the object in cutting this part out, to permit the insurance agent to act as an adjuster.

Mr. SONES. What is the purpose of the bill?

Mr. MEARKLE. To regulate the public adjusters.

Mr. SONES. Would the insurance agent be required to take out a license?

Mr. MEARKLE. No, sir.

Mr. SONES. Did I understand you to say that an insurance agent can be an adjuster under your bill as amended?

Mr. MEARKLE. Yes, sir.

Mr. SONES. Must he take out a license?

Mr. MEARKLE. No, sir; he is not a public adjuster, the insurance agent is not a public adjuster.

Mr. SONES. Then what is the purpose of the bill?

Mr. MEARKLE. The purpose of the bill is this: There are men in the various cities who hold themselves out of public adjusters of fire losses and do exclusively that business. In that line of business there are various classes of people, and the idea was for the Insurance Department to issue to those men who devote their time exclusively—not writing agents or agents for insurance companies for the purpose of writing fire insurance, but to those men who act exclusively as fire adjusters and settle losses in cases of fire—a license, so that the Insurance Department might know who these men are. That is the purpose of the bill.

Mr. SONES. Won't this work a hardship on the policy holders by raising the fees to be paid to the adjusters?

Mr. MEARKLE. The policy holder does not pay that. Have you read the bill?

Mr. SONES. No, sir; and that is why I am asking you.

Mr. MEARKLE. The policy holder does not pay the fee. The adjuster pays the license fee of twenty-five dollars.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

An Act regulating the collection of county taxes in counties containing over one hundred thirty-five thousand and less than one hundred fifty thousand inhabitants creating the office of receiver of taxes in such counties and prescribing the powers and duties of said office

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk then read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 2, page 2, line 3, by striking out the word "nineteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "seventeen."

Amend the bill, page 8, by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

Section 22 This act, except as herein otherwise designated, shall take effect on the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 325, entitled

An Act authorizing and requiring employers to deduct from the wages of employes after notice sums sufficient to pay delinquent city county borough school district poor district and township taxes on occupations owing by such employes and to pay over the same.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. HOLLINGSWORTH. Mr. Speaker, I move that the further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. CHARLES A. SHAFFER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1628, entitled

An Act to amend an act entitled "An Act providing for the payment of the costs incurred in the trial of convicts and prisoners escaping or attempting to escape from the several penitentiaries and reformatories of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by the respective counties from whose courts the said escaping convicts or prisoners have been committed and providing for the maintenance of such convicts under sentence for escape et cetera" approved the twenty-second day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirteen

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 926, entitled

An Act to prevent discrimination by any person copartnership association or corporation engaged in any public service business prohibiting the refusal cutting off or discontinuance of service in certain cases and providing penalties

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. THEODORE CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, this bill provides for some restrictions to be placed about the collecting power of public utilities companies. The experience of public utilities companies, such as furnish water, light, heat and gas, is frequently that hose parties who purchase such supplies refuse to pay for the supplies and move from the house in which they have been using them into some other section of the city, and request that they be furnished these supplies at the new location. In such a case the only method which the public utilities company has to collect that bill, in a great many cases, is to withhold the furnishing of the supply in the new location until the bill for the old location is paid. Under the terms of this bill they would be prohibited from refusing to furnishing that public utility at the new location until the bill was paid for the supply used at the old location. It is also the experience of public utilities companies that people refuse to pay their bills without moving, and in that case the only recourse the public utilities company has is to shut off the supply. This bill would prohibit them from shutting off that supply until the alleged debt has been reduced to a judgment. I suppose that there may be some cases in which the right of the utilities company has been abused, but I have had some experience with that business and I know of no case in which the attitude of the utilities company was not lenient to the extreme, and there are some cases in which this is the only method which the company has to enforce collection of their revenues. I want to suggest to you, Mr. Speaker, that if this bill should pass that it removes the possibility of collecting these claims by a mere threat, which is often successful, and it removes any method that the utilities company will have which will be effective in a great many cases because the parties using that service are not responsible financially. I think the bill should be defeated.

Mr. DELL. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I am not an attorney for any public utilities company but I happen to know that frequently the rights of public utilities companies are exercised, under the present Act of Assembly, beyond all reason. I believe this bill should go through in justice to the common people in justice to the consumer. To illustrate, I remember in 1905 the Huntingdon Water Supply Company arbitrarily raised the water rates in the Borough of Huntingdon 33 1-3% with the promise that just as soon as coal was reduced in price they would again put the rates back to where they were. In a few months coal dropped to a price lower than what it was before and then the citizens claimed the right to have the water rates put back to the rate formerly charged. The company immediately said, "If you refuse to pay we will shut off the water," and they proceeded to do so with a few people. The result was that we have been punished ever since. Not only does this apply to our own borough but I have found that it applies to boroughs all over the State of Pennsylvania. In our own case the company acknowledged in court that they were making 27 per cent. net profit. It seems to me that under such abuse as that this House should give the common people some remedial legislation and put this bill through.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1622, as follows:

An Act empowering express companies to employ policemen commissioned by the Governor with authority to act in all counties in the State wherein such companies carry on their business

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That this act shall be known as the "Express Company Policemen Act of Nineteen Seventeen"

Section 2 That any corporation engaged in carrying on the business of an express company within this State may apply to the Governor to commission such persons as the said corporation may designate to act as policemen for said corporation

Section 3 The Governor upon such application may appoint such persons or so many of them as he may deem proper to be such policemen and shall issue to such person or persons so appointed a commission to act as such policemen

Section 4 Every policeman so appointed shall before entering upon the duties of his office take and subscribe the oath required by the seventh article of the Constitution before the recorder of any county within which the express company employing such policeman may operate which oath after being duly recorded by such recorder shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State and a certified copy of such oath made by the recorder of the proper county shall be recorded with the commission in every county through or in which the express company employing such policeman may operate and in which it is intended the said policeman shall act and such policemen so appointed shall severally possess and exercise all the powers which are vested in policemen of any city of the State in the several counties in which they shall be so authorized to act as aforesaid and the keepers of jails or lock-ups or station houses in any of said counties are required to receive all persons arrested by such policemen for the commission of any offense against the laws of this Commonwealth committed upon or along the highways or railroads whereon such express companies operate or upon the premises of such companies to be dealt with according to law

Section 5 Such express company police shall when on duty severally wear a metallic shield with the words "express company police" and the name of the corporation for which appointed inscribed thereon and said shield shall always be worn in plain view except when they are employed as detectives

Section 6 The compensation of such police shall be paid by the companies for which the policemen are respectively appointed as may be agreed upon between them

Section 7 Whenever any corporation shall no longer require the services of any policeman so appointed as aforesaid it may file a notice to that effect under its corporate seal attested by its secretary in the several offices where the commission of such policeman has been recorded which shall be noted by the several recorders upon the margin of the record where such commission is recorded and thereupon the power of such policeman shall cease and be determined

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, to my mind this is a very bad bill It practically re-establishes the coal and iron police again. A bill similar to this was defeated last week very near unanimously and I think that this bill should take the same course.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I move that further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. ULSH. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1802, entitled

An Act fixing the compensation of constables for attendance at primary and general elections

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RINN. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, this bill only provides that the constables shall receive five dollars a day, the same money that is being received by the Election Board and the Assessors on Election Day. That is all there is to this bill, and I ask a favorable vote upon it.

On the question recurring,

MR. WHITAKER IN THE CHAIR.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1778, entitled

An Act to protect the public health by requiring the parents directors of the poor or other person responsible for the care and maintenance of any male child to have such child circumcised at or before reaching the age of three months and fixing a penalty

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the sponsor of this bill explain its provisions.

Mr. URICH. Mr. Speaker, I see there is quite a great deal of levity in reference to this bill. When you take it into consideration this is a bill that concerns, vitally, every male individual in the United States and in the world. This bill has been offered to preserve the manhood of the nation. Gentlemen, if you had seen the vital and serious results that men have been troubled with in the past and will be trouble with in the future in the way of diseases arising where circumcision has not been performed, you would not, for a moment, stop to hesitate to vote for this bill. If you had seen the conditions of men who have never been operated on or circumcised, and had seen the serious results coming from it you would say that this bill should have been on our statute books in the last hundred years. I say now, gentlemen, that you can do nothing better than pass it because you are, by doing so, preserving the young people. This bill in itself also prevents and helps to strengthen the nervous system of young people, because it is one of the greatest agents to prevent the habit of masturbation and troubles of that kind. You all know, gentlemen, that masturbation carried to excess will make you weak mentally, physically and in every way. I say to you then do not turn down this bill but vote for it and see that the rising generation, the generation that is following, you will not suffer in the same way as you have been compelled to suffer, in many instances.

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. Speaker, the explanation by the gentleman from Lebanon has been very well rendered, and I think, seriously, that this bill should pass. You have treated it very much as a joke, but, really, when you come to the fine points of it, it would be a very good thing to make mandatory.

Mr. SHATTUCK. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer an amendment to the bill.

The SPEAKER. The Chair states that the bill has passed third reading and an amendment at this time is out of order.

Mr. STERN. Mr. Speaker, I just desire to say that I propose to support this bill as a matter of consistency.

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILL ON SECOND READING.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to call up from page 52 of to-day's calendar, bills on second reading, Senate Bill No. 1023, for the purpose of recommitting.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. Speaker, the object is to recommit this bill, and another one, to the Committee on Elections for the purpose of a hearing. I have consulted with Mr. Ramsey and he is willing to withdraw his objection.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I will withdraw my objection.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in committee of the whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1897 (Senate Bill No. 1023), entitled

An Act providing for the payment of damages for necessary adjustments to property affected by change of grade where property was improved on the natural surface of the ground without conforming to the established grade regulation where said regulation had been established for more than three years

The first section was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That viewers juries referees arbitrators and judges sitting at the trial of cases without juries to assess the damages caused by the opening widening narrowing or the change of grade of any street road or highway shall include in the damage the cost of all necessary adjustments to property where the same has been improved or built upon at the natural surface of the land where the established or confirmed grade regulation has been established or confirmed for a period of more than three years prior to the erection of the improvements or buildings upon said land and the said street road or highway has not been made to conform to the established or confirmed grade regulation

On the question,

Will the House agree to the first section?

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Elections for the purpose of a hearing.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON SECOND READING.

Mr. McNICHOL asked and obtained unanimous consent to call up from page 53 of to-day's calendar, bills on second reading, Senate Bill No. 1022.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in committee of the whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1896 (Senate Bill No. 1022), entitled

An Act to authorize and require the improvement of streets roads and highways in all cities of the Commonwealth where owners of land abutting thereon desire to improve and build upon said land

The first section was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That an owner or owners owning at least fifty per centum of the land abutting upon any legally opened street road or highway upon the confirmed plan in any city and lying and being between two other streets roads or highways upon the said road confirmed plan may give notice to the mayor of said city on or before the first day of September in any year of his or their intention to improve said land by the erection of dwellings or other buildings thereon and file with the said mayor a bond with good and sufficient sureties in form to be approved by the city solicitor of said city conditioned to improve said ground with dwellings or other buildings as set forth in said notice within one year from the completion of said street improvements otherwise to pay into the treasury of the said city the cost of all street improvements in said block not collected by the said city from the abutting property owners within one year after the completion of the same

On the question,
Will the House agree to the first section?

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Elections for the purpose of a hearing.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,
The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1626, entitled

An Act for the prevention of fraud and deception by prohibiting the use of added artificial coloring matter in such edible alimentary pastes as macaroni spaghetti vermicelli and noodles

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation for the purpose of a hearing.

Mr. GANS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Mr. BEYER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up from page 37 of to-day's calendar, bills on third reading postponed, Senate Bill No. 61 for the purpose of amendment.

Agreeably to order,
The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 338 (Senate Bill No. 61), entitled

An Act to enable foreign religious and charitable corporations to hold real estate

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. BEYER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment to this bill at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk then read the amendment as follows:

Amend by striking out all after the word "dollars" on line 10 and to the end of the lines and all on lines 11 and 12.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendment at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendment will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BEYER. Mr. Speaker, I think probably I ought to make some explanation about this bill. This bill was before us some few weeks ago and when an explanation was asked for, no one in the House happened to have sufficient information on hand at the time to properly explain it. The only purpose of this bill is to enable a Lutheran congregation from the State of New Jersey to erect a place of worship in the City of Philadelphia. Now these people were perfectly satisfied to either to come in with taxation or without taxation, but for the purpose of making it uniform, since we have been doing it right along in other matters, I amended the bill taking out the taxation feature, because they have a right to worship here as well as anywhere else. I hope every member of the House will support this bill.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—2.

Cox, Dean,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,
The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1671, entitled

An Act fixing the pay of election officers in cities of the third class boroughs towns and townships

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk then read the amendments as follows:

Amend title, lines one and two, by striking out after the word "officers" in line one, the following: "in cities of the third class, boroughs, towns and townships."

Amend section 1, lines 4 and 5 by striking out after the word "officers" in line 4, the following: "in cities of the third class, boroughs, towns and townships."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1817, entitled

An Act to amend section five of an act approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven entitled "An Act to fix the salaries of the judges of the Supreme Court the judges of the Superior Court the judges of the Courts of the Common Pleas and the judges of the Orphans' Courts"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, in the absence of the sponsor, I move the further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Mr. BLACK. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time from page 38 of to-day's calendar House Bill No. 717, File Folio 5193, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 717, entitled

An Act to amend section two of the act approved the nineteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred eighty-seven entitled "An Act to preserve the purity of elections by declaring drunkenness on the part of election officers and assessors of poll taxes to be a misdemeanor and by requiring elections to be held in rooms in which liquor is not sold so far as possible" by absolutely prohibiting the holding of elections in rooms in which liquor is sold.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STERN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. BLACK, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BLACK. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. STERN. I would like to ask the gentleman whether this means the room or the house.

Mr. BLACK. Mr. Speaker, it means that the polling place shall be taken out of the bar room. It can be placed in any other room of the house or hotel. I introduced this bill because on registration day the saloons are open and doing business, and that keeps a number of people from going there and registering. This takes the polling place out of the bar room in order that everybody might feel free to go in and register, a privilege which I think they should have.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1917 — 122nd of the General Assembly

VOL. 4. HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 6, 1917. No. 64.

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, June 6, 1917.

The Senate met at 1 o'clock P. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Frank B. McClain) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

Rev. M. D. Lichliter offered the following prayer:

Oh Lord, we thank Thee for the smiling sky and for the health and strength to perform the duties in the starting out of the work of another week. Bless, we pray Thee, this Senate, the presiding officers, the officers, the members and the attaches, and grant unto each and all wisdom for the duties that lie before them. We thank Thee, our Father, that as a nation we stand unanimous for the expression of loyalty for a common cause. We thank Thee for the yesterday and for the wonderful unanimity that characterized our young manhood to show their willingness to place their lives in the hands of the government to sustain the honor of our nation and battle for the cause of liberty and universal democracy. Bless our nation and sanctify our work. We ask in Jesus's name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WASBERS, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

VETO OF SENATE BILL NO. 774.

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, filed with the Chief Clerk during the interim, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 29, 1917.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval Senate Bill No. 774, entitled "An Act making an appropriation to refund certain monies to the estate of the late Joseph P. Kennedy."

This bill purports to refund to the estate of Joseph P. Kennedy, a former State Senator, the sum of five hundred ($500) dollars as compensation for attendance upon a special session of the Assembly held in 1883. The claim is ancient. No reason is given for this long delay. No assurance is given that he attended this extra session. The title provides for a refund and the body of the bill provides not for a refund but for a payment. The fact is that there is no refund involved. It is a claim made after a third of a century and is not supported by sufficient evidence to warrant its recognition. This claim should have been attended to long, long ago, and this delay does not add to the credibility of the obligation.

For these reasons this bill is not approved.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. McKEE. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. LYNCH. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

VETO OF SENATE BILL NO. 69.

He also laid before the Senate communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, filed with the Chief Clerk during the interim, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 31, 1917.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval Senate Bill No. 69, entitled "A Supplement to the second section of an act entitled 'A Supplement to the twenty-fourth section of an act entitled 'An Act to provide revenue by taxation approved the seventh day of June one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine approved the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine amending the twenty-fourth section by providing for the payment by the State Treasurer of one-half of the two per centum tax on premiums paid by foreign fire insurance companies to the treasurers of the several cities and boroughs within this Commonwealth' approved the twenty-eight day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five amending the same to provide for the payment of the net proceeds of the entire two percentum tax for the purpose indicated in the original act and supplement including townships among the distributees and providing for certain conditions upon said distributions.'"

This bill provides for payment of the entire sum realized by the State from taxes upon premiums of foreign fire insurance companies to the several cities, boroughs and townships in which the same is collected. Under existing law one-half of this sum is paid to these municipalities. The other half approximating $200,000 per year is by Act of May 14, 1915 (P. L. 524), set aside and dedicated for the State insurance fund. The passage in 1915 of this act, creating a State insurance fund, was then and is now regarded as one of the most important and economic measures of State administration enacted in recent years. At that time the Commonwealth was paying to insurance companies in premiums annually hundreds of thousands of dollars. Under the act twenty per centum of this insurance is taken over into the State fund annually until in 1920 all property of the State will be insured in its own fund. It is the income from the tax on foreign fire insurance companies that provides the funds to make this saving possible. The law is mandatory and it would be the height of folly to compel the State to carry its insurance and at the same time remove from its treasury the fund dedicated to do this service. This bill is, therefore, a direct attack upon the State Insurance Fund. Due notice of this fact was conveyed to the responsible representatives in the Assembly and they were urged, in case they wished to dedicate all this income from foreign fire insurance companies to the Firemen's Relief organization throughout the State, to make other fiscal provision to carry out the law's mandate in the matter of the insurance of its own property from the fund. Such provision was not made.

The responsibility for the situation thus created does not rest upon the Executive. The President of the State Firemen's Association at a public hearing today freely admitted that the legislative mandate concerning this insurance fund must be conserved and that these funds should be retained for the insurance fund unless other and equal provision were made by the Assembly to secure from other sources the revenue necessary to comply with the law of 1915.

The Relief Associations of the firemen of the State are worthy organizations. They deserve and should have all these funds and even more. When men voluntarily serve in hazardous duties and incur injury or death it is only right that their dependents should be generously cared for, not as objects of charity, but as by right entitled to such relief. The injured fireman has a right to relief and funds for this purpose are altogether proper and just. The Executive would gladly lend his approval to any remedial legislation of this character and is greatly distressed that he is compelled by the law he is obligated to administer to deny this relief to worthy beneficiaries.

Should any legislation issue that will conserve the State Insurance Fund and also afford increased aid to Firemen's Relief Associations the Executive will gladly approve such enactment. Until this is done, reluctantly but conscientiously, he must with regret withhold his approval.

For these reasons this bill is not approved.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. BEIDLEMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The rule requiring bills to be considered in committee of the whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1039, as follows:

An Act making an appropriation for the purpose of refunding certain moneys to Louis Gumbiner of Philadelphia Pennsylvania improperly exacted from him

Whereas on November eighteenth one thousand nine hundred and twelve the court of quarter sessions in and for the City and County of Philadelphia granted a wholesale liquor license to Louis Gumbiner for the premises number nine hundred and nine South street Philadelphia in accordance with section seven of the act of April twenty one thousand eight hundred fifty-eight for the unexpired term of the license year which was from June first one thousand nine hundred and twelve to May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred thirteen both inclusive and

Whereas the said Louis Gumbiner tendered five hundred thirty-four dollars and twenty-five cents for the license fee for said unexpired term to the treasurer of the County of Philadelphia the proportionate amount of the license fee for the said unexpired term but the said treasurer refused to accept such sum and required the said Louis Gumbiner to pay the full annual fee of one thousand dollars which was paid on November twenty-first one thousand nine hundred and twelve and

Whereas the legal amount of the license fee in such case was only for the unexpired term Now therefore the sum of four hundred sixty-five dollars and seventy-five cents is hereby specifically appropriated for the purpose of refunding to the said Louis Gumbiner the said amount so excessively paid by him The said money shall be paid on warrant of the Auditor General

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1115 (House Bill No. 1424), entitled

An Act for the imposition and collection of certain inheritance taxes.

Mr. McCONNELL. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1115 (House Bill No. 1424), as follows:

An Act for the imposition and collection of certain inheritance taxes

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That all estates real personal and mixed of every kind whatsoever situated within this Commonwealth whether the person dying seized thereof be domiciled within or without this Commonwealth and all such estates situated in another State, territory or country when the person dying seized thereof shall have his domicile within this Commonwealth passing from any person who may die seized or possessed of such estates either by will or under the intestate laws of this Commonwealth or any part of such estates or interests therein transferred by deed grant bargain or sale made or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment after the death of the grantor or bargainer to or for the use of father mother husband wife children lineal descendants born in lawful wedlock children of a former husband or wife or the wife or widow of the son of a person dying seized or possessed or to legally adopted children are hereby made subject to a tax of two ($2) dollars on every hundred dollars of the clear value of such estates and at the same rate for any less amount to be paid to the use of the Commonwealth

The tax hereinbefore provided is also imposed on any estate passing from the mother of an illegitimate child or from any person of whom the mother is a lineal descendant to such illegitimate child his wife or widow Such tax also applies to any estate passing from an illegitimate child to his mother

Section 2 The register of wills of the county in which letters testamentary or of administration are granted shall appoint an appraiser whenever occasion may require to fix the value of the estates hereinbefore subjected to tax Such appraiser shall make a fair conscionable appraisement of such estates and assess and fix the cash value of all annuities and life estates growing out of said estates upon which annuities and life estates the tax imposed by this act shall be immediately payable out of the estate at the rate of such valuation

Section 3 The compensation of such appraisers shall be as follows namely For each day during which an appraiser shall actually be engaged in making appraisements of property subject to the tax he shall receive the sum of five dollars If it shall be necessary for the appraiser to travel from his place or residence to appraise property subject to the tax he shall be allowed such actual necessary traveling expenses as he may incur which expenses shall be itemized in a sworn statement to be returned to the register and subject to the final approval of the auditor general

Section 4 Whenever because of the complicated nature of an estate subject to the payment of such tax the interest of the Commonwealth shall require the appointment as appraiser of such estate of a person possessed of expert or technical knowledge to ascertain the value thereof reasonable additional compensation shall be allowed such appraiser for the exercise of such expert or technical knowledge In case where after the appointment of an appraiser it shall appear that the proper appraisement of said estate will require the services of a person possessed of expert or technical knowledge whereof the appraiser appointed is not possessed the appraiser may employ the services of a person possessed of expert or technical knowledge to assist him in the appraisement and for such services the person so employed shall receive reasonable compensation In all such cases the register of will appointing the appraiser shall certify to the auditor general that there is an actual necessity for the appointment of an appraiser possessed of expert or technical knowledge or that the appraiser already appointed to appraise the estate in question should be assisted by a person possessed of such knowledge No person shall be appointed as such expert appraiser or as expert assistant to the appraiser until the approval of the auditor general of said appointment is first obtained nor shall any payment be made to any appraiser or to any person employed by him under this section until an itemized statement of the services performed and the compensation recommended shall have been rendered under oath or affirmation to the auditor general for his approval and shall have received the same No clerk or other person employed in the office of a register of wills shall be appointed as an expert appraiser of an estate subject to the payment of such tax nor as an expert to assist the appraiser of such estate

Section 5 It shall be a misdemeanor for an appraiser to take any fee or reward from any executor or administrator legatee lineal descendent or heir of any decedent and for any such offense the register shall dismiss him from such service Upon conviction of such misdemeanor such appraiser shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars or imprisoned not exceeding one year or both

Section 6 Any person not satisfied with any appraisement may appeal within thirty days to the orphans' court on paying or giving security to pay all costs together with whatever tax shall be fixed by the court Upon such appeal the court may determine all questions of valuation and of the liability of the appraised estate for such tax subject to the right of appeal to the supreme or superior court

Section 7 The register of wills shall enter in a book to be provided at the expense of the Commonwealth which shall be a public record the returns made by all appraisers under the provisions of this act opening an account in favor of the Commonwealth against each decedent's estate The register may give certificates of payment of such tax from such record The register shall transmit to the auditor general on the first day of each month a statement of all returns made by appraisers during the preceding month upon which the taxes have been paid or remain unpaid which statement shall be entered by the auditor general in a book to be kept for that purpose Whenever any such tax shall have remained due and unpaid for one year the register may apply to the orphans' court by bill or petition to enforce the payment of the same whereupon the court having caused notice to be given to the owner of the real estate charged with the tax and to such other person as may be interested shall proceed according to equity to make such decrees or orders for the payment of the tax out of such real estate as shall be just and proper

Section 8 If the register shall discover that any tax imposed by this act has not been paid the orphans' court may cite the executors or administrators of the decedent whose estate is subject to the tax to file an account or to appear on a certain day and show cause why the tax should not be paid When personal service cannot be had notice shall be given for four weeks once a week in at least one newspaper published in the county and in the legal periodical designated by the rules of court of the county for the publication of legal notices If the tax shall be found to be due the delinquent shall pay the tax and costs The register or the auditor general shall employ an attorney of the county to sue for the recovery of the amount of such tax The auditor general in the settlement of accounts of any register may allow him costs of advertising and other reasonable fees and expenses incurred in the collection of the tax

Section 9 Where there is a devise descent or bequest liable to the tax hereinbefore imposed which devise descent or bequest is to take effect in possession or to come into actual enjoyment after the expiration of one or more life estates or a period of years the tax on such estate shall not be payable nor shall interest begin to run thereon until the person liable for the same shall come into actual possession of such estate by the termination of the estates for life or years The tax shall be assessed upon the value of the estate at the time the right of possession accrues to the owner but the owner may pay the tax at any time prior to his coming into possession In such cases the tax shall be assessed on the value of the estate at the time of the payment of the tax after deducting the value of the life estate or estates for years The tax on real estate shall remain a lien on the real estate on which the same is chargeable until paid The owner of any personal estate shall make a full return of the same to the register of wills within one year from the death of the decedent and within that time enter into security for the payment of the tax to the satisfaction of such register In case of failure so to do the tax shall be immediately payable

Section 10 If the tax is paid within three months after the death of the decedent a discount of five per centum shall be allowed If the tax is not paid at the end of one year from the death of the decedent interest shall be charged at the rate of twelve per centum per annum on such tax Where because of claims made upon the estate litigation or other unavoidable cause of delay the estate of any decedent or any part thereof cannot be settled up at the end of the year interest at the rate of six per centum shall be charged upon the tax arising from the unsettled part thereof from the end of such year until there be default Where real or personal estate withheld by reason of litigation or other cause of delay in manner aforesaid from the parties entitled thereto subject to such tax has not been productive to the extent of six per centum per annum the proper parties shall not pay a greater amount as interest to the Commonwealth than they have realized or shall realize from such estate during the time the same has been or shall be withheld as aforesaid

Section 11 The executor or administrator or other trustee paying any legacy or share in the distribution of any estate subject to the said tax shall deduct therefrom at the rate of two dollars in every hundred dollars upon the whole legacy or sum paid or if not money he shall demand payment of a sum to be computed at the same rate upon the appraised value thereof No executor or administrator shall be compelled to pay or deliver any specific legacy or article to be distributed subject to tax except on the payment into his hands of a sum computed on its value as aforesaid In case of neglect or refusal on the part of such legatee to pay the same such specific legacy or article or so much thereof as shall be necessary shall be sold by such executor or administrator at public sale after notice to such legatee and the balance that may be left in the hands of the executor or administrator shall be distributed as is or may be directed by law Every sum of money retained by any executor or administrator or paid into his hands on account of any legacy or distributive share for the use of the Commonwealth shall be paid by him without delay

Section 12 When a legacy subject to tax under this act is given to any person for life or for a term of years or for any other limited period upon a condition of contingency of the same be money the tax thereon shall be retained upon the whole amount but if not money application shall be made to the orphans court to make apportionment if the case require it of the sum to be paid by such legatees and for such further order relative thereto as equity shall require

Whenever any such legacy shall be charged upon or payable out of real estate the heir or devisee before paying the same shall deduct therefrom at the rate aforesaid and pay the amount so deducted to the executor and the same shall remain a charge upon such real estate until paid and the pay ment thereof shall be enforced by the decree of the orphans' court in the same manner as the payment of such legacy may be enforced

Section 13 Whenever any real estate of which any decedent may die seized shall be subject to the tax the executors and administrators shall give information thereof to the register of the county where administration has been granted within six months after they undertake the execution of their respective duties or if the fact be no known to them within that period then within one month after the same shall have come to their knowledge The owners of such estate immediately upon its vesting shall give information thereof to the register having jurisdiction of the granting of administration

Section 14 Any executor or administrator on the payment of said tax shall take duplicate receipts from the register both of which shall be forwarded forthwith to the auditor general who shall charge the register receiving the money with the amount and seal with the seal of his office and countersign the original receipt and transmit it to the executor or administrator whereupon it shall be a proper voucher in the settlement of the estate In no event shall an executor or administrator be entitled to a credit in his account by the register unless the receipt is so sealed and countersigned by the auditor general

Section 15 Whenever any foreign executor or administrator or trustee shall assign or transfer any stocks or loans in this Commonwealth standing in the name of the decedent or in trust for the decedent which shall be liable for the tax imposed by this act such tax shall be paid on the transfer thereof to the register of the county where such transfer is made otherwise the corporation permitting such transfer shall become liable to pay such tax

Section 16 Whenever debts shall be proved against the estate of a decedent after distribution of legacies from which the tax has been deducted in compliance with this act and the legatee is required to refund any portion of a legacy a portion of the said tax shall be repaid to him by the executor or administrator if the tax has not been paid into the state or county treasury or by the county treasurer if it has been so paid

Section 17 The registers of wills upon their filing with the auditor general the bond hereinafter required shall be the agents of the Commonwealth for the collection of the said tax For services rendered in collecting and paying over the same they shall be allowed to retain for their own use upon the gross amount collected during any year five per centum upon the tax collected if such tax shall amount to a sum of fifty thousand ($50,000) dollars or less three percentum on the amounts collected in excess of fifty thousand ($50,000) dollars and not exceeding one hundred thousand ($100,000) dollars two percentum on the amounts collected in excess of one hundred thousand ($100,000) dollars and not over two hundred thousand ($200,000) dollars and one percentum on the amounts collected in excess of two hundred thousand ($200,000) dollars

Section 18 Each register shall give bond to the Commonwealth in such penal sum as the orphans court may direct with two or more sufficient sureties for the faithful performance of the duties hereby imposed and for the regular accounting and paying over of the amounts to be collected and received This bond when executed and approved shall be forwarded to the auditor general

Until such bond and security be given the said tax shall be collected by the county treasurer In such cases all the provisions of this act relating to collection and payment by registers shall apply to the county treasurer

Section 19 Each register of wills shall on the first Monday of each month make return to the Auditor General and return and payment to the state treasurer of all taxes imposed under this act received stating for what estate paid All taxes collected by him and not paid over within one month after his quarterly return of the same he shall pay interest at the rate of twelve per centum per annum until paid

Section 20 The lien of the said tax shall continue until the tax is settled and satisfied and shall be limited to the property chargeable therewith All such taxes shall be sued for within five years after they are due otherwise they shall be presumed to have been paid and cease to be a lien as against any purchasers of real estate

Section 21 In all cases where any amount of such tax is paid erroneously to the register of wills the state treasurer on satisfactory proof rendered to him by said register of wills of such erroneous payment may refund and pay over to the person paying such tax the amount erroneously paid All such applications for the repayment of such tax erroneously paid in the treasury shall be made within two years from the date of payment except when the estate upon which such tax has been erroneously paid shall have consisted in whole or in part of a partnership or other interest of uncertain value or shall have been involved in litigation by reason whereof there shall have been an over-valuation of that portion of the estate on which the tax has been assessed and paid which overvaluation could not have been ascertained within said period of two years in such case the application for repayment shall be made to the state treasurer within one year from the termination of such litigation or ascertainment of such over-valuation

Section 22 This act does not repeal or effect the tax imposed and collected under the act approved May sixth one thousand eight hundred eighty-seven entitled "An Act to provide for the better collection of collateral inheritance taxes" its amendments and supplements

Section 23 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed

Section 24 The provisions of this act are severable and in the event of any provision hereof being declared unconstitutional it is hereby declared as the legislative intent that such unconstitutional provision shall not affect the validity of any other provision of this act

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend section 1, page 2, line 10, by striking out after the word "paid" the word "to" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "for;" also section 8, page 6, lines 7, 8 and 9, by striking out the words: "The register or the Auditor General shall employ an attorney of the county to sue for the recovery of the amount of such tax," and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "The Auditor General is authorized to employ an attorney of the county to sue for the recovery of the amount of such tax. The Auditor General is authorized to employ a resident attorney in all counties having a population of one hundred thousand and less than five hundred thousand, and in counties having a population of five hundred thousand and more, such additional resident attorneys as may be necessary to protect the Commonwealth's interests in all matters relating to enforcing the provisions of this act. Said resident attorney or attorneys shall be allowed such reasonable compensation as may be fixed by the Auditor General, which shall be paid from the moneys realized from such taxes."

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The Chaplain, Rev. S. G. Zerfass, offered the following prayer:

PRAYER.

Great God, Thou hast remembered us and imparted to us Thy grace. Thou hast kept us from harm and danger. We thank Thee for all the blessings we have received at Thy hand.

Life's duties, temptations, struggles and burdens have found us weak, therefore we confess our sins and ask of Thee to forgive all our short comings.

We would grow in grace to overcome our faults, to put on new beauties of character and to be less easily vanquished in temptation.

Wilt Thou heal us and sanctify us with more of Thy spirit that we may be better children.

Help us to guard impatient words, harsh acts, thoughtlessness, unkindness or rudeness and severe judgment, and forgive us, teaching us all to be more ready to do Thy love, we ask all in Christ's name. Amen.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. HOWARTH. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary Special for the purpose of a hearing.

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker, if there are any questions concerning this bill, I would be glad to explain the purposes of it, but I see no reason why it should be referred to a committee for the purpose of a hearing at this time. This bill was introduced by me very early in the session, and was in committee until last week, and certainly there was ample time to have a hearing on the bill during all that while. I object at this time to having the bill recommitted.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. GEORGE J. A. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Public Roads.

Mr. JEFFERSON W. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. BENNINGER. Mr. Speaker, I don't think it is fair that this bill should go back to the committee. It has been in the committee for a number of months and a sub-committee has been appointed to amend the bill and the sub-committee appointed did amend the bill satisfactory to the opposition to it, so I cannot see what benefit there can be in recommitting it, or any reason why this bill should go back to the Committee on Public Roads.

Mr. GEORGE J. A. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, just a word. I am a member of the Public Roads Committee and my motion was seconded by another member of the Public Roads Committee and a member of the sub-committee to which this bill had been referred for the purpose of recommending it back to the committee. I understand that there has been no action by the sub-committee to this bill, and how this bill has been reported out to this House, by what authority, God alone knows. This sub-committee never authorized this bill to be reported out. I ask for a square deal and that this bill be recommitted back to the Committee on Public Roads.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILLS ON SECOND READING.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in committee of the whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1443 (Senate Bill No. 749), entitled

An Act amending section three of an act, approved the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, entitled "An Act to amend section three of an act, entitled 'An Act to protect the public health and welfare, by regulating the employment of females in certain establishments, with respect to their hours of labor and the conditions of their employment; by establishing certain sanitary regulations in the establishments in which they work; by requiring certain abstracts and notices to be posted; by providing for the enforcement of this act by the Commissioner of Labor and Industry and others; by prescribing penalties for violations thereof; by defining the procedure in prosecutions; and by repealing all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions thereof' approved the twenty-fifth day of July, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and thirteen; by providing that the Industrial Board of the Department of Labor and Industry may subdivide the one day of rest in seven into two half days" by providing that the restrictions as to hours shall not apply to females engaged at State and charitable institutions, hotels and boarding houses.

And said bill having been read at length the second time, and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in committee of the whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1944 (Senate Bill No. 1033), entitled

A supplement to an act entitled "An Act to promote the safety of travelers and employes upon railroads by compelling common carriers by railroad to properly man their trains" approved the nineteenth day of June Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and eleven and providing that the provisions of said act shall not be in force during the time the government of the United States is engaged in war with a foreign government or power and for a period of six months after the close of such war

The first section was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the provisions of the act approved the nineteenth day of June Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and eleven entitled "An Act to promote the safety of travelers and employes upon railroads by compelling common carriers by railroad to properly man their trains" shall not be in force during the time that the Government of the United States is engaged in war with a foreign government or power and for a period of one month after the close of such war

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

MOTION TO STRIKE BILL FROM CALENDAR.

Mr. BLACK. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill, owing to the odium that has been attached to it in its passage through the Senate, be stricken from the calendar.

Mr. CHESTNUT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. GOODWIN. Mr. Speaker, this bill that has come from the Senate after careful consideration should be given careful consideration by this House and I object to the motion and hope that every member will vote against striking it from the calendar.

Mr. BLACK. Mr. Speaker, when this bill was introduced in the Senate the railroad men were promised a hearing. That promise was broken and the bill was reported out and read twice in the Senate without giving it a hearing.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. STERN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Stern, will state his point of order.

Mr. STERN. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman is out of order in criticizing the Senate.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is inclined to think that it is not good form for one body of the two legislative branches to criticize the other. However, I hope the gentleman from Dauphin will confine himself to the bill.

Mr. BLACK. Mr. Speaker, without reflecting on the Senate, I ask that the motion be put.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The second section, preamble and title were separately read and agreed to as follows:

Section 2 That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith or supplied hereby are hereby repealed

Whereas By act of Congress war now exists between the Imperial German Government and the United States of America and

Whereas The State and Nation are suffering from a shortage of labor owing to the extraordinary demands made upon industry by virtue of the state of war now existing and by the enlistment of large numbers of our citizens in the Army and Navy of the United States and

Whereas It is believed that the industrial situation may be relieved to a large extent by the suspension for a specified period of labor laws and

Whereas It is provided by Article one section twelve of the Constitution of the Commonwealth that no power of suspending laws shall be exercised unless by the legislature or by its authority Now therefore

A Supplement to an act entitled "An Act to promote the safety of travellers and employes upon railroads by compelling common carriers by railroad to properly man their trains" approved the nineteenth day of June Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and eleven and providing that the provisions of said act shall not be in force during the time the government of the United States is engaged in war with a foreign government or power and for a period of one month after the close of such war

And said bill having been read at length the second time, and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Private Secretary of the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1488.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 29, 1917.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 1488, entitled "An Act validating certain elections of counties cities boroughs townships school districts and other incorporated districts held pursuant to the provisions of an act approved the twentieth day of April Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four entitled 'An Act to regulate the manner of increasing the indebtedness of municipalities to provide for the redemption of the same and to impose penalties for the illegal increase thereof' and the amendments thereto and validating bonds issued or authorized to be issued in pursuance of such election."

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Private Secretary of the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILL NO. 42.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 29, 1917.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 42, entitled, "An Act amending an act approved the fifth day of February Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five entitled 'An Act relative to the establishment and jurisdiction of magistrates courts in the city of Philadelphia increasing salaries."

In approving House Bill No. 42, I am not unmindful of the fact that salaries of this grade ought not now generally be increased and I have opposed such increases. This minor judiciary has responsible duties and determine many cases thus lessening the cost and diminishing the period of delay in many cases of minor judicial but of major social import.

The impelling reasons for approving this Bill is the fact that these magistrates pay rent for their offices and employ at their expense a clerk and also bear from their salaries the cost of stationery, stamps and other office supplies. The net salary is inconsiderable and if men of the type worthy to serve are chosen they should be given this salary. Others should not be allowed to serve.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Private Secretary of the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1154.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 29, 1017.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval House Bill No. 1154, entitled "An Act authorizing the Judges of the Separate Orphans' Court in counties having a population of over eight hundred thousand and less than one million five hundred thousand inhabitants to fix and determine the salaries of assistant clerks in said court."

This bill authorizes the judges of the Separate Orphans' Courts in counties of a population between 800,000 and 1,500,000 to fix the salaries of assistant clerks in such courts.

If such power is to be given to Orphans' Courts it should be uniform throughout the Commonwealth. This bill in its restrictive clause violates Sec. 26 Art. V of the Constitution. Classification of courts on the basis of population is of very doubtful propriety. This special legislation is unnecessary for the reason that in the county delined there is a Salary Board before whom all officials may appear and present reasons for salary adjustments. This Board is the taxing board of the county directly responsible to the people and as in the case of the County Court bill it is held that this Salary Board upon whom rests the duty of fixing the tax rate should also fix the salaries.

For these reasons this bill is not approved.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speeaker, I move that the bill, together with the veto, be laid upon the table.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Private Secretary of the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 768.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamebr, Harrisburg, May 29, 1917.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval House Bill No. 768, entitled "An Act to refund to Freidman Manufacturing Company of Pittsburgh Allegheny County money paid for a license to sell oleomargarine."

This bill refunds $250 paid by a certain company for a license to sell oleomargarine. It is claimed that this license was not used, but there is no evidence to suport this contention. There is nothing in the bill to show that the company were misled by any State official, nor did they pay this money under compulsion. The mistake if any was the company's own voluntary act presumably in full knowledge of the law governing in such cases. Under these circumstances the repayment is forbidden by Art. 3, Section 7 of the Constitution. Moneys legally paid into the Treasury cannot be refunded.

For these reasons this bill is not approved.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. VICKERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill, together with the veto, be laid upon the table.

Mr. WYLIE. Mr. Speaeker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE COMMISSION OF PUBLIC SAFETY AND DEFENSE.

The Speaker laid before the House a communication from the Commission on Public Safety and Defence, which was read as follows:

May 22, 1917.

To the Honorable, the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: The Commission of Public Safety and Defense created by you under Act approved May 15, 1917, hereby requests your honorable bodies to favorably consider the passage of Senate Bill No. 845, authorizing the borrowing of twenty million dollars ($20,000,000), or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the defense of the Commonwealth, as per Resolution unanimously adopted by the Commission on the twenty-second day of May, 1917.

Very respectfully,
FRANK B. McCLAIN,
Secretary.

RESOLUTION GRANTING LEAVE OF ABSENCE TO THE HON. QUINTIN O. REITZEL.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent at this time for indefinite leave of absence for my colleague, the Honorable Quintin O. Reitzel, and in connection with that request , I offer the following resolution and request that it be considered at this time and adopted.

The SPEAKER. The resolution will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk then read the resolution as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 8, 1917.

Whereas, The Hon. Quintin O. Reitzel, Major of the 4th Regiment Pennsylvania Infantry, has been designed by Colonel Shannon as the officer of this regiment, who should go to Fort Sill, Oklahoma, and there in the United States School of Musketry, to take a special course of instruction in the use of small arms including the rifle, machine gun and hand grenade; and

Whereas, This assignment of Major Reitzel requires his indefinite absence from this body in which he has served as an illustrous and useful member; therefore be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That in granting an indefinite leave of absence to Major Quintin O. Reitzel, this House wishes to express its appreciation of his companionship and services while a member of this House as well as an appreciation of the splendid spirit of patriotism he has shown in answering the call of the nation in the past as well as in the present crisis; and that this House extends to Major Reitzel its best wishes for his success in the great service in which he is now engaged.

On the question,
Will the House adopt the resolution?
The resolution was adopted.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1171, as follows

An Act establishing in certain counties a board for the assessment and revision of taxes prescribing their powers duties and salaries providing for appeals from assessments and abolishing the office of city borough township and ward assessors

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in counties containing a population of not less than one hundred and ninety thousand inhabitants nor more than two hundred and thirty thousand inhabitants as shown by the last or any future United States census all assessments and valuations of property whether real or personal taxable for State county school poor road borough and township purposes or otherwise also occupations and military enrollment except license and mercantile taxes shall be made by a board consisting of three persons to be designated as the "board for the assessment and revision of taxes"

Section 2 The members of the said board not more than two of whom shall be of the same political party shall be appointed by the county commissioners in manner following One member for two years one member for three years and one member for four years and thereafter each succeeding appointment shall be for the term of four years the purpose being to create a continuing board

The said board shall designate one of its members as president of the board and each member of the board shall receive a salary of three thousand dollars per annum payable monthly out of the county treasury and in addition thereto shall receive all expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of his duties

Section 3 The county commissioners shall fill all vacancies occurring from time to time in the said board and shall furnish an office in the court house for the use of said board

The said board shall appoint its own clerks and fix their compensation with approval of salary board All salaries and expenses shall be paid out of the county treasury

Section 4 The said board shall divide the county into convenient districts and shall appoint one subordinate assessor for each district The subordinate assessors shall with the co-operation and under the jurisdiction of the said board make assessments and valuations of all property taxable for all purposes showing the value of the land and improvements thereon separately according to its full value based on such price in their judgment the same would bring public sale after full public notice thereof together with a list of all persons taxable upon occupation or subject to military enrollment in their respective districts Said subordinate assessors shall on or before the first Monday of November of the year preceding the triennial assessment in such counties file the assessments and valuations with the said board The subordinate assessors provided for in this act shall receive the sum of three dollars per day for the time actually occupied in the discharge of their duties

Section 5 In so far as respects State and county taxes the valuations and assessments shall be made by the said board annually on or before the thirty-first day of December Thereupon the said board shall examine and revise the valuations and assessments increasing or decreasing them as in their judgment may seem proper or adding thereto such property or subjects of taxation as may have been omitted

Section 6 After such revision the said board shall by rule fix convenient times for the hearing of all appeals from the said assessments and valuations After the hearing of appeals and after making whatever changes may be considered proper the valuation and assessments as ascertained and revised shall stand as the valuations and assessments for all purposes until the next triennial assessment and shall be made every three years thereafter The said board shall revise the assessment according to right and equity between the triennial assessments by adding thereto new increased or omitted subjects of taxation and the revising or reducing of valuation if it is proper to do so

Section 7 Upon request any taxpayer shall at any time receive from the said board a statement of his taxable property and its valuation Written notice setting forth the valuation fixed by the said board shall be sent to each property owner in manner heretofore provided by law at least ten days previous to the day when the appeals from the triennial assessments shall be fixed either for the whole county or in districts thereof notice of which fact shall be given by publication in not more than two newspapers of the county and of a time or times at which appeals will be heard After hearing the appeals the said board shall take such action in regard to them as may be right and proper

Section 8 After such action on the appeals any taxpayer who is dissatisfied with the assessment upon his property may within thirty days from the final fixing of the assessments and valuation appeal to the court of common pleas of the county It shall be the duty of the court at once to hear and determine said appeal and if necessary to make such change therein as may be proper

Section 9 In case of any change by the board during intervals between the triennial assessments as provided for in this act if there is any increase in any particular assessment or the addition of any omitted subject of taxation the taxpayer affected shall if a resident of the county have written or printed notice left at his residence at least ten days before the change is made and if a non-resident then the notice shall be posted on the property and a copy of such notice shall be mailed to his last known address as shown on the tax records Such taxpayer may appeal as provided above to the court of common pleas and such court shall take action as provided above in case of other appeals

Section 10 When the valuations and assessments are so made all taxation by the taxing agencies other than cities within the county shall be based upon such valuation

Section 11 The said board shall at once on the completion of the said assessment certify to the several taxing agencies within the county the total valuation within such subdivision thereof and within thirty days after such valuation has been received by any such taxing agency the said taxing agency shall certify to the board the per centum of taxes upon each dollar of valuation levied within such district and for what purpose

Section 12 The said board shall prepare all duplicates for the several taxing agencies and certify the same to the duly elected or appointed person whose duty it is to collect the taxes for such sub-division within the county Such duplicates shall be separate for each taxing agency and shall show against the name of each taxable the valuation of property or occupation and the amount of each and every tax so levied

Section 13 The office of city assessor for county purposes and the office of borough township or ward assessor or assessors as now existing in the counties coming under the provision of this act is hereby abolished

Section 14 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with or supplied by this act are hereby repealed

Section 15 This act shall take effect on the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DONNELEY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, Mr. Graeff.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Graeff, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GRAEFF. Mr. Speaker, yes sir.

Mr. DONNELEY. Mr. Speaker, in reading the title this bill specifies that it is "an act establishing in certain counties a board for the assessment and revision of taxes and abolishing the office of the city, borough, township and ward assessors." I would like the sponsor of this bill to explain to the House what counties does this bill affect under the census of 1910?

Mr. GRAEFF. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman's question what county this bill will affect?

Mr. DONNELEY. Yes sir, at the present time.

Mr. GRAEFF. Mr. Speaker, this bill as it is now drawn, affects Schuylkill County only; that is the only county that is affected.

Mr. DONNELEY. Mr. Speaker, I am opposed to this bill. I don't believe it would be fair for the members of this House to take away from Schuylkill County the right to select their own assessors. The County of Schuylkill, of course, is made up of many different kinds of industries and we have thousands of acres of farm land in Schuylkill County and I don't believe that anybody is better qualified than the people themselves to place valuations on the farm lands, so far as that property is concerned. I ask you gentlemen, in all fairness, to vote down this bill.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, I don't wish to take up any time in making a speech, but I merely wish to call your attention to the danger of passing legislation of this character. This bill, as I understand it, affects only Schuylkill County, but it is so drawn that by 1920, by the time the next census is taken, it will include Berks and possibly a number of other counties. I would have no objection to this bill if it would include only Schuylkill County, in the future, which it does at the present time, but gradually it will grow and we of Berks County are very much opposed to legislation of this kind. Our people are very well satisfied with the present system of making assessments and they are very much opposed to a system of this kind. A bill similar to this one was vetoed by the Governor two years ago, which you very well know. If the people in Schuylkill County want this system I have no objection, provided that they can draw their bill in such a way, and make it constitutional, that it will not affect the other counties. I do seriously object to a bill drawn in this manner, that will gradually include Berks County and some of the rest of the counties. I think that we should all consider this carefully. We have passed several bills of a special character for Schuylkill County and I have no objection to any of them so long as they let us out. I think it would be unfair, however, to pass legislation of this kind, which on its face seems to take in only one county, but really takes as all in after it is in effect for a few years. I ask you to vote this bill down.

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, I should like to interrogate the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Graeff.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Graeff, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GRAEFF. Mr. Speaker, yes sir.

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the gentleman of Schuylkill whether this bill is drawn along the same lines as the bill that Luzerne County is now working under?

Mr. GRAEFF. Mr. Speaker, that is true, and from my talk with other members of Luzerne County, I understand that the bill as it now affects Luzerne County is satisfactory.

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I desire to state at this time that you can ask any of the other members from Luzerne County for their opinion of the present system of assessment as it pertains to Luzerne County and I hardly believe that you will find a man that will not say that it is the best system which we have ever had. It has been the solution of collecting the taxes of a number of people who have been dodging their taxes for years, with the result that since this board has come into control, and I am speaking as a Republican, and the present board of assessors in Luzerne County are Democrats, that I want to recommend to the members the system in effect in Luzerne County. It has been the most satisfactory we have ever had, and therefore I recommend to gentlemen present that they support this bill.

Less than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the bill falls.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1583, as follows:

An Act to amend section one of an act approved the twenty-ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred nine entitled "An Act to prevent any individual from holding at the same time more than one of the offices of president vice-president secretary treasurer or solicitor of any building and loan association incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth and providing a penalty for the breach thereof" by prohibiting the president vice president secretary or treasurer from holding the office of conveyancer also the office of conveyancer

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section one of an act approved the twenty-ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred nine (Pamphlet Laws two hundred eighty-nine) entitled "An Act to prevent any individual from holding at the same time more than one of the offices of president vice-president secretary treasurer or solicitor of any building and loan association incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth and providing a penalty for the breach thereof" which reads as follows

"Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That from and after the passage of this act the same individual shall not be at the same time the holder of more than one of the following offices namely president vice-president secretary treasurer or solicitor of any building and loan association incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth" is hereby amended to read as follows

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk then read the amendment as follows:

Amend title, last two lines, by striking out the following: "also the office of conveyancer."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendment at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendment will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the Houes agree to the bill on third readnig as amended?

It was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. As the amendment is only striking out certain matter in the bill, the question recurrs,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SONES. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I happen to be a director in a small building and loan association in our city, and our solicitor draws up the deeds, mortgages and bonds. I have not looked this bill over, but from the title I would infer that we would need an extra conveyancer if this bill passes, and that is a hardship on the small building and loan associations. That being the case, I am certainly opposed to this bill, gentlemen of the House.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, this bill simply provides that one who stands in the position of conveyancer of a building and loan association shall not be permitted to be in any other office of that association. It does not burden building and loan association in any wise. It simply clarifies the law in this respect: That there is now on the statute books a law which prevents the solicitor, the president or vice-president and treasurer from being the secretary of building and loan associations. Since the passage of that law, there has crept into the building and loan association business the office of conveyancer which is identical in its work with the work of the solicitor, except that the solicitor is required to be a lawyer. Now if the law contemplates as a necessity making incompatible the office of solicitor and secretary so too must it contemplate that the office of secretary and conveyancer should be incompatible. I recommend that this bill should be passed.

Mr. SONES. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, so that the gentlemen of the House will not misunderstand me, I am not the solicitor of a building and loan association. We have another lawyer who is solicitor and he attends to all that class of work, and this will necessitate these small building and loan associations to have a special conveyancer. I do not see any sense in a bill of this kind at all.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, in order to clear the matter raised by the gentleman from Scuylkill, Mr. Sones, I would state to this House that this bill does not prevent the solicitor of a building and loan association from performnig any of the functions and duties that he now performs. It does not prevent the solicitor from continuing in his work of conveyancing and if Mr. Sones will carefully look over the bill he will find that to be correct.

Mr. SONES. Mr. Speaker, I have not read the bill. If the bill is as Mr. Sterling states, I have no objection to its passage.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That when any county city borough township school district or other municipality or incorporated district of this Commonwealth having authority so to do shall borrow money and issue bonds or other securities therefor except in the case of the giving of notes for temporary loans as may be authorized by law the authorities thereof shall sell the same to the highest responsible bidder after public notice by advertisement once a week for three weeks in at least one newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which such county city borough township or school district or other municipality or incorporated district shall be situated provided that no bid for such bonds or securities at less than their par value shall be accepted

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, if there is anybody in this House who is the sponsor for this bill, I would like to have him explain some of the provisions. It seems to me that there ought to be some explanation of a piece of legislation such as this, as drastic as this is, and one that will be hard to comply with, before the House votes on it. The entire act seems to be mandatory from beginning to end, using the word "shall" instead of "may."

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, in the absence of any explanation, I move that the further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. DELL. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1323, as follows:

An Act creating a Division of Building Inspection within the Department of Labor and Industry and Divisions of Building Inspection in the third class cities and providing for the creation of such divisions in certain of the countes boroughs and townships of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania providing for the promulgation of rules and regulations by the Industrial Board to effectuate the purposes of this act establishing an examining and advisory committee within the Division of Building Inspection providing for the appointment of officers and employes for the enforcement of the provisions of this act defining the authority and powers of said Division of Building Inspection and Examining and Advisory Committee and duties and powers of their officers and employes providing penalties for the violation of the provisions of this act and of the aforesaid rules and regulations of the Industrial Board and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act provided however that no acts or parts of acts relating to cities of the first and second class are hereby repealed

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That there is hereby created and established a Division of Building Inspection in the Department of Labor and Industry

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Palmer, the sponsor of this bill, explain its provisions to the House.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, this bill was drawn for the purpose of saving life and limb in Pennsylvania, and to save losses by fire which occur in Pennsylvania. During the year 1916 there occured in Pennsylvania 15,146 accidents, of which 3,753 were serious and 186 were fatal, which accidents were due to the fact that there was faulty building construction in the State of Pennsylvania, due to the fact of the loose building codes of the municipalities and townships, over which buildings the State of Pennsylvania had no jurisdiction. In 1916 there were $231,000,000 fire losses in the United States of America, and over one-tenth of this amount approximately one tenth of this amount was lost here in Pennsylvania—namely, over twenty millions of dollars in fire losses, and the report of the fire marshal for that year was to the effect that most of the fire loss was due to the faulty building construction in this State over which buildings the State of Pennsylvania had no jurisdiction. The State has already passed laws giving them jurisdiction over fire escapes and aisles and other things, but they have not got down to the proposition of inspecting the buildings themselves. Numerous instances could be cited to show what accidents were caused and how this bill would amend certain propositions, which now seem to be lax in this Commonwealth. At Harper, a suburb of Montrose, nearly one-third of the population was injured and a few fatally when the Odd Fellows' Hall burned, a building over which the State had no jurisdiction. There were other serious accidents at Newville and Reading last year, where they were remodeling a theatre, the ceiling of which collapsed and killed one mechanic and injured four, a few very seriously. In a theatre in Lebanon a short time ago, while a stock compay was playing to a capacity house on Saturday evening, the patrons of the first and second galleries felt the floor give way. It developed that the foundations of the piers gave way, and the piers themselves sank about six inches. That no lives were lost was a miracle. Another theatre in Altoona, the roof construction was bad, due to the ice and snow on the roof, and it sagged and was unsafe. The owner, of course, was put to the expense of reconstructing the roof. In the cities of Shenandoah and Pittston to-day they have paper partitions between the rooms instead of wood. Of course, as the law now stands the State would have no jurisdiction over these buildings, and the purpose of my bill is to give jurisdiction to the State, in other words, to make it a safety first proposition. I have no doubt in saying that the effect of passing this bill and enacting it into law would be the means of saving many lives in the State of Pennsylvania. Now the code, which is anticipated by this bill, will be drawn by the State Industrial Board, and will be adopted only after public hearings, to which interested parties will be invited. So that any man could come and present his case and ideas along these lines. There seems to be only one source in the whole State of Pennsylvania that is opposing this measure, and I very much regret to tell you, gentlemen of this House, that that opposition comes from the Commissioner of Public Health. His jurisdiction under the Housing Code of 1911 is saved by this bill, and in no way interferes with him, and why he should come in here or write letters to this Assembly, or have men whom he knows in your community opposing this bill, is beyond the understanding of men, unless you charge it to some ulterior motive. I make this charge advisedly, because I feel that there is merit in my bill, and I do not propose to stand idly by and allow a man without a good reason to come forth and oppose my measure, or in other words, to make it a personal matter relative to the passage of this bill. On the merit of the bill, without regard to personal feeling, I ask this House to adopt it and enact it into a law, and I do it on the slogan of safety first, to save the lives and limbs and health of the whole of the people of Pennsylvania.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen of the House, this bill creates a new commission with a chief building inspector and numerous assistants, together with a large clerical force, which takes an appropriation to handle it. I believe that every act of this kind should first go to the Appropriation Committee in order that the Committee might furnish the necessary appropriation to carry on this work, and with that in view I am going to move you, Mr. Speaker, the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, I seriously object to the motion made by Mr. Ramsey. I object to it for obvious reasons. It would hardly be necessary for me to state to the House why that motion should not be made. What would you send it back to the Appropriation Committee for? Is it for the purpose of having the bill killed? What other purpose would there be? Now, there are two hundred and seven men in this House who can vote "yes" or "no" on the bill. Let us face the music. If it is an unpleasant duty for you to support this bill because of personal reasons, why, don't support it. I am only asking you for the merits of the proposition. It is no favor to me personally; and I might have said when I first addressed the House on this measure that it does not affect private residences, that it is simply upon public buildings. and why it should go back to the Appropriation Committee —it seems to me to be unfair, and I ask this House to vote down this motion and vote it down emphatically so that this sort of thing, every time measures come before us, may be stopped in this House and that we might at least have some integrity and decided on a measure either "yes" or "no" and do that according to our consciences and then no man can find any fault with us

Mr. DITHRICH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Palmer.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Palmer, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker. yes, sir.

Mr. DITHRICH. Mr. Speaker, did I understand the gentleman from Schuylkill to say that this applied only to public buildings?

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, buildings used by the public.

Mr. DITHRICH. Owned privately?

Mr. PALMER. Yes, sir. It does not apply to dwellings, and I hope I made myself clear to this House.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion to reconsider the vote by which this bill passed third reading?

It was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Palmer.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Palmer, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PALMER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Schuylkill called attention to the fact that a large number of accidents and fires had occurred in the State of Pennsylvania during the years of 1915 and 1916. I would like to ask the gentleman what proportion of these occurred in cities of the first and second class?

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, in the State of Pennsylvania. in 1916, there occurred 16,059 fires, exclusive of cities of the first and second class.

Mr. MILLIRON. Thank you. Now, Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen of the House, the gentleman from Schuylkill also made the statement that the only opposition to this bill came from the Department of Health. I want to correct the gentleman, as far as I am personally concerned. My opposition to this bill comes from me from the fact that I own a private residence and under the provisions of this bill. as I read it and which I shall read to you at this time, Section 7 says "All buildings and structures in this Commonwealth in which people are employed, reside or assemble." Under that part which says "in which people reside" that includes all residences. If this bill should become a law it would be impossible for me to build a portico, change a stairway or make any improvements whatever on my own property without first obtaining a permission from the commission which this bill creates and also would have to undergo an examination by the Department of Health. The expense thereof is not definitely fixed in the bill but it provides that the expense thereof shall be determined by this commission. It seems to me, from the fact that this bill does not include cities of the first and second class, that it provides a very, very juicy proposition for the rest of us poor fellows who live in the suburbs of these cities and I shall vote "no."

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, I don't quite understand what the gentleman means when he talks about a "juicy proposition." It may be some expense but no expense would be too much to save some lives in Pennsylvania, and the bill distinctly states that private detached residences shall not come within its jurisdiction.

In 1911 this Legislature met and appointed or recommended that a Board of Building Inspection be commissioned to investigate into this matter and the result of that investigation now, after six years, by a body that was appointed by the Assembly of six years ago, is this bill; or in other words, this is the product of their recommendations.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker and gentleman of the House, the members of the House have failed to refer this bill to the Committee on Appropriations. I am going to oppose this bill from the standpoint of home rule for municipalities. This proposed act creates a central building inspection department in the State of Pennsylvania which superseded every building inspection department in every third-class city, borough and township and other portions of the State. It is true that this act permits every third-class city, borough, township and joint boroughs and townships to elect, by ordinance or otherwise, men to act as building inspectors who shall qualify after they pass examinations; but after that the municipality, according to this act, turns over its home rule department of building inspection to the State Building Inspection Board.

I want to ask the members of this House who come from third class cities and who now have building inspection departments over which we have control ourselves, and I am going to ask the men from boroughs who have a like department over which the borough has control to vote against this measure. I do that with a full knowledge that I am not doing anything which will injure or in any manner lessen the public safety or increase destruction of life and limb. I believe that every municipality in this State is capable of running its own building inspection department. I dont' believe the time has arrived when we should turn that department of ours over to a State building inspection department, created by the State, and which will have absolute jurisdiction over everything that we do in these municipalities. I trust, for this reason, and not because I represent any one man. I know nothing of Dr. Dixon's request to defeat this measure, but I stand here representing my city, a third class city, that wants to have its own way and wants not to be controlled by the State Building Inspectors except when the State has the right, as now, under the police power, to make us create and build buildings that will be substantial and safe. That is to my mind the only power we ought to turn over to the State; a right under the police power to tell us what to do but we ought to have the right after we create that department to run it according to the needs which the city, borough or the townships would desire. I trust the members will defeat it on those grounds.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Ramsey, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, yes sir.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, first, does the gentleman from Delaware think that the State should not have jurisdiction over fire escapes and aisles?

Mr. RAMSEY. I do say they have that now.

Mr. PALMER. It does not affect their home rule.

Mr. RAMSEY. It does, but I want to give them that under the police power.

Mr. PALMER. Do the doctors of Delaware County have to take a State examination?

Mr. RAMSEY. Yes sir, they do.

Mr. PALMER. Does that affect home rule?

Mr. RAMSEY. It does not. That is a matter for the State under its Medical Licensure, from every man who studies medicine.

Mr. PALMER. Will it affect your home rule?

Mr. RAMSEY. It does not. That has nothing to do with the creation of buildings and is with the Department of Health of our State.

Mr. PALMER. Relative to sewage plants or other issues relating to public health—does not the State lay down rules and laws for that?

Mr. RAMSEY. It does not in the same manner in which this bill is creating a central inspection department for buildings.

Mr. PALMER. They do lay down laws and rules.

Mr. RAMSEY. As to sewers there is issued a permit.

Mr. PALMER. Does not that affect that home rule to that extent, that it is under the police power?

Mr. RAMSEY. It is all right where the State does not interfere with the citys' affairs.

Mr. PALMER. Is that this police power relative to the safety of the citizens a necessity?

Mr. RAMSEY. Not by creating a central building inspection department giving them a charge over everything in the municipality.

Mr. PALMER. Don't that inspector justify that?

Mr. RAMSEY. That is under the jurisdiction of the State, not the city.

Mr. PALMER. Don't the whole authority belong to the inspector?

Mr. RAMSEY. If it is approved by the State.

Mr. PALMER. The rules are laid down by this Department, is that your objection?

Mr. RAMSEY. They have absolute jurisdiction; that is my objection.

Mr. PALMER. You object to it principally on the ground of interfering with home rule?

Mr. RAMSEY. As to the police power I am willing to admit it would be a good thing, but in this act which creates a Building Inspection Department with a whole lot of officers under salaries to come into the smaller municipalities telling them what they are going to do I object to that.

Mr. PALMER. If they are under the police power you believe it would be a good thing; a good rule?

Mr. RAMSEY. I don't believe the act is a good one.

Mr. PALMER. You believe the law is good?

Mr. RAMSEY. It may be a good thing to create a rule for public buildings but not for all other buildings in every municipality.

Mr. PALMER. If they are used by the public they are public buildings just the same for all the people of the State of Pennsylvania. What is the difference between them?

Mr. RAMSEY. The only difference is some of us are living in private houses.

Mr. PALMER. Does that affect those living in private houses?

Mr. RAMSEY. I refuse to answer any further.

Mr. DELL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Schuylkill one question.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Palmer, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, Yes sir, I will answer "that one question."

Mr. DELL. How much will this bill, if it becomes a law cost the State Treasury—what will it cost the State to pay the salaries under this Commission?

Mr. PALMER. I did have that in my mind but it has slipped me.

Mr. DELL. Is that the reason why the gentleman does not want it to go back to the Appropriation Committee?

Mr. PALMER. That is not it at all; it never entered my mind.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken, and were as follows, viz:

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1861, as follows:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1227 (Senate Bill No. 513), as follows:

An Act regulating the collection of county taxes in counties containing over one hundred thirty-five thousand and less than one hundred fifty thousand inhabitants creating the office of receiver of taxes in such counties and prescribing the powers and duties of said office

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in each county having a population of more than one hundred thirty-five thousand inhabitants and less than one hundred fifty thousand inhabitants the county taxes shall be collected by a receiver of taxes

Section 2 At the municipal election in the year one thousand nine hundred seventeen and quadrennially thereafter the qualified electors of each such counties shall elect a qualified elector of the county as receiver of taxes to serve for a term of four years from the first Monday of January next succeeding his election or until his successor is elected and has qualified Any vacancy in the office shall be filled by the Governor for the unexpired term

Section 3 The receiver of taxes shall before he enters upon the duties of his office take and subscribe the oath required by section one article seven of the Constitution and file the same in the office of the recorder of deeds He shall before he assumes the duties of his office enter into a bond to the Commonwealth in an amount to be fixed by the county commissioners The condition of the bond shall be that the receiver of taxes shall pay over or account for according to law the whole amount of taxes charged in the duplicates delivered to him during his term of office The bond shall be presented to the court of quarter sessions for approval and if approved shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the court of quarter sessions

Section 4 The receiver of taxes shall receive an annual salary of three thousand six hundred dollars to be paid monthly by the county treasurer The receiver of taxes may appoint two deputies at an annual salary not to exceed fifteen hundred dollars each and not exceeding two clerks at an annual salary not to exceed twelve hundred dollars each The deputies shall possess all the powers with regard to the collection of county taxes hereinafter conferred upon the receiver of taxes

Section 5 The receiver of taxes in such counties shall have an office at the court house which shall be open each day for the receipts of taxes The county commissioners shall furnish the receiver of taxes with books of numbered receipts blank forms of notices and all postage and supplies which may be necessary for the proper conduct of his office

Section 6 When the yearly or triennial assessments for county purposes in any city borough town or township of any such county have been made and revised and all appeals therefrom have been heard and finally determined the county commissioners shall issue a duplicate of all county taxes including taxes upon unseated lands levied in any such district to the receiver of taxes with their warrant attached The warrant shall be effectual for the collection of taxes within said city borough town or township for a period of two years The commissioners shall issue separate duplicates for each city borough town or township and taxes in any particular district shall become due and payable as soon as the duplicate is delivered to the receiver of taxes

Section 7 The county commissioners shall at the time of the delivery of any duplicate to the receiver of taxes certify the amount of such duplicate to the county treasurer who shall charge the receiver of taxes with the amount thereof

Section 8 Upon the delivery of any duplicate the receiver of taxes shall proceed to collect the taxes levied in such duplicate and shall within thirty days after such delivery notify each taxable whose name appears on the duplicate The notice shall state (a) the valuation of the property of the taxable (b) the rate of taxation (c) the valuation of the occupation of the taxable (d) the full amount of taxes for which the taxable is liable (e) a statement that the taxes are due and payable (f) a place within the district and time when payment can be made (g) a statement of the time during which an abatement will be allowed (h) when the full amount of tax will be collected and (i) when an additional percentage will be added as a penalty The notice shall be mailed to the last known postoffice address of each taxable

Section 9 All persons making payment of county taxes charged against them within ninety days from the date of the notice as provided in section six shall be entitled to a reduction of five per centum from the amount thereof Persons failing to make payment of their taxes within six months after the date of the notice shall be charged five per centum additional on the taxes charged against them which shall be added thereto by the receiver of taxes and be collected by him

Section 10 The receiver shall furnish each taxable on the payment of his county taxes with a receipt setting out the date of payment the name of the taxpayer the amount of each particular tax and the name of the district and shall also make upon the stub in the book corresponding to the receipt a memorandum containing the same date as the receipt The stubs of all such receipts shall be kept in the office of the receiver of taxes and be open to public inspection

Section 11 The receiver shall attend at least two days in each city borough town and township for the purpose of receiving taxes One of the days on which the receiver of taxes attends in a district shall be during the time in which a rebate is allowed and the other day shall be before the penalty attaches

Section 12 The receiver of taxes shall make monthly returns to the county commissioners showing the amounts collected during the preceding month and the amount of uncollected taxes upon the respective duplicates The receiver of taxes shall at the time of making any return to the county commissioners pay over to the county treasurer all the taxes collected during the preceding month and the county treasurer shall credit the receiver of taxes with the amount so paid over

Section 13 The county commissioners shall allow to the receiver of taxes such abatements and exonerations as to them shall appear just and reasonable The county commissioners shall cause to be entered in a book kept for that purpose the names of the persons to whom an abatement or exoneration was allowed the reason for each abatement and exoneration the amount thereof and the date when made The county commissioners shall give to the receiver of taxes a certificate directed to the county treasurer stating the nature of the tax and the amount abated or exonerated and the county treasurer shall credit the receiver of taxes with the amount of such abatement or exoneration

Section 14 If any person shall neglect or refuse to make payment of the amount due by him for any county tax within thirty days from the date of the notice as provided in section eight the taxes of such person shall become delinquent and the receiver of taxes may levy the amount of such taxes by distress of the goods and chattels of such person and after ten days' public notice by written or printed advertisement the receiver of taxes may sell the goods and chattels of such delinquent

Section 15 Every tenant of lands and tenements shall be liable to pay all taxes which during his possession or occupancy may become due and payable thereon The goods and chattels of any such tenant shall be liable to distress and sale as provided in section fourteen of this act for any such taxes remaining unpaid Having paid any taxes the tenant may by an action of assumpsit or otherwise recover from his landlord the amount paid or at his election may defalcate the amount thereof in payment of rent due to such landlord unless such defalcation or recovery would impair any contract or agreement between the landlord and tenant previously made

Section 16 In case goods and chattels sufficient to satisfy the amount of the tax due by any taxable cannot be found upon the premises of the taxable the receiver of taxes may take the body of the delinquent taxable and convey him to the jail of the county there to remain until the amount of such tax together with the costs shall be paid or secured to be paid or until he shall be otherwise discharged by due process of law The receiver of taxes shall not imprison any female or minor or person found by a judicial proceeding to be of unsound mind

Section 17 The personal representative of any deceased receiver of taxes may enforce the collection of unpaid taxes in the same manner as the receiver could if living and may employ a suitable person to act for them in the execution of the warrant with all the powers possessed by the deceased receiver of taxes

Section 18 The receiver of taxes shall on or before the last day of the year in which any taxes are levied make return to the county commissioners and county treasurer of all seated and unseated lands for which the tax has not been paid and upon which personal property cannot be found sufficient to pay such taxes The receiver of taxes shall add to the amount of the tax returned against any property a penalty of five per centum

Section 19 The receiver of taxes shall make a complete settlement of all taxes upon his duplicates with the county treasurer not later than three months after the expiration of his term of office On making such settlement the receiver shall make oath or affirmation that he has made a true and just return of all moneys by him collected for county taxes The oath or affirmation shall be administered by the county treasurer and shall be filed in the office of the county commissioners

Section 20 A receiver of taxes who converts any money collected for county taxes to his own use or who uses by way of investment any money so collected or refuse to pay the same over at the times and places required by this act to the person authorized to receive the same is guilty of embezzlement and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to imprisonment not exceeding five years or to pay a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars or both

Section 21 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are repealed

Section 22 This act except as herein otherwise designated shall take effect on the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and eighteen

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. Speaker I rise at this time to inquire if there is any gentleman in the House that can explain to us the provisions of this bill.

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I will attempt to accommodate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Walker. This bill provides for the appointment by the counties having a certain population of a receiver of taxes who is to take the place of the present tax collector. The bill simply applies to York and Dauphin Counties. The members of York and Dauphin County have gotten together and fixed up their differences as to this bill, in other words, the bill was amended so as to make it become operative on January 1, 1918. The bill requires no further explanation other than to repeat that the receiver of taxes is to take the place of the present tax collector, if the bill becomes a law. It would save the tax payers $3,000 a year to the county of Dauphin. I trust that the members of the House will support this bill.

Mr. GEORGE J. A. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Swartz.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Swartz, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SWARTZ. Yes sir, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GEORGE J. A. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, what manner does this bill provide for the collection of taxes by the county receiver of taxes.

Mr. SWARTZ. How is that, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GEORGE J. A. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, what manner or method of collection of taxes is provided for by this bill?

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, by a receiver of taxes, elected by the people to take the place of the tax payer, or rather appointed by the commissioners.

Mr. GEORGE J. A. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, does this tax receiver collect these taxes at the county seat?

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, he is to visit different places in the county to meet the tax payers of the county on certain days to accommodate the tax payers and for their convenience.

Mr. GEORGE J. A. MILLER. What public object is sub-served by abolishing the local tax collectors and transferring their authority into the hands of the tax receiver?

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I did not understand the gentleman.

Mr. GEORGE J. A. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, what public object is served by transferring this authority?

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, the object is to save the tax payers some money, that is the object of the bill. It will save the tax payers of Dauphin County about $3,000 per annum.

Mr. GEORGE J. A. MILLER. Why not apply this bill then to all the counties of the State?

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I understand for political reasons some of the politicians of the different counties seem to want the tax collector to have the job. Dauphin County does not want it.

Mr. GEORGE J. A. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I come from a county that may be affected by this bill, and we want the tax payer.

If this bill were to apply only to the County of Dauphin I would be glad to vote for it out of friendship for Mr. Swartz, but unfortunately I am afraid this bill applies to my county as well, and to some other counties in this State of Pennsylvania. I do not think that the people living in counties affected by this bill are ready to abolish the office of tax collector and transfer his duties and authority to a county receiver of taxes. I do not think the system will work out. I do not think it ought to be passed. I am willing to vote for the bill, if it is drawn in such a way as to apply to counties other than my own, but as long as it applies to my county, I shall vote against it.

Mr. COOK. Mr. Speaker, this bill, if enacted into law would of course include York county. According to the statement of the gentleman of Dauphin County, it would mean a saving of $3,000 a year. I want to say to the gentleman that the people of York County are opposed to this bill. The Commissioners of York County are opposed to it, and they have shown by figures that they will not save one dollar by the passage of this bill.

Furthermore, there is the nine thousand dollars paid to these five men. As you well know, the chief collector gets $3600, the two deputies $1500 each and two clerks $1200 each, making a total of about $9000. This money is collected and handled and received by these five men, while under the old or present system in York County this would be divided up among about a hundred men. In York county, as the present method is, they would have to have a tax collector to collect the school tax and the road tax, and we are cutting that amount of money off that is due them by giving it to these five men.

From another standpoint this is a bad bill. These men only go around into the townships once when the percentage is taken off, and as you well know there are many men in every township whom it does not suit possibly on a certain date to pay the taxes, while if they had the tax collector in the townships they could in a few days take the money to them or send it to them or meet them on the way and pay their taxes. I want to say that this is a very inconvenient method of collecting taxes to the average farmer or laborer or man who has his taxes to pay who does not live in town. A man with fifty cents to a dollar to pay and who must go down to the city eighteen to twenty miles away to pay his taxes, when he counts the loss of his day and his expenses at the city, why his expenses will be three times the amount of his taxes. This bill if passed, gentlemen of the House, will be an imposition upon York county. If Dauphin county wants it, I say give it to them. I am under the impression that possibly in this city they need it, from what I gather. I ask you in all sincerity to vote this bill down. We do not want it in York county, and we do not want to be included in it.

Mr. BLACK. Mr. Speaker, this is not an experimental measure. It has been tried in both Huntingdon and Indiana counties, and I understand is working in a satisfactory manner. Under the present method of collecting taxes in Dauphin county a person owning property in two or three different wards must see the collectors in those different wards. If he has property outside the city it is very inconvenient. The same condition exists where people living outside of the city own property in the city. I believe that this bill would mean a saving to the taxpayers of Dauphin county of at least three thousand dollars. The salaries, I understand, amount to nine thousand dollars, while under the old system they amounted to about thirteen thousand one hundred dollars. Now, Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, one tax collector in the city of Harrisburg, in the third ward, the smallest ward, received in fees twenty-three hundred dollars in 1916. I believe I express the general concensus of opinion of the people of Dauphin county and of the press that they want this bill, that they want the one tax collector established.

On the question recurring,

PRAYER.

Rev. T. T. Mutchler offered the following prayer:

We come to Thee, Oh God, and thank Thee for Thy loving care and goodness that has been over us. Help us to show Thee our appreciation by lives that are in accordance with Thy will. Be with us and bless us as a nation, direct the affairs of this nation, and may our President and those associated with him be guided divinely that they may do that which is to the best interest of all. May Thy blessing rest upon this Commonwealth, our Chief Executive, and those associated with him, and may they act wisely and do the things which are for the best interest of the citizens of this great State. May Thy blessing rest upon this Senate, upon the officers, upon the homes that have been bereaved, and upon those that are now afflicted. Restore them to their wonted health. Direct the members of this Senate and may each one act wisely, conscious that we must give an account at that day of all that we do here below. Direct us, keep us from sin, guide us by grace, and eventually save us with the redeemed. We ask this and all else we need for Christ's sake. Amen.

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 1115 (House Bill No. 1424), as follows:

An Act for the imposition and collection of certain inheritance taxes

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That all estates real personal and mixed of every kind whatsoever situated within this Commonwealth whether the person dying seized thereof be domiciled within or without this Commonwealth and all such estates situated in another State, territory or country when the person dying seized thereof shall have his domicile within this Commonwealth passing from any person who may die seized or possessed of such estates either by will or under the intestate laws of this Commonwealth or any part of such estates or interests therein transferred by deed grant bargain or sale made or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment after the death of the grantor or bargainer to or for the use of father mother husband wife children lineal descendants born in lawful wedlock children of a former husband or wife or the wife or widow of the son of a person dying seized or possessed or to legally adopted children are hereby made subject to a tax of two ($2) dollars on every hundred dollars of the clear value of such estates and at the same rate for any less amount to be paid for the use of the Commonwealth

The tax hereinbefore provided is also imposed on any estate passing from the mother of an illegitimate child or from any person of whom the mother is a lineal descendant to such illegitimate child his wife or widow Such tax also applies to any estate passing from an illegitimate child to his mother

Section 2 The register of wills of the county in which letters testamentary or of administration are granted shall appoint an appraiser whenever occasion may require to fix the value of the estates hereinbefore subjected to tax Such appraiser shall make a fair conscionable appraisement of such estates and assess and fix the cash value of all annuities and life estates growing out of said estates upon which annuities and life estates the tax imposed by this act shall be immediately payable out of the estate at the rate of such valuation

Section 3 The compensation of such appraisers shall be as follows namely For each day during which an appraiser shall actually be engaged in making appraisements of property subject to the tax he shall receive the sum of five dollars If it shall be necessary for the appraiser to travel from his place or residence to appraise property subject to the tax he shall be allowed such actual necessary traveling expenses as he may incur which expenses shall be itemized in a sworn statement to be returned to the register and subject to the final approval of the auditor general

Section 4 Whenever because of the complicated nature of an estate subject to the payment of such tax the interest of the Commonwealth shall require the appointment as appraiser of such estate of a person possessed of expert or technical knowledge to ascertain the value thereof reasonable additional compensation shall be allowed such appraiser for the exercise of such expert or technical knowledge In case where after the appointment of an appraiser it shall appear that the proper appraisement of said estate will require the services of a person possessed of expert or technical knowledge whereof the appraiser appointed is not possessed the appraiser may employ the services of a person possessed of expert or technical knowledge to assist him in the appraisement and for such services the person so employed shall receive reasonable compensation In all such cases the register of will appointing the appraiser shall certify to the auditor general that there is an actual necessity for the appointment of an appraiser possessed of expert or technical knowledge or that the appraiser already appointed to appraise the estate in question should be assisted by a person possessed of such knowledge No person shall be appointed as such expert appraiser or as expert assistant to the appraiser until the approval of the auditor general of said appointment is first obtained nor shall any payment be made to any appraiser or to any person employed by him under this section until an itemized statement of the services performed and the compensation recommended shall have been rendered under oath or affirmation to the auditor general for his approval and shall have received the same No clerk or other person employed in the office of a register of wills shall be appointed as an expert appraiser of an estate subject to the payment of such tax nor as an expert to assist the appraiser of such estate

Section 5 It shall be a misdemeanor for an appraiser to take any fee or reward from any executor or administrator legatee lineal descendent or heir of any decedent and for any such offense the register shall dismiss him from such service Upon conviction of such misdemeanor such appraiser shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars or imprisoned not exceeding one year or both

Section 6 Any person not satisfied with any appraisement may appeal within thirty days to the orphans' court on paying or giving security to pay all costs together with whatever tax shall be fixed by the court Upon such appeal the court may determine all questions of valuation and of the liability of the appraised estate for such tax subject to the right of appeal to the supreme or superior court

Section 7 The register of wills shall enter in a book to be provided at the expense of the Commonwealth which shall be a public record the returns made by all appraisers under the provisions of this act opening an account in favor of the Commonwealth against each decedent's estate The register may give certificates of payment of such tax from such record The register shall transmit to the auditor general on the first day of each month a statement of all returns made by appraisers during the preceding month upon which the taxes have been paid or remain unpaid which statement shall be entered by the auditor general in a book to be kept for that purpose Whenever any such tax shall have remained due and unpaid for one year the register may apply to the orphans' court by bill or petition to enforce the payment of the same whereupon the court having caused notice to be given to the owner of the real estate charged with the tax and to such other person as may be interested shall proceed according to equity to make such decrees or orders for the payment of the tax out of such real estate as shall be just and proper

Section 8 If the register shall discover that any tax imposed by this act has not been paid the orphans' court may cite the executors or administrators of the decedent whose estate is subject to the tax to file an account or to appear on a certain day and show cause why the tax should not be paid When personal service cannot be had notice shall be given for four weeks once a week in at least one newspaper published in the county and in the legal periodical designated by the rules of court of the county for the publication of legal notices If the tax shall be found to be due the delinquent shall pay the tax and costs The Auditor General is authorized to employ an attorney of the county to sue for the recovery of the amount of such tax The Auditor General is authorized to employ a resident attorney in all counties having a population of one hundred thousand and less than five hundred thousand and in counties having a population of five hundred thousand and more such additional resident attorneys as may be necessary to protect the Commonwealth's interests in all matters relating to enforcing the provisions of this act Said resident attorney or attorneys shall be allowed such reasonable compensation as may be fixed by the Auditor General which shall be paid from the moneys realized from such taxes The Auditor General in the settlement of accounts of any register may allow him costs of advertising and other reasonable fees and expenses incurred in the collection of the tax

Section 9 Where there is a devise descent or bequest liable to the tax hereinbefore imposed which devise descent or bequest is to take effect in possession or to come into actual enjoyment after the expiration of one or more life estates or a period of years the tax on such estate shall not be payable nor shall interest begin to run thereon until the person liable for the same shall come into actual possession of such estate by the termination of the estates for life or years The tax shall be assessed upon the value of the estate at the time the right of possession accrues to the owner but the owner may pay the tax at any time prior to his coming into possession In such cases the tax shall be assessed on the value of the estate at the time of the payment of the tax after deducting the value of the life estate or estates for years The tax on real estate shall remain a lien on the real estate on which the same is chargeable until paid The owner of any personal estate shall make a full return of the same to the register of wills within one year from the death of the decedent and within that time enter into security for the payment of the tax to the satisfaction of such register In case of failure so to do the tax shall be immediately payable

Section 10 If the tax is paid within three months after the death of the decedent a discount of five per centum shall be allowed If the tax is not paid at the end of one year from the death of the decedent interest shall be charged at the rate of twelve per centum per annum on such tax Where because of claims made upon the estate litigation or other unavoidable cause of delay the estate of any decedent or any part thereof cannot be settled up at the end of the year interest at the rate of six per centum shall be charged upon the tax arising from the unsettled part thereof from the end of such year until there be default Where real or personal estate withheld by reason of litigation or other cause of delay in manner aforesaid from the parties entitled thereto subject to such tax has not been productive to the extent of six per centum per annum the proper parties shall not pay a greater amount as interest to the Commonwealth than they have realized or shall realize from such estate during the time the same has been or shall be withheld as aforesaid

Section 11 The executor or administrator or other trustee paying any legacy or share in the distribution of any estate subject to the said tax shall deduct therefrom at the rate of two dollars in every hundred dollars upon the whole legacy or sum paid or if not money he shall demand payment of a sum to be computed at the same rate upon the appraised value thereof No executor or administrator shall be compelled to pay or deliver any specific legacy or article to be distributed subject to tax except on the payment into his hands of a sum computed on its value as aforesaid In case of neglect or refusal on the part of such legatee to pay the same such specific legacy or article or so much thereof as shall be necessary shall be sold by such executor or administrator at public sale after notice to such legatee and the balance that may be left in the hands of the executor or administrator shall be distributed as is or may be directed by law Every sum of money retained by any executor or administrator or paid into his hands on account of any legacy or distributive share for the use of the Commonwealth shall be paid by him without delay

Section 12 When a legacy subject to tax under this act is given to any person for life or for a term of years or for any other limited period upon a condition of contingency of the same be money the tax thereon shall be retained upon the whole amount but if not money application shall be made to the orphans court to make apportionment if the case require it of the sum to be paid by such legatees and for such further order relative thereto as equity shall require

Whenever any such legacy shall be charged upon or payable out of real estate the heir or devisee before paying the same shall deduct therefrom at the rate aforesaid and pay the amount so deducted to the executor and the same shall remain a charge upon such real estate until paid and the pay ment thereof shall be enforced by the decree of the orphans' court in the same manner as the payment of such legacy may be enforced

Section 13 Whenever any real estate of which any decedent may die seized shall be subject to the tax the executors and administrators shall give information thereof to the register of the county where administration has been granted within six months after they undertake the execution of their respective duties or if the fact be no known to them within that period then within one month after the same shall have come to their knowledge The owners of such estate immediately upon its vesting shall give information thereof to the register having jurisdiction of the granting of administration

Section 14 Any executor or administrator on the payment of said tax shall take duplicate receipts from the register both of which shall be forwarded forthwith to the auditor general who shall charge the register receiving the money with the amount and seal with the seal of his office and countersign the original receipt and transmit it to the executor or administrator whereupon it shall be a proper voucher in the settlement of the estate In no event shall an executor or administrator be entitled to a credit in his account by the register unless the receipt is so sealed and countersigned by the auditor general

Section 15 Whenever any foreign executor or administrator or trustee shall assign or transfer any stocks or loans in this Commonwealth standing in the name of the decedent or in trust for the decedent which shall be liable for the tax imposed by this act such tax shall be paid on the transfer thereof to the register of the county where such transfer is made otherwise the corporation permitting such transfer shall become liable to pay such tax

Section 16 Whenever debts shall be proved against the estate of a decedent after distribution of legacies from which the tax has been deducted in compliance with this act and the legatee is required to refund any portion of a legacy a portion of the said tax shall be repaid to him by the executor or administrator if the tax has not been paid into the state or county treasury or by the county treasurer if it has been so paid

Section 17 The registers of wills upon their filing with the auditor general the bond hereinafter required shall be the agents of the Commonwealth for the collection of the said tax For services rendered in collecting and paying over the same they shall be allowed to retain for their own use upon the gross amount collected during any year five per centum upon the tax collected if such tax shall amount to a sum of fifty thousand ($50,000) dollars or less three percentum on the amounts collected in excess of fifty thousand ($50,000) dollars and not exceeding one hundred thousand ($100,000) dollars two percentum on the amounts collected in excess of one hundred thousand ($100,000) dollars and not over two hundred thousand ($200,000) dollars and one percentum on the amounts collected in excess of two hundred thousand ($200,000) dollars

Section 18 Each register shall give bond to the Commonwealth in such penal sum as the orphans' court may direct with two or more sufficient sureties for the faithful performance of the duties hereby imposed and for the regular accounting and paying over of the amounts to be collected and received This bond when executed and approved shall be forwarded to the auditor general

Until such bond and security be given the said tax shall be collected by the county treasurer In such cases all the provisions of this act relating to collection and payment by registers shall apply to the county treasurer

Section 19 Each register of wills shall on the first Monday of each month make return to the Auditor General and return and payment to the state treasurer of all taxes imposed under this act received stating for what estate paid All taxes collected by him and not paid over within one month after his quarterly return of the same he shall pay interest at the rate of twelve per centum per annum until paid

Section 20 The lien of the said tax shall continue until the tax is settled and satisfied and shall be limited to the property chargeable therewith All such taxes shall be sued for within five years after they are due otherwise they shall be presumed to have been paid and cease to be a lien as against any purchasers of real estate

Section 21 In all cases where any amount of such tax is paid erroneously to the register of wills the state treasurer on satisfactory proof rendered to him by said register of wills of such erroneous payment may refund and pay over to the person paying such tax the amount erroneously paid All such applications for the repayment of such tax erroneously paid in the treasury shall be made within two years from the date of payment except when the estate upon which such tax has been erroneously paid shall have consisted in whole or in part of a partnership or other interest of uncertain value or shall have been involved in litigation by reason whereof there shall have been an over-valuation of that portion of the estate on which the tax has been assessed and paid which overvaluation could not have been ascertained within said period of two years in such case the application for repayment shall be made to the state treasurer within one year from the termination of such litigation or ascertainment of such over-valuation

Section 22 This act does not repeal or effect the tax imposed and collected under the act approved May sixth one thousand eight hundred eighty-seven entitled "An Act to provide for the better collection of collateral inheritance taxes" its amendments and supplements

Section 24 The provisions of this act are severable and in the event of any provision hereof being declared unconstitutional it is hereby declared as the legislative intent that such unconstitutional provision shall not affect the validity of any other provisions of this act

Two-thirds of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 345, as follows

An Act providing for the joint acquisition and maintenance by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New York of certain toll-bridges over the Delaware River and making an appropriation therefor

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the word "bridge" wherever used in this act shall mean any bridge over the Delaware River between the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New York to cross which toll is charged except such bridges as are used exclusively for railroad or railway purposes and shall include the actual bridge the approaches thereto and all real and personal property including the franchise belonging to the owner or owners of such bridge used in the operation and maintenance of same

Section 2 The Board of Commissioners of Public Grounds and Buildings of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is hereby constituted a commission to act in conjunction with a similar commission of the State of New York as a joint commission for the acquisition of the various bridges over the Delaware River between the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New York

Section 3 The acquisition of said bridges may be either by purchase or by condemnation proceedings as said joint commission may deem most expedient The one-half of the cost of acquiring said bridges shall be paid by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania when the State of New York agrees to pay the other one-half of said cost

Section 4 The said joint commission as soon as conveniently may be after the passage of this act shall ascertain or estimate the value of each of such bridges and shall in writing give notice of such valuation to the respective owner or owners thereof Such notice shall contain an offer to purchase such bridge at the respective valuation

Section 5 In the event that the owner or owners of any such bridge refuse or neglect to accept such offer it shall be the duty of said joint commission to determine in which state the said condemnation proceedings may be instituted

Section 6 In the event that said joint commission determine to institute any such condemnation proceedings in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania application shall be made by the Attorney General or by the owner or owners of any such bridge to the court of common pleas of the county in which the head of such bridge is located for the appointment of viewers Whereupon said court or any law judge thereof shall appoint three discreet and disinterested freeholders to view such bridge and estimate the value thereof None of said freeholders shall be a resident of the county wherein such application shall be made The said court shall fix a time not less than twenty nor more than thirty days thereafter when said viewers shall meet upon the property and view the same The said viewers shall cause at least ten days personal notice of the time and place of such first meeting to be given to the Attorney General and to the owner or owners of such bridge if resident within said county If said owner is a corporation such notice shall be given to the president secretary or treasurer thereof if such officer resides within said county If neither said owner nor any of said officers resides within said county or cannot be found therein notice of such first meeting shall be given as said court may direct

Section 7 The said viewers having been duly sworn or affirmed faithfully and impartially to perform the duties required of them under the provisions of this act shall at the time fixed for said first meeting proceed to ascertain as accurately as may be the value of such bridge and to that end may require the attendance of any person whose testimony may be pertinent thereto and the production of any such books and papers as said viewers may deem necessary If any person shall refuse to appear and testify before such viewers or refuse to produce such books and papers when thereto required the said court or any judge thereof shall upon application of said viewers or a quorum thereof make such order therein as may be necessary

Section 8 Whenever said viewers shall have ascertained the value of said bridge they shall prepare a full report of their labors Said report shall include a plan showing the location of said bridge Upon the completion of said report the viewers shall fix a time when they shall meet and exhibit same Ten days written notice of the time and place of such meeting shall be given to said Board of Commissioners of Public Grounds and Buildings to the Attorney General and to the owner or owners of said bridge At the time and place mentioned in such notice the said viewers shall meet and shall publicly exhibit said report and hear all exceptions thereto After making any changes in such report as they may deem necessary the same shall be filed in said court

Section 9 Within thirty days after the filing of said report in said court the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or any person interested may file exceptions thereto whereupon said court may confirm said report absolutely or modify it or refer it back to the same or to new viewers with like powers and duties as the former viewers

Section 10 Within thirty days after final action on said report by the court the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or any person interested may demand a trial by jury or may appeal to the Supreme or Superior Court

Section 11 The cost of said condemnation proceedings including the court costs compensation of viewers and the advertising herein required shall be paid by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Each of said viewers shall receive a sum not exceeding five dollars ($5.00) for each day actually and necessarily employed in the performance of the duties herein prescribed

Section 12 The one-half part of the purchase of said bridges or of the damages awarded under said condemnation proceedings shall be paid by the Treasurer of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania upon warrants drawn by the Auditor General under such conditions as may be prescribed by said Auditor General

Section 13 As soon as said joint commission and said owners shall have agreed upon the price of any such bridge or as soon as said joint commission shall have determined to acquire any such bridge by condemnation proceedings the said joint commission if funds sufficient for the purchase of the bridge are available shall at once take possession of such bridge in the joint names of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New York Toll charges on such bridge shall thereupon cease and such bridge shall thereafter be free to the traveling public under such rules and regulations as may be be prescribed by such joint commission or their lawful successors Any railroad or railway now having the use of any such bridge by lease or agreement shall continue to pay to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New York in equal proportions the same rental charges and in the same manner as such charges are now paid to the owner or owners of such bridge

Until the amount of such purchase price is paid to the owner or owners of such bridge interest shall be paid thereon at the rate of six per centum Interest at the same rate shall be paid on any award or verdict under condemnation proceedings from the time of taking such bridge until the termination of such proceedings by final decree of said court or of final decree on an appeal to the Supreme or Superior Court if any be taken

Section 14 Upon the acquisition of any such bridge by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New York the same shall remain in the charge and control of said joint commission or their successors Such bridge shall thereafter be maintained jointly by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New York shall be kept in constant repair and shall be rebuilt when destroyed The one-half of any and all expense connected with such maintenance repair or rebuilding shall be paid by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Section 15 To carry out the provisions of this act the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated Said appropriation shall continue and be available at such time as the State of New York shall act in conjunction herewith

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1020, on third reading, entitled

An Act providing for the protection of the public health and the prevention of fraud and deception by regulating the testing of milk and cream when the same is bought on the basis of butter fat as determined by the Babcock test and providing penalties for the violation thereof and providing for the enforcement thereof be recommitted to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.
On the question,
Will the Senate agree to the motion?
Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, I understand that if this bill passes it is at the discretion of the Dairy and Food Commissioner to appoint any number of inspectors to put this act into operation. There is no definite statement in the bill as to the number or the increase necessary and the Appropriation Committee has been met in all of its investigations during the last three months with the statement that by reason of statutory requirement the appropriations are to stand. I think that the purpose of this bill is only repeating what we have been doing for the last eight or ten years, without knowing fully the extent of the appropriation required.
And the question recurring,
Will the Senate agree to the motion?
It was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.
